PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Danny Shelton

Dear 3ABN Family,

It's hard to believe that in just a few months we will be looking at the year 2020, and the good news is that we'll be that much closer to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ! The signs are all around us. Prophecies are being fulfilled. However, the real question for us today is, Are we preparing to meet our Lord when He breaks the eastern skies at the sound of the last trumpet?

I was raised a Seventh-day Adventist, as were many of you. My mother became an Adventist the year I was born, in 1951. However, the devil has been making great inroads, chipping away at the pillars of our Bible faith. Only a few years ago, I would never have dreamed that many of our members, and even some pastors and church leaders, would accept and support same-sex marriage and abortion! The devil has tried for centuries to make the law of God void by substituting the fourth commandment with Sunday worship. We as Seventh-day Adventists have always been vocal about keeping all of God's Ten Commandments, but many are now silent when it comes to same sex marriage and abortion because it's politically incorrect to stand in support of these two commandments.

"The devil has been making great inroads, chipping away at the pillars of our Bible faith."

No one is perfect, and we all fall short of the glory of God. But when we do, we can confess our sins and Jesus is only too happy to forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. However, we cannot continually disobey God's Law and expect Him to forgive us of something we don't repent of. Continually rejecting God's Law is rebellion against the Creator, Himself!

Let's pray for the revival and reformation that will soon take place. Let's rededicate our lives to Jesus Christ and ask Him for the ability to discern truth from error. Once we submit our lives totally to Jesus, He will use us to do great and mighty things when we come in the name of the Lord. Jesus said, "Go ye into all the world..." and with your help, prayerfully and financially, 3ABN will continue to take the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 to a lost and dying world before probation closes. Won't you join us?

“Our [radio] listeners live in well over 100 countries around the world.”

3ABN Australia Thrives! by Rosemary Malkiewycz

In August of last year, 3ABN Australia celebrated 15 years as a registered organization, so we decided to celebrate this milestone with a 3ABN-style Homecoming event in Australia! We were blessed to have Greg and Jill Morikone, John and Angela Lomacang, Tim Parton, and Ryan Day join us for our first major event. Among others, our local speakers included Charissa Fong, Pastors Geoff Youlden and Danny Milenkov of Focus On God's Word, Pastor Gary Kent of The Incredible Journey, and Dr. Allan Lindsay from Keepers of the Flame.

3ABN Australia's Homecoming was held at the Avondale Seventh-day Adventist Memorial Church in Morisset, New South Wales, from October 11 through 14, with the theme, "Knowing God," based on John 17:3. In addition to the sermons, we had congregational singing with Tim Parton and two beautiful concerts, the first of which featured local musical artists. The second, titled, "From Calvary to Glory," included songs from various 3ABN music projects and told the Story of Redemption from Jesus on the Cross, to Heaven, at last. The concerts included four 3ABN music videos with live performances by Tim Parton, Ryan Day, John Lomacang, and Rosemary Malkiewycz.

People attended from all states of Australia, and some even came from overseas. One couple wrote, "Thank you for your contribution that gave us a spiritual feast during the 3ABN Homecoming Weekend," and another person said, "Praise God! Praise God! What an awesome and great Homecoming meeting."

The following weekend, we took the 3ABN group down to Launceston, Tasmania, for a 3ABN Rally and concert. We had a lovely time with our friends there and were all blessed.

Those who attended, enjoyed Homecoming Weekend so much that we decided to hold another one this year from October 11 through 13, at the Wahroonga Seventh-day Adventist Church in Sydney. Our theme will be, "Certainty Amid Uncertainty," and all our speakers and musicians will be local. Pastors Geoff Youlden and Danny Milenkov, and Doctors Allan Lindsay, John Ashton, and Ross Grant, among others, will be speaking; and we'll have another inspiring concert on Saturday night. If you are in our part of the world, make sure you attend, as you will be richly blessed.

Australian Programming

3ABN Australia Radio, which is available on 3ABN's free smartphone app, plays programs from 3ABN Radio Network in the United States and 3ABN Australia Radio. Currently, over 30 percent of our programming is recorded here at 3ABN Australia, including well over a dozen radio series, and the audio portion of some of our 3ABN Australia TV programs. At the moment, we have 107 radio station affiliates broadcasting our programming all across Australia and New Zealand.

We are amazed by the reach of 3ABN Australia Radio programs through "audio-on-demand," and we've found that interviews and children's programs are the most popular. Our listeners live in well over 100 countries around the world, and on every continent, except Antarctica. The top five countries are Australia, the United States, Brazil, Mexico, and the Netherlands, where they listen mainly through our website, Sound Cloud, and our 3ABN smartphone app.

Our television programs are sent to 3ABN's headquarters in the United States and then broadcast by 3ABN's International Network across Australia and New Zealand on the Optus D2 satellite, as well as the VAST direct-to-home satellite system here in Australia. 3ABN International can also be seen via the 3ABN.tv and 3ABNAustralia.org.au websites. Those who miss a program can still watch it for six weeks after it has aired by visiting the Catchup section of our 3ABN Australia website. Our most viewed programs are from our Sabbath School series, Let God Speak, along with, 3ABN Now, A Day With the King, and Healthy Living. The top ten countries accessing our programs this way are Australia, the United States, New Zealand, the Philippines, the United Kingdom, Canada, South Africa, Romania, Papua New Guinea, and Malaysia.

Since A Day With The King began airing on the 3ABN Kids Network last year, traffic on that program's website has increased tremendously. Visitors from the United States are up 207 percent, and surprisingly, viewers in France have soared 260 percent!

As we prepare for a two-day youth event and all the other new series being planned this year, we want to thank you for your financial support. You make it possible for us to continue preparing people of all ages for the soon coming of Jesus Christ! ☺

Positive Feedback

Viewer response has been wonderful. A Dare to Dream viewer in Kingston, Jamaica, writes, "I have been a viewer of 3ABN since December 25, 2001, when I came to believe in Jesus Christ. I want to say that I really appreciate and have been blessed by your series, Salvation in Symbols and Signs. Praise God for inspiring 3ABN Dare to Dream Network to do this Bible study on the book of Revelation! I have been watching the series on YouTube, which I find very convenient to watch on-demand on my computer or smartphone. May God continue to bless you and the panel of the series, as well as the Dare to Dream team."

Dolores writes, "I love to see the programs on Dare to Dream because they are very timeless and needed in our spiritual growth;" and Lolita says, "What an awesome network. I love Chew's Challenge, a program that teaches a plant-based diet using Pastor Chew's F.O.R.K. system. May the Lord continue to use your network to reach the world." Carol says, "I watched Dollars & Sen$e tonight and I am hooked! I never imagined my Bible could hold so much information about my finances! The show was amazing and I really hate to wait until next week to see it again. This is what more ministries should talk about in their sermons. I am so inspired to learn more!"

New Set, New Season
Coming Soon

I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. John 10:10

A TALE of TALENTS

by Bobby Davis

Michael Younkin grew up just outside of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, a city once known as the “Lumber Capital of the World,” and the birthplace of Little League Baseball. From an early age, he adored his father and followed him around, trying to do everything he did; and when he wasn’t with his dad, he was outdoors, exploring and riding his bike.

It’s interesting to note that the Lord gave him a talent and passion for audio at a young age. “When I was nine or ten, I’d sit in the back and run the tape recorder for Mr. Grove while my parents sang in choir practice,” he recalls. “Later, he let me run sound for our church, too. That’s not something every kid that age gets to do, and as I look back, it had a huge impact on my life.”

Michael majored in TV production at Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, Tennessee, where he became friends with Joel Baker and Ted Prouty, two men who began working for 3ABN right after graduation. Then, in 2004, 3ABN needed a “mic wrangler” for a live series with Doug Batchelor in Chattanooga, Tennessee, so Joel asked Michael if he’d be interested.

“Sure I was interested, and I had a blast as I got to know the crew,” he exclaims. “So as I finished school that year I applied for an internship and traveled with the 3ABN production truck crew that summer. Our first trip was to Chicago where Pastor Kenneth Cox was holding an evangelistic series. I was nervous, but as I pulled up, I saw Joel and two other guys throwing a football in the parking lot, which made me feel alright. Our travels took us back to 3ABN for Camp Meeting, then west to Sacramento and Las Vegas. We even traveled to Washington State to shoot the first season of the Grandma’s House series. I’d traveled a lot with my dad in his big rig when I was a kid, so I couldn’t help but catch ‘the bug’ that summer. I was doing the two things I really loved, TV production and traveling!”

After his college graduation, Michael had only one thing on his mind—to get a good-paying job and pay off his student loans. “I wanted to stay in the Chattanooga area,” he says, “but after every good job interview, something always came up and the job would fall through. Finally, I called 3ABN and agreed to work there, but only on a temporary basis!” Michael laughs. “As I look back over the past 13 years, I realize God closed the doors on what I wanted to do because He wanted me here. And when I stopped fighting and worrying about it, I discovered I could pay off my loans and live just fine.

“Then, in 2010, we went to Georgia for an event and I met a young lady named Rachael who had given a report of a mission trip. We stayed in touch and dated for about a year-and-a-half, and then we were married. That was an unexpected benefit of being on the road.”

Using His Talents

Michael’s first job was running a camera, but he jumped at the chance to help everyone else. “My niche seemed to be audio; but because I had the right license, they asked me to drive our box truck. While mic wrangling backstage, I learned stage management and tried to be helpful to the producers and directors. Later, I was put in charge of hooking up the trucks for audio and video, and it seemed like the more things I did, the more I loved it.”

Next, Michael began traveling with 3ABN Latino to events across the United States and overseas. During a trip to Colombia, a locally hired director wasn’t working out, so they asked Michael to step in. “I’d never directed a live program, didn’t speak Spanish, and all the camera operators didn’t speak English!” he says with a laugh. “But God worked everything out and we got through it.” He went on to direct hundreds of Spanish programs for the next few years, adding editing and post-production to his skills.

Two years ago, after discovering that Michael knew how to use ProTools software, E.T. Everett, 3ABN’s Sound Center manager, gave him a recording to work on, “and I’ve been remixing audio ever since,” he says.

“This year I was given the chance to work on the stage design for our Spring Camp Meeting, and I enjoyed diving into the Bible and everything I could read on the Ten Commandments for background.

“I’ve learned so much through the years, and I’ve especially learned to trust God. He takes care of us and provides for our needs; and at the end of the day, my relationship with Him is still growing as He gives me new opportunities to serve Him and this ministry.”

Indeed, God gives each of us talents—then gives us more if we faithfully use them for Him. When it comes to talents, we work on the plan of addition, while God works on the plan of multiplication! ☺

SATELLITES BRING GOOD NEWS

to Russia

For many years, our 3ABN Russia production center longed for a satellite channel by which they could broadcast the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 in the Russian language to over 144 million people in the former Soviet Union. "We could hardly allow ourselves to dream in our prayers that someday 3ABN Russia would get its own satellite broadcasting," says Julia Outkina, our 3ABN Russia executive director, "but there is nothing impossible for our Lord, and in November 2013, we began broadcasting on satellite. God continues to bless and today we're on two satellites—Express AT-1 and Express AT-2— at almost half our original cost!

"Our signal is now rebroadcast by 171 cable operators covering 527 cities and towns. We're also seen on seven IPTV (Internet-based "on-demand") platforms and eight foreign partners, twenty-four hours a day," Julia continues. "In addition, our partnering satellite channels broadcast our programs up to several hours a week, including TBN in Russia; CNL in Russia and Kazakhstan; TBN Baltiya in the Baltic States; TB7 'Heaven' in Finland, Ukraine, Sweden, Estonia, Russia, Poland, Israel, and Germany; and Hope Channel Russia, where 80 percent of their programs are produced by 3ABN Russia. To date, we also have contracts with 45 regional TV channels that broadcast our individual programs from five minutes to an hour each week, and we stream our programming on multiple websites and mobile apps. Under the Lord's blessing, our 36 full and part-time workers have been able to produce 282 programs in just the past six months!"

For only $2,077 a week, 3ABN Russia reaches millions of viewers! Thank you for your faithful prayers and financial support that bring the gospel to this vast area of the world!
