PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

At the height of the COVID-19 pandemic it was amazing to hear the discussion as to what was "essential" and "non-essential." During difficult times, we realize what is most important to us—basically life can be boiled down to just a few things that are essential, or as the dictionary defines it, "extremely important."

As I think about 3ABN and how God provides for this ministry, I'm reminded again of how essential (extremely important) each of you are to God and to this ministry. Your prayers, letters of encouragement, and donations keep us going forward and are making a difference in someone's life at this moment. Here are just a couple of snippets from two letters that came across my desk recently. I hope they encourage you, as they did me.

Thank you again for contacting and partnering with 3ABN to help spread the gospel to the world! Remember that God loves you, and that you are essential to Him.

Greg Morikone
3ABN President

Hope

Behind the Walls

Each week, 3ABN's Pastoral Department receives hundreds of letters from inmates seeking for answers to their Bible questions, or who hope to receive a Bible. Their letters are carefully read and answered by a wonderful group of ladies whose dedication to the Lord is truly amazing.

From the Beginning

"Our prison ministry began with Mama Grace Yost, who sent out one Bible and a hand-written note," says J. D. Quinn, 3ABN's Pastoral Department Manager. "She used her own funds to purchase Bibles, then passed it on to Karen Owen, who led us through a transition period. Now 3ABN Prison Ministries Coordinator, Linda Taylor* and her faithful team have taken this ministry to new heights. They send each inmate their own Bible with a letter welcoming them into the family of God. They're truly a special team of faithful soldiers in God's army!"

Linda says her team feels blessed as they read hundreds of letters each week. "There are 2.3 million people in prison here in the U.S.," she says. "They're there because of things that happened in their life; and although I don't know what I would have done if those things had happened to me, I do know what God asks us to do for them. We send them a Remnant Study Bible with commentary by Ellen White, and they write back and say, 'For the first time, I can really understand what God's Word is saying!'"

"Last year, we sent out about 12,000 Bibles—at a cost of approximately $144,000. At one point, we had to stop because we ran out of funds," she explains, "and it broke our hearts. I'm so grateful for the generosity of our supporters that has allowed us to send Study Bibles again."

Working With Others

Linda's passionate about her work. "I know they're searching for the Lord, and while we can send Bibles and answer letters, we can't visit them in person. We'd love to hear from other prison ministries, because then we could connect prisoners to someone who would visit them on a regular basis. They need to know Jesus. They need to know they're not trash. God doesn't throw them away. If He forgave the wickedness of King Manasseh in 2 Kings 21, He can certainly forgive any prisoner today!"

Letters of Thanks

Prisoners who receive a Study Bible are often quick to write back. "I want to thank you for my Remnant Study Bible and the Steps to Christ book you sent me," writes a man in Arizona. "I am enjoying both tremendously! I've used my Study Bible every day since receiving it. My studies have not only increased in length, but in understanding and motivation to study more. Reading Scripture every day helps me to keep going and to try harder to walk with Him (Colossians 2:6)."

Another prisoner writes, "I got the Bible you sent me yesterday, and oh my, it was an Ellen White Study Bible. I have been wanting one of those, and have written to almost 20 prison ministries for one. But then my chaplain gave me a list of places to write, and lo and behold, praise my Lord and Savior, He must have heard my prayers! I watched 3ABN when I had a cellmate with a TV, but now I'm on 23-hour lockdown and will be for the next few years because of the trouble drug abuse got me into with prison gangs. However, I can sit here alone, reading my awesome Study Bible. Thank you!"

Christian Programs

3ABN and Dare to Dream Network have worked long and hard to bring Christ-centered programming to those who are incarcerated. "When I read what Jesus said in Matthew 25:36, 'I was in prison and you came to me,' I always think, That's someone's son or daughter who needs to be reached with the gospel!" says 3ABN Dare to Dream General Manager, Jason Bradley. "Some don't make it out alive, and they shouldn't have to worry about being lost for eternity; so we've been trying for many years to bring Dare to Dream and 3ABN programming into the prisons. A lot of them have totally shut down any visitation during the COVID-19 pandemic. Prisoners are hungry for Christian programming, and 3ABN can introduce them to Jesus. Time is coming to a close. We see the signs of Jesus Christ's soon-coming all around us, and people need to know Who to stand for—and Who to stand with!"

The Lord is eager to reach His children in prisons and jails. They are souls Jesus died for, and He will surely bless every effort to reach them. Thank you for your support of 3ABN's prison ministry. ☺

Counting Our Blessings

GOD TURNS EVIL INTO GOOD

Have you noticed that some people seem to be in far better shape, mentally and spiritually, than others during this pandemic? Some are obsessed and tormented by fear, while others are busy finding ways to help their fellow man—and counting their blessings.

The enormous loss of lives, the strain on healthcare workers, economic upheaval, millions of jobs lost, poverty, hunger, homelessness—no one escapes the suffering. Many are asking, “Where is God in all this?”

Choose to Be Thankful

Consider Ellen White’s words during a Thanksgiving sermon in 1884, where she urged her audience to count their blessings. “We ought to be glad, and rejoice in God; for He has given us many mercies,” she said. “In my experience I have found that when I brought joy to the hearts of others, my own soul rejoiced, and was filled with the melting Spirit of God.

“The blessings of God are more than the hairs of our head, more than the sands of the seashore. Meditate upon His love and care for us, and may it inspire you with love that trials cannot interrupt nor afflictions quench.”¹

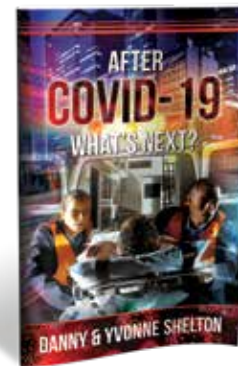

Blessing Others

While the pandemic rages, we are focused on finding new ways to bring hope to our viewers and listeners by addressing their critical needs; and despite the difficulties of our current conditions, the Lord has blessed our efforts abundantly! It didn’t take us long to recognize this after our state governor declared a stay-at-home order—right after we completed recording a new series with Pastor Mark Finley on the Three Angels’ Messages!

Another blessing we’ve noticed is that many are considering their priorities and the direction of their lives, realizing they cannot entirely rely upon their state or federal governments for answers. In slowing down and reflecting on these things, they’ve begun to hear the Holy Spirit’s call to seek the Lord. This explains the tremendous jump we’ve seen in the numbers of 3ABN viewers and listeners these past few months! Not only are they streaming millions of minutes more than they ever have, but they’ve also shattered all records on the number of views our programs have received on YouTube!

New Way to Evangelize

For those seeking answers, Danny and Yvonne Shelton wrote a new booklet called After COVID-19 What’s Next? showing how we all contracted the deadly disease of sin—and how the Bible promises a cure, allowing us to face the future with hope. Through the generosity of our viewers and listeners, millions of these booklets are being mailed to homes all over the United States, and to the specific zip codes the donors want to cover. What a blessing it is to be able to evangelize door-to-door without ever leaving the house!

A New Podcast

We’ve also launched a podcast division called 3ABN Audio with our 100 Days of Prayer and 3ABN Sabbath School Panel podcasts. 100 Days of Prayer encourages listeners to join us in supplication for each other and for those who struggle with heavy burdens, with inspiring music from Tim Parton, E. T. Everett, and Ben Lingle. Meanwhile, our 3ABN Sabbath School Panel podcast provides a fresh and relevant study of God’s Word that you can listen to anytime.

More Resources

3ABN has taken a four-fold approach to spreading hope by launching a new section of resources on our website, addressing spiritual, physical, family, and community needs.

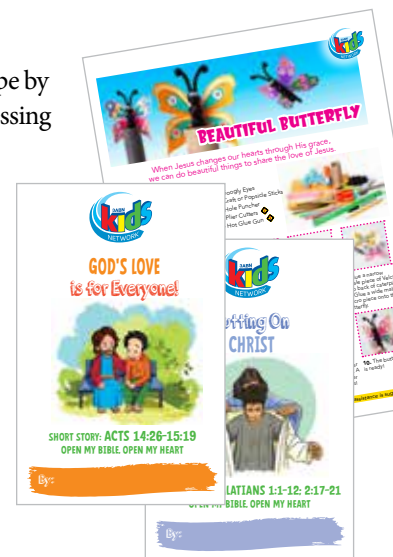

One section features health programs designed to introduce health principles and connect you to the best sources of information about the COVID-19 disease.

Slowing down in life has piqued interest in spiritual things, and a new section of testimonies and prayer requests gives you an opportunity to connect with your global 3ABN family.

There are also new resources for your children, including video messages from Aunt Francine, as well as crafts and Detectives of Truth guides that go along with the children’s weekly Bible study lessons.

Helping Others

As Ellen White concluded her sermon so many years ago, she urged her listeners to open their hearts to suffering humanity, for they are the purchase of high heaven. “Christ identifies His interests with those of His needy, suffering children; and neglect done to them is registered in the books of heaven as done to Christ in the person of His saints. Whenever you take up the duty that lies nearest you, then God will bless you, and hear your prayers. Your blessings do not come from mortal hands. God has ministered to you all these years.”²

For Them and For Him

Among the letters we receive are those that express the heartfelt feelings of prisoners who receive a special study Bible from 3ABN—like David, who writes from a federal prison in Florida.

A Request

“Someone told me I can request a free study Bible, so I’d like to request one, please, if possible. I usually don’t like to ask for anything for free, but I don’t have the means to purchase one for myself right now.

“I had a cellmate who has followed the Lord for close to 30 years, and he had a study Bible. He told me that when he first got it, it was like going from needing reading glasses to receiving 20/20 vision.

“This journey of my life is not easy, but I know that He will finish the work that He started. Thank you.”

The Gratitude

Shortly after David received his study Bible, we received another letter from him.

“Thank you 3ABN, for my new Bible,” he wrote. “I love it, and in my prayers, I thank Him for it every day. As God reveals Himself to me through His Word—and through Christian literature, songs, and a few Christian inmates—He invites me to fall in love with Him more and more. And I do.

“During this time of personal correction, He has lovingly brought me to a point of repentance and remorse over my sins. But His forgiveness is like sweet, sweet honey on my lips. He’s the One who runs in my direction, while the whole world walks away. He’s the God who stays!

“When I got here, I believed the lie that my life was over. God found me on the ash heap—broken and barely alive—and is gently, tenderly, patiently, kindly, powerfully, and supernaturally healing all my wounds and breathing true life into me. He’s tearing away at the confusion and blindness, and replacing it with clarity and vision.

“I want to believe that He has a purpose for me, after all this. I recently read Luke 22 where Jesus told Peter that Satan had asked for him, to sift him as wheat. But Jesus prayed that his faith would not fail, and that when he returned to Him, he would strengthen his brethren. I felt strongly convicted, and wondered if this explained my messy life. Though I have, in essence, denied Jesus with my behavior many, many times, yet here I am at the feet of the Savior, knowing that He is the one true God, and that He is love. Many other verses speak to me of an all-powerful, loving God who, like a loving Father, refines, corrects, and disciplines His children with a purpose in mind. So for now, I take it one day at a time, and seek His will for today. To be in my situation, yet be acknowledged, is truly uplifting.”

By Divine Appointment

Another prisoner sent us a letter, hoping for a study Bible. “My name is Michael and I’ve been a believer that Jesus Christ is the Messiah since 2003,” he says. “But just like the nation of Israel, I’ve been in a perpetual state of apostasy due to idolatry in the form of methamphetamine drug addiction.

“I have a radio on my table, but I forego listening to music stations. Instead, I listen to 3ABN Radio on 107.9 FM from Fulton, Missouri. I firmly believe I’ve discovered your station by divine appointment, but now God relentlessly keeps putting it on my heart that I need to delve into Seventh-day Adventism. He’s given me the gift of discernment, so I will use that, along with prayer and the Word of God to guide me.

“Since I’m in prison, I’m very limited in accessing information about your doctrines; but I just happened to hear your address, so I’m prayerfully and respectfully requesting you please send me anything you can about the Seventh-day Adventist Church and your beliefs. Please.

“He’s the One who runs in my direction, while the whole world walks away. He’s the God who stays!”

“I heard someone on your station mention the book, The Great Controversy, and some others I can’t recall right now. I’ve been listening to show after show, and Bible study after Bible study about End Times prophecy on 3ABN. That, coupled with God relentlessly pressing upon my heart about the Seventh-day Adventist Church—well, all of that has compelled me to write this letter!

“I currently have a New Living Translation Life Recovery Bible, but anything you could send to help deepen my understanding of the Word of God would be such a blessing to me.

“I apologize for being so destitute, but I’m only poor financially; spiritually, I am as rich as there are grains of sand on a beach! Thank you so much for taking time to read this. May God bless you all.” ☺

FOR THEM AND FOR HIM

Is the Holy Spirit impressing you to do something for those who are locked away behind bars? They’re desperately looking for answers—without the modern resources we take for granted. Every study Bible we send them becomes a treasured possession, and when their lives unaccountably change, they become powerful witnesses of God’s power, His love, and His way of life!

From a Stream to a River

“Behold, I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth; shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.” Isaiah 43:19

The Prophet Isaiah could not have imagined the far-reaching meaning of the words he wrote so many years ago. But the Lord knew—and He delights in fulfilling His Word!

In 1986, as 3ABN began transmitting programs from a small shack at the base of a satellite dish in southern Illinois, Danny Shelton and a small group of supporters dreamed of “reaching the world with the undiluted three angels’ messages” of Revelation 14. But none of them could have imagined how quickly the Lord would open the doors to multiple satellites, television and radio stations, and cable. Then, with the rapid development of the Internet, we were presented with another powerful tool, and Three Angels Broadcasting Network quickly embraced the new technology. Today, our life-saving programming is streamed over cell phones, tablets, desktop and laptop computers, set-top devices, smart speakers and smart TVs. Even in the poorest countries of the world, inexpensive smartphones allow the masses to stream 3ABN’s Christ-centered messages all day long!

We praise God for over 63 million minutes of viewing among 3ABN’s YouTube Channels over the last four weeks, mostly attributed to the stay-at-home orders brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic. “We’ve seen a huge increase in the number of hours spent watching 3ABN,” says Moses Primo, 3ABN’s Director of Broadcasting and Engineering. “Many people are watching on the Roku box, where the number of hours watched jumped in just six months from 3 million in September 2019 to 5 million in April 2020! We’ve seen an increase of over 10,000 new users of our 3ABN App for smartphones and tablets, as well.

Due to this marvelous increase in viewing, 3ABN’s streaming costs have risen exponentially. This amazing ministry tool is made possible by the gifts of viewers who have experienced God for themselves. Your tax-deductible gift to 3ABN will ensure that lives will continue being changed as people from around the world encounter Christ through streaming media.

“I know that 3ABN is here in this world for such a time as this to share hope, encouragement, and truth,” says 3ABN President, Greg Morikone. “Only in eternity will we see the full results of souls in the kingdom of God because of your sacrifice. Thank you!”

Won’t you please pray and ask the Holy Spirit what He would have you do in support of 3ABN’s streaming costs? We want to widen the flow of saving grace from a stream into a mighty river, and with your help, we can do it!

#431- Streaming Costs

Eggless Egg Salad

by Lucia Tiffany

INGREDIENTS

- ½ lb. super firm tofu (extra firm if you can’t find the super firm)
- ½ cup celery, minced
- ¼ cup red onion, finely chopped
- ½ cup stuffed green olives, finely chopped
- 2 tsp vegan chicken seasoning
- 1 cup vegan mayonnaise
- 1 tsp salt or Himalayan black salt*

DIRECTIONS

1. Mash tofu with fork or pastry cutter.
2. Add all other ingredients and mix well.
3. Add extra mayonnaise for consistency, if needed.

Lucia Tiffany and Jason Bradley on the 3ABN Today cooking set.

*A SECRET INGREDIENT:

If you like the taste of eggs, try using Himalayan black salt, which has a slightly sulfurous flavor.
