Dear 3ABN Family,

I enjoy weather very much. I like to track the forecast for the upcoming week, and beyond. As we head into fall here in southern Illinois, we start to see all kinds of forecasts for the upcoming winter—how cold it will be, or how much snow and ice we can expect. Meteorological forecasting is very intriguing to me, especially when they track huge hurricanes and typhoons. How can they forecast the paths of such large storms?

Our world is in crisis, and the proverbial storm clouds are gathering all around. Political strife, wars and rumors of wars, the COVID-19 pandemic, famines, earthquakes, floods, and fires all have people around the world asking, “What’s going to happen next?”

We know from the Bible that there’s an even bigger storm coming our way as the angels in Revelation 7 start letting go of the four winds of strife. The prophets of God foretold (forecasted) the future—and what an encouraging message they gave us! Yes, the coming storm is big, but we know that after the storm comes our redemption! What an incredible message we have to share with the world. What a forecast!

Because of you, 3ABN is sharing this biblical forecast. Thank you for standing with us in these times!

"I WILL GIVE YOU the NATIONS"

by Bobby Davis

In the early morning hours of November 15, 1984, God impressed 3ABN founder, Danny Shelton, to build a television station that would reach the world with the undiluted three angels' messages of Revelation 14. Since then, the world has never been the same.

We sat down to talk about the ministry with him, and with 3ABN President Greg Morikone and 3ABN Vice President/COO Jill Morikone, and here's what they had to say:

Since the beginning, has 3ABN grown in directions that surprised you?

"Yes!" Danny exclaims. "When we started, there was no Internet, so our goal was to get on satellite. Next, we built downlink TV stations, got on cable, and eventually on radio. But God had even bigger plans. When Jesus said, 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature' (Mark 16:15), He was talking to this generation because now we can reach millions instantly through the Internet and social media. Back then, I never dreamed of picking up a phone to watch 3ABN anywhere in the world! I'm reminded of the promise in Psalm 2:8, 'Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession.' Nothing's off-limits!"

Greg nods in agreement. "We've grown into nine television networks, five radio networks, and just this year, our Christian programming has reached into Cuba. That's huge!" he says. "And while the method of delivery is changing—the message remains the same."

"People watch differently," Jill explains. "Back in the day, viewers flipped a channel and found 3ABN. But now they discover us when they type, 'What happens when I die?' or 'How can I be saved?' Our goal is to have 3ABN come up first in their Internet search results."

"God is giving us new opportunities, like automatic closed captioning translation into multiple languages. Robotic cameras will free up workers to do other production work, and an FCC window is making more radio station affiliates possible. We continue to expand on cable, and can now reach places that don't have reliable Internet with our Interless boxes. We're launching our online 3ABN Bible Answers resource, and are working on a new 3ABN training platform, too. Evangelism is why we exist, and it's clear that's what God has called us to do."

As you look back through the years, what stands out to you?

"First, God gets all the credit," Danny begins. "He blesses us in spite of us, and I'm amazed He could use me to work in a ministry that reaches the world. He's not looking for talent; He's looking for those who will step out in faith and go forward, regardless of their background, culture, or education. If we're willing, God uses us in great and mighty and marvelous ways.

"Many years ago, I knew God had chosen Greg and Jill to take this ministry into the future. They are young people who have caught the vision of 3ABN and do not waver or back away from any challenge. They're not trying to change the ministry; they're just moving it forward. They are handling new highways of communication I understand so little about—like 3ABN+."

Greg and Jill appreciate Danny's guidance and help, too. "It's a tremendous honor to be a part of this ministry," Greg says, "and for the 22 years that I've been here, I've seen God leading and guiding. He is our Sustainer, our Provider, and the Captain of this ship! Working under Danny Shelton's mentorship and with our amazing board of directors has also been a great privilege, too. Danny's never-wavering faith has inspired me, his optimism has encouraged me, and his heart for evangelism has motivated me."

Jill agrees. "I'm honored to work alongside Danny and Greg," she says. "Danny's faith and courage, his willingness to stand for principle, and his common sense are qualities I really admire. They are a blessing, and this ministry wouldn't exist if he had not answered God's call.

"I might get caught up in my day-to-day duties, but then I get a letter, email, or phone call telling me how 3ABN has changed someone's life. That always reminds me why this ministry exists—to take the gospel to a lost and dying world."

"As we celebrate this 37th Anniversary, we thank the Lord for His guidance, but we also thank all our faithful viewers and listeners," Greg concludes. "You've caught the vision, stepped out in faith, and sacrificed to spread the gospel, and together, we are reaching the world!" 📞

HOW GOD WORKS

God brings the most wonderful workers to 3ABN, and in 2006, He brought us Adam Dean to work as a graphic designer. Today he's our Publishing Department Manager and we asked him to share his amazing story with us.

"Even though I was raised a Seventh-day Adventist, I lost interest in spiritual things by the time I began college," he says. "However, as I interviewed for my first job, I realized that two of the graphic design studio owners were Adventists, so I told them I was one, too—even though I hadn't been to church in a while. Through their influence, and that of the Adventist-owned TV station in town, I began attending sporadically, again.

"A few years later, I got a job in the Marketing Department at Walmart headquarters, but just days after accepting my new position, I woke up from a hospital test and heard my doctors discussing emergency surgery to remove a large mass from my intestine! After surgery, I woke up in Intensive Care, wondering whether I would survive, and a visiting friend asked me, 'Adam, if you don't make it, are you at peace with the Lord?'

"Thankfully, it turned out to be benign, but that was the turning point of my life and I began attending church again. But although I refused to work on Sabbath, I still wasn't keeping it holy, and the Lord had me under growing conviction.

"Finally, when I read in Isaiah 58:13–14 that God promises to bless us for keeping His day holy, I was convinced. Knowing the doctrines wasn't enough. I needed to know Him! A few weeks later, I looked forward to going home after church instead of going to the mall, and soon my pastor made me a greeter, and later, a deacon. I began ministering door-to-door and even joined a jail ministry. But something was still missing—something I can only describe as a longing to work in ministry. I remember praying, Lord, I love where I live, and I just bought this house. But if You want me to go somewhere else, let me know."

After seven years at Walmart, things began changing as Adam's marketing department was restructured. "I saw the handwriting on the wall, so I began looking for something else," he says. He attended an ASI Convention hoping to find ministry work he could do from home, "and although I passed out dozens of resumes, I had no takers," he recalls. "But when I got home, I heard of an opening at 3ABN; and the day I interviewed was the day when most of my department was laid off. God couldn't have made it any clearer. I literally walked away from one job and into another."

DRAMATIC EXPANSION

In 2006, when Adam began working for 3ABN, his department consisted of three full-time employees that dealt only with publishing. "But over the years, we added the website, social media, and the 3ABN+ on-demand video platform responsibilities," he says. "Our duties expanded dramatically, but until recently, the Lord enabled us to do it all with only a handful of employees.

"OUR WORK TOUCHES THE LIVES OF THOUSANDS EVERY DAY, SO WE GIVE GOD OUR VERY BEST."

"Our work touches the lives of thousands every day, so we give God our very best. I'm so grateful for Janelle Owen, who came to us in 2013. She is the lead designer for our 3ABN World magazine, works on many other print projects, helps with photography, social media, and much more.

"Svetlana Christian began working with us in 2013, as well. She does projects for our 3ABN Kids Network and is our main photographer and Photoshop expert.

"I'm very grateful that Jacob Chung just recently accepted a full-time position with us, maintaining all of our websites. He also provides help in designing graphics for both online and print projects and is a real blessing to our team!

"My work covers all areas, but one of my favorites is moderating nearly 1,000 comments each week on our social media platforms and having the privilege of seeing so many come to the Lord because of our YouTube programs. In 2019, I saw one of 3ABN's videos surpass one million views, and now we have 250,000 YouTube subscribers, not to mention 3ABN+ that is now coming into its own. Some of these platforms are things we haven't been trained in," he adds, "but God trains us on the job, and although that's not how the world works, that's how He works! A favorite verse of mine is Joshua 1:9 that says, 'Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Adam reflects for a moment, then adds, "I remember a long hallway at Walmart headquarters with bronze plaques on the walls showing the one-millionth blow drier, razor, or toaster we'd sold. But now, instead of selling things, God allows me to touch thousands of people for eternity. He's been with me all the way, and although I've had to walk by faith, He's made it clear—He wants me here!"

We praise God for the dedicated men and women of our Publishing Department and pray that He will continue blessing their efforts! ☺

A Family of Believers

The Holy Spirit is changing lives through 3ABN programming every single day! What joy we feel when we hear from those who have come to Jesus for the first time, or come to understand Bible truths and chosen to have a closer walk with the Lord. We also rejoice with those who have found a new church and joined the worldwide Seventh-day Adventist family of believers.

Here are just a few of the many letters, emails, and social media comments we've received in the past few months

Embracing New Truths

Patsy, in Brooklyn, New York, tells us that she listens to many of our sermons and enjoys our Bible studies, praise and worship, camp meeting, and health programs. Then she adds, "After listening to a program this month, I felt compelled to make this small contribution to prison ministry. I pray that our awesome God will continue to direct the good works of 3ABN in helping to lead souls to the kingdom. I am not a Seventh-day Adventist, but am considering becoming a Sabbath keeper. God's grace and mercy be with each and every one of you."

Kathy, from Perry, Oklahoma, writes, "My son and I are not Seventh-day Adventists, but we really like watching 3ABN. We receive blessings from the teaching about our Lord Jesus Christ, and my son and I have both accepted Him as our Savior! I am enclosing a donation for you to use where it may be needed. May God bless you all."

Jill writes this from Mohawk, Michigan: "My husband discovered 3ABN when he was recovering from surgery. We have been watching your programs for several years now, and discovered the Sabbath and other truths. We are attending a local Adventist church and have wonderful new friends. Thank you for all you do!"

Tammy emailed us an inspiring story, saying, "I live in Illinois, but when my husband passed away, I reconnected with my mom in Washington State, who was not a Christian. Through persistence, and the blessing of the Holy Spirit, she gave her heart to Jesus. Then I introduced her to 3ABN because she was caring for my father and unable to attend church, and now she now watches daily. 3ABN is life to my mother! Thank you for all you do."

Freda, in Glen Ullin, North Dakota, writes, "Thank you for the great job you are doing. I am not a Seventh-day Adventist, but I've been watching 3ABN for eight years. I've learned so much, and I am keeping the Sabbath. I enjoy all your programs, especially the music. I've been a musician all my life and love singing those gospel songs!"

Blessed Through YouTube

We receive many comments from viewers who watch 3ABN's YouTube Channel, like Ruth, who says, "You have been a source of inspiration and light to my life throughout the years. I think I stumbled upon your YouTube Channel many years ago while trying to find a spiritual connection after not attending church for a long time. You have become a daily special guest in my home—a blessing, indeed! Please pray for me and my family, especially for my precious daughter and her husband to accept Jesus."

Fara commented on our YouTube Channel, as well, saying, "Thank you for sharing this program. I am a Catholic, but I listen to all your programs on 3ABN. God bless all of you, and to God be the glory!"

Finding a Church Home

Sharon in Headland, Alabama, writes, "Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, I have been watching 3ABN for the last several months and have learned so much. Although I have been a Baptist for 40 years, I never believed the 'Once-Saved, Always Saved' idea. Both of my brothers and my mother were Seventh-day Adventists, and I now know the truth about the Sabbath. Praise God, and thank you so much!"

Chris, in Jacksonville, Florida, writes, "I congratulate you on your response to the coronavirus crisis. Like you, I believe this is another warning sign that the end is rapidly approaching. We must do all we can in the time we have left. Even though I have become housebound and lost contact with my church, I have a strong desire to spread the gospel, so I am enclosing a donation, and will do so as long as God in His mercy allows me to. I love your ministry. Because of you, I became a Seventh-day Adventist at the age of 65. I have lost and regained your signal several times, including last February. I love your ministry!"

Here's a letter from Paul in Rice Lake, Wisconsin. He says, "3ABN Radio helped me to become a Seventh-day Adventist back in 2010. Your programming refreshes me in God's Word daily. Thank you for the ministry work you are doing for all the world. Keep on preaching, teaching, singing, cooking, and laughing until Jesus comes!"

"Because of you, I became a Seventh-day Adventist..."

And finally, Camille, in Bakersfield, California, writes, "My husband and I found our church due to your programs. Our long search for a real Bible-based home church has culminated in the God-led discovery of a fellowship where we can be a part of a family united in Christ. Thank you!"

Praise God for all those who are watching and listening to 3ABN, learning new truths, and joining the family of God each day. Please pray for those who will be making their decisions to follow Jesus Christ today, and thank you for all you do for this ministry. ☺

Creamy CELERY SOUP

by Rendall & Melody Caviness

INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup vegetable broth
- 3 cups diced celery
- 1 cup onions, diced fine
- 2 cups water
- 2 ½ cups potatoes, peeled and steamed
- 1 Tbsp nutritional yeast flakes
- ½ tsp onion powder
- ½ tsp celery flakes
- 1 tsp salt, or to taste
- ½ cup raw almonds or almond flour

DIRECTIONS

1. Add diced celery, onion, and vegetable broth to a large sauce pan. Sauté them over medium heat until onions and celery are translucent.
2. Reduce heat and simmer on low.
3. In blender, add all remaining ingredients and one cup of water. Purée on high for about 3 minutes, adding water until mixture is creamy and smooth. (If using raw almonds, purée time will be longer).
4. Add mixture to onions and celery, and stir.
5. Cover and simmer on low for about 5 minutes. Soup is ready to serve!

Celery contains a plant compound called apigenin, which plays a role as an anti-inflammatory, antibacterial, antiviral, and antioxidant agent.
