PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

I believe in the Bible—it is the Word of God. Amazingly, our lives can be changed for eternity if we will allow Scripture to do its work. Hebrews 4:12 says, “For the Word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.”

A couple of months ago, I was on a trip, and as I took my exit off the highway I noticed the hotel where I'd be staying that night. I continued on for several miles to my destination, and after my appointment, I headed back, looking forward to a good night's rest. It had been a long day.

Parking the car, I gathered my luggage and walked into the hotel lobby. The clerk behind the counter greeted me and asked for my name to look up the reservation. Then, she looked at me, puzzled, and said, “Sir, I don't see your name here.” I showed her my driver's license, but she politely informed me, “I'm sorry, sir, but your ID will not help you. You do not have a room here,” then quickly added, “Is it possible that you may have come to the wrong hotel?”

Scrolling through my emails, I finally found my hotel confirmation, and to my embarrassment, realized that I was at the wrong hotel! I thought I knew where I was going, I assumed I had the correct information, but I'd never carefully read my confirmation.

Have we spent the time to really read our “email” from God? Glancing at it once a week does not mean much; we must read it to understand all that it says. But if we open its pages, read it, and apply it, we will “Taste and see that the Lord is good.” Psalm 34:8.

This is where 3ABN comes in! Many people don't have a roadmap, and many others are heading to the wrong “hotel” because they've never read the directions. Won't you join hands with 3ABN as we help them find their way? We don't want them to miss out on the room Jesus has prepared for them in Heaven!

The Territory OF GOD'S REALITY

by Julia Outkina

This year has been very fruitful for the 3ABN Russia television network. The Lord blesses abundantly, as if saying, “I’m the One who brings salvation to those who are dying in sin on this planet; and I choose to do it through your willing, dedicated, and humble hearts.” We can only praise Him for this honor!

In January, we participated for the fifth time in the annual CSTB Telecom & Media Forum and Convention in Moscow. We were blessed to let cable companies, cable associations, IPVT (Internet-based) platforms, and other entities know that our diverse programming for the betterment of the Russian people is available through satellites and other outlets. Each year, the CSTB Convention diminishes in size because many of the organizations close down, and many smaller cable operators are swallowed up by larger ones. But this actually works out well, since more of those cable companies are finding our content to be good, and are increasingly willing to partner with us. This year, we established 60 new contacts—more than any previous CSTB convention—and three of these are large and well-known cable companies!

IPTV platforms have become an increasingly advanced method of television content aggregation and distribution. The Smotryoshka package, for example, accepted us into their lineup last year; but this time, we got seven new contacts! Please pray that the Lord will impress them that they need our programming.

Julia Outkina, Executive Director of 3ABN Russia, with Ruslan Larin, guest of The Territory of God's Reality event.

The Territory of Reality

Another highlight this year has been a marathon project we taped live in our large sanctuary. Our video director, Daniil Patsukevich, came up with the idea of inviting renowned Adventist youth speakers to share with a youthful audience, broadcasting the evening meetings live on YouTube, and recording other programs during the day for later playback. We’ve worked with many of these presenters before, but never thought of doing live youth programs with them.

The Lord has showed us that there’s still much more talent in us that He wants to reveal for His honor!

This marathon only became reality due to the teamwork of our dedicated staff. Irena Nikulina, our sound engineer and director of social media marketing, became a very good producer. Our new ladies, Vika Bulatova and Lena Soldatova, managed to gather our Nizhny Novgorod youth for 29 nights; and Anna Gladkaya did a fine job of presenting questions that are of concern to our youth, both in and outside of our church. Vadim Trusyyuk, our production coordinator, hosted the live programs, as well as the question and answer sessions that followed. The Lord showed us that there’s still much more talent in us that He wants to reveal for His honor! He also showed us that, as His team and His body, we can accomplish a lot in producing wonderful programs to glorify His name, while growing in our personal spiritual journeys.

We named this project, “The Territory of Reality,” since we wanted to tell young people that the territory of this world’s reality—filled with disappointment, pain, and self-destruction—is not the one God wants us to live in. Instead, they were invited to make a decision to enter the territory of God’s reality; and that we can be filled with happiness, true love, and fulfillment—even on this planet! Best of all, we can allow Him to lead us to a happy eternity with our Heavenly Father and Savior!

During those 29 days, we recorded 30 one-hour programs in our sanctuary, and 107 episodes of eight other series (about 40 more hours) in our studios! To make this possible, each day we had to carry some of our equipment between several locations; but good organization, and the enthusiasm for God’s cause, made it all fulfilling and highly meaningful.

Continuing the Outreach

To follow up, we’ve been ignited by the 3ABN Spark project, and are now thinking about starting a Territory of Reality youth channel inside the 3ABN Russia network. It would consist of all our youth programs, and probably be hosted by our talented young people whom the Lord has recently brought to work and volunteer at 3ABN Russia.

We praise God for the broad horizons He’s opening up to us! We’re inspired by this new project, as well as the developments that unfold at 3ABN worldwide. We want to tell you, dear readers, that due to 3ABN’s vision, and due to your prayers and support, 3ABN is truly a territory of God’s reality in this sinful world! ☺ a Christian singles website. Deciding not to post a picture, he just stated that he was a vegetarian and a Seventh-day Adventist, and then he waited.

Answering GOD'S CALL

To his surprise, he received a “smiley face” from someone in the Philippines. “It was Addie, and I was skeptical at first,” he says. “But then I found out she was an Adventist, too, and when we first spoke, her English was so beautiful that my heart melted.”

Addie was born in Baler, Aurora, but grew up in Quezon City. Her parents were Catholics, but her mother had converted to Seventh-day Adventism. “Being surrounded with missionaries, I had a desire to be one, too,” Addie says, “but my parents wanted me to finish college.

“At that time, I took the Master Guide youth ministry course, which required me to preach a sermon. Taking a bus ride on my way to church, I felt something was missing in my sermon about finding one’s purpose. I didn’t know what my own purpose was, so I asked God for a sign.”

As she looked for a motorized tricycle to take her the rest of the way, she noticed a driver trying to get her attention.

“I know exactly where you’re going,” he cried out. “I know where you’re going and I’ll take you there!” he said, and sure enough, he drove her right to the church—and then went in with her!

“Apparently, he was a former Adventist,” Addie says, “and that’s why he recognized me as an Adventist! So I thanked God for allowing me to be a witness through my deportment and countenance!”

We love to hear how God brings our new 3ABN family members to work in this ministry, and Eric and Addie Weesner are certainly a gift!

Born in Portland, Indiana, Eric was raised in a conservative Seventh-day Adventist family that had 3ABN in their home. Although he didn’t rebel against religion, he says that public school wasn’t the best for him. “Somehow, I managed to hold onto my Christian values,” he says, “but I can’t really say I was growing spiritually. Then, one day, I decided to take a Discover Bible Course from It Is Written, and that changed my life!” he says. “It brought me back to church, where I was baptized and became very involved.”

Finding Someone Special

At that point, Eric also began thinking about finding someone special. If you think it’s time for me to have a wife, Lord, then You work it out, he prayed, posting a profile on

For several years after college, Addie cared for her sick sister’s child, and then for her father, who returned from his work in Saudi Arabia with stage IV lung cancer. And that’s when she met Eric.

God’s Unexpected Call

As a young man, Eric had been working in a paint factory as the lab manager, and later on, as a robot technician. Now, newly married, and new to the United States, Addie worked in a day care center, and later, as an administrative assistant for an emergency management agency.

“But we wanted to start a family,” Eric says, “so we began praying for a child. When Angel was born, she brought so much joy to our lives, but a few years later, we started thinking about her schooling. There were no Adventist schools around us, so Addie decided to quit her job and teach our daughter at home for a year.

“Then, one day, she said, ‘Why don’t we step out in faith like Abraham and Sarah did, and see where the Lord leads?’ That was a big leap of faith for me, because I’m a planner; but we agreed to consider it. Little did we realize that was God’s call.”

As he mulled over his daughter’s education, Eric suddenly remembered hearing about 3ABN’s Christian school, and after he and Addie talked to the teacher, they decided to come visit the following Friday. They prayed for God’s guidance and a clear indication of His will—and they didn’t have to wait long.

“Our first surprise was when the teacher told us that tuition was free for the children of 3ABN’s employees and local church members. This was a clear sign to us!” Eric continues, “but it got even better when Rachael Younkin, a 3ABN employee, asked me, ‘Have you ever thought of working for 3ABN?’

“I really hadn’t, because we are here to look for a school; but Rachael called 3ABN vice president and COO, Jill Morikone, and she wanted to meet us on Monday!”

After interviews and much prayer, Addie, and later, Eric, both came to 3ABN. While Addie settled into her new Programming Department position, Eric quit his job, and got the house ready for sale.

They found a home near 3ABN and made an offer, and it was accepted! “From the world’s perspective, it made no sense to quit my job and then buy a house,” Eric admits, “but God is faithful, and the old house sold for 60 percent more than the highest price we thought we could get!

Although their salaries aren’t nearly what they could make in secular work, they both feel God has more than proven He can provide for their needs. “It’s not about money!” Addie says. “It’s really about working for the Lord. And, most importantly, my desire to be a missionary has now come true!”

Eric agrees. “I love working in television production because it’s the most fulfilling work I’ve ever done.”

Truly, God is faithful to those who answer His call. ☺

When Eric heard Addie’s voice, his heart melted, and soon he met her entire family in the Philippines.

Comforting Words

Only God has the power to bring reassurance and comfort to us when we are feeling alone, afraid, or abandoned, and what a privilege it is to be able to bring His words to those who watch and listen to 3ABN.

We are so grateful to receive letters, emails and phone calls from those who have been blessed by 3ABN's ministry. Take a look at what they have to say:

Help with Grief

"I call you my family because you are special to me," says Barbara. "I lost my husband six years ago, and it was terrible. But the first thing I saw on TV that day was 3ABN. I didn't even know you existed! I was so impressed. You truly blessed me that day when I was so upset and didn't know what to do. I was lost, and you helped me so much. 3ABN got me through the tough times. It's still hard without my husband, but when I feel anxious, worried, or scared, I always feel better after watching your programs. Thank you for giving me hope in our Lord."

Help With Loneliness

Sylvia writes, "Dear 3ABN family, my eyes and hearing are fragile now, but I'm so blessed. Even though I don't get to my church often anymore, 3ABN supplies what I need. I'm 81 years old, and on a limited income, but your many ministries inspire me so much. Your outreach is so wonderful. I'll dig deep, and when I can, I'll ask God to give me more to share. You bless me so much, and bring me much joy!"

Blessed by Radio

We're grateful for the airwaves that allow us to reach into prisons, too. Casey writes, "I'd like to say thank you to God for your ministry. Not only has the broadcast of your radio station helped me to find Christ again, but I've also seen a difference in the people around me whom I have encouraged to listen. 3ABN has softened many hardened hearts with truth, love, and compassion. Your network has given me a reason to become a better person, to want to show others a Christ-like love.... You are a light in this dark world, and I pray daily for you."

Nancy listens to the 3ABN Radio Music Channel, and writes, "I love all your radio programs throughout the day... and please continue to play your music, as it heals this widow's heart. It soothes my soul, relaxes me, and through God's Word expressed through music, comforts me to sleep. I feel like my Heavenly Father is with me."

Finding Truth

Willis writes how a 3ABN book, Ten Commandments Twice Removed, has opened his eyes. "I had done wrong all my life," he writes. "I'd lost my family and loved ones, but God spared me. The Holy Spirit protected me, fed me, and guided my footsteps. I would like to profoundly thank you for helping to save my life. I had no plan on how I was going to serve God until I read your book. I had been worshiping God on Sundays, but I've been reading and studying that book and now I know the true day. Since starting on this journey, I've lost my wife to cancer, and my son was killed three weeks ago. Though my heart aches every day, and sometimes I feel like I'm losing my spark, I know I'm filled with God's Holy Spirit. I'm filled with the joy and knowledge of the good news of Jesus Christ. God willing, when I am released, I will step out in faith and serve Him."

In Health Challenges

Many of our viewers and listeners say that 3ABN helps them through their health challenges. Steve writes, "I want to let you know how much I'm blessed by 3ABN. I'm praying that God will continue to bless you with His love and wisdom. Your programs help me at any time of the day and night, especially when my health presents challenges. I love every one of you. Please continue to bless your viewers with your counsel and prayer, as you have blessed me."

"3ABN got me through the tough times."

A letter from Ed highlights our important ministry to the deaf. "I've received such a blessing from your ministry. I'm 78 years old and deaf, so I depend on your closed-captioned programs. Your camp meeting messages were such a blessing to me. May God continue your wonderful ministry. You are always in my prayers."

Donna wrote, saying, "I am sending you a donation on behalf of my 97-year-old mother, Paloma. She faithfully watches 3ABN daily, following along with the closed-captioning you provide. We especially enjoy singing along with Tim Parton on Your Favorites By Request."

Through Music

Speaking of Tim, we receive many letters from viewers and listeners who tell us how much his music blesses their soul. Charleen says, "When Tim Parton reads the Bible while softly playing the piano, it makes the verses come alive. And when he lifts up prayer requests while playing, I pray along with him. This is powerful!"

Debra writes, "Several years ago I struggled with extreme anxiety, which greatly interfered with my life and kept me awake at night. I listened to a Christian radio station for the hymns and classical music they played, but I longed to hear a station that supported my beliefs. The music you play is an answer to years of prayer! Thank you so much for the soft, calming music you play throughout the day, and especially at night. It's so inspirational and uplifts me in times of trial. It calms me if I am anxious about anything. Through your ministry, God has carried and comforted me. Thank you for your selfless service."

What a blessing you are to all of us. We love to hear how the Lord has blessed you through this ministry, and we're so grateful for your help in proclaiming freedom to the captive, bringing comfort for the hurting, and hope to the hopeless! ☺

SUPPORTING CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

3ABN believes in Christian education, and that is why we've initiated the "Triple Your Donation Value" Adventist Education project. Students everywhere have raised thousands of dollars for Christian education, and now you can help, too!

The program includes four popular CDs or DVDs—Give Him Glory, Love Rules,

It's a Beautiful World, and the It Was Love CD. When you donate to this program, 3ABN donates double the value in fundraising items to the schools, and they keep 100 percent of their sales!

For example, your $150 donation benefits 3ABN, and we donate $300 worth of products for the schools' benefit. Added together, the $450 benefit has tripled your original donation value!

"What an incredible opportunity we have of helping young people through Seventh-day Adventist Education," says 3ABN president, Greg Morikone. "And, at the same time, we are sharing evangelistic tools with our communities."

Thank you for all you do in support of Christian education.

3ABN RECIPES

Vietnamese Rolls with PEANUT BUTTER SAUCE by Stephanie Salazar

INGREDIENTS*

ROLLS

- rice paper
- red cabbage strips
- lettuce leaves, washed
- carrot strips
- red bell pepper strips
- cilantro
- cucumber strips

PEANUT SAUCE

- ½ cup peanut butter
- 1 cup water
- 1–2 Tbsp soy sauce (or liquid aminos)
- 1–2 cloves of garlic
- 1–2 tsp fresh, grated ginger
- 1–2 tsp sesame oil
- 1–2 Tbsp cane sugar
- 1–2 Tbsp lemon juice

"Making these is a fun way to get kids involved and enthusiastic about eating vegetables."

Stephanie Salazar

DIRECTIONS

1. Cut all vegetables and set aside.
2. Fill large, wide, deep dish with water. Dip each rice paper sheet in water until flexible. Place on cutting board.
3. Add one leaf of lettuce in the middle, then add other vegetables.
4. Bring sides of rice paper in so they touch and stick together, then roll up.

*Use your own preference on amounts of vegetables.

1. Whisk peanut butter and water together in a medium saucepan on medium heat until smooth.
2. Add soy sauce, garlic, ginger, sesame oil, sugar, and lemon juice. Continue whisking until well combined.
3. Cool slightly, then serve with rolls.
