PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

I love the early morning hours. It's so peaceful to see the day wake up. Jill and I have a large sliding glass door that faces east, and it gives us a beautiful view of the sky each morning as it brightens above the open field, with the tree line in the distance. Some mornings, the sky is ablaze with deep purple and yellow, and on others it's lit up with red and orange. Some days dawn with gray clouds and rain, and at other times, the sky is absolutely clear.

On a recent early Sabbath morning, I pulled back the curtains and looked out on a crisp fall dawn. The cloudless eastern sky had a blush of pink in it, and the stars were fading away as the sunrise put them to bed. Looking up at the morning sky, a chill of excitement ran through me as Matthew 24:27 came to mind: "For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Very soon, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Redeemer, will return to this earth from the East on a cloud surrounded by "ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands" of angels (Revelation 5:11). God's people will be rescued from this earth, and there will be no more tears, no more death, no more sorrow, no more crying, and no more pain (Revelation 21:4). Praise the Lord!

I want to encourage you today by telling you that Jesus' Second Coming is very near. We don't know the day or the hour, but He will come and take us home to Heaven—and we must be ready. In addition, we must tell others that Jesus loves them, and that there is truly an escape from this old world with all of its heartache, turmoil, sickness, and death. What a message!

Thank you for helping 3ABN proclaim this good news to our hurting world, and the next time you see a sunrise, remember that Jesus is coming very soon!

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

by Bobby Davis

The past 36 years of ministry are an amazing record of how God not only brought Three Angels Broadcasting Network into existence, but has also grown it into a worldwide ministry.

“As I look back, I know without a doubt that 3ABN is here for such a time as this!” says 3ABN President Greg Morikone. “We are so grateful that 36 years ago, Danny Shelton said yes to the call of God on his life, and started Three Angels Broadcasting Network by faith—even though he had no television broadcast experience.”

Jill Morikone, 3ABN’s Vice President and COO, agrees. “There is no doubt that this ministry is God-ordained,” she says. “God called Danny to raise up a ministry that would proclaim the three angels’ messages of Revelation 14 to the world, and 3ABN has been faithful to that vision. What a gift to be able to watch Danny in action. What a privilege to be mentored by him.

His heart for this ministry inspires me, his faith humbles me, and his wisdom provides both of us with invaluable guidance.”

AN UNWAVERING MESSAGE

As we prepared to celebrate our anniversary, we spoke with 3ABN Founder and Corporate Consultant, Danny Shelton, to ask him how he sees the ministry today. “I’m thankful that God has blessed 3ABN for all these years with solid growth, transforming it into a worldwide ministry that reaches every corner of the world,” he begins. “I believe the reason is that 3ABN and its board have stayed true to our mission of proclaiming the undiluted three angels’ messages to the world. We’ve refused to swing to the right or the left, religiously speaking, and along the way we found that it’s the message, and not the messenger, that’s important!”

“I think 3ABN is more necessary than ever because as I look at our world, there are a lot of crazy things happening. We see things going on we never thought we would—crime, burning cities, and hatred like never before. But we’ve been called to proclaim good news to a lost and dying world.

“I’m grateful for the technology God has given us to take the gospel to the world with greater speed and effectiveness. When we started, the Internet didn’t exist. There was no such thing as social media or smartphones—and we were the only Seventh-day Adventist television network on the planet. But, by God’s grace, we were able to first go to satellites covering North America, then Europe, and finally, the whole world! Today, we can broadcast television and radio signals to smartphones, tablets, computers, set-top boxes, and smart TVs. And just this week, we even began using texting to send in messages on our live program!”

JESUS IS COMING SOON!

“I believe our world’s future is very short,” Danny continues. “I believe that what the devil is doing with the COVID-19 pandemic is only the beginning of the destruction that’s headed our way. But I take comfort in 1 John 4:4 that says, ‘He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.’ I believe Jesus is coming very soon; and now, more than ever, we must be a beacon of truth proclaiming the undiluted three angels’ messages. As Isaiah 60:1 says, ‘Arise, shine; for your light has come!’ We must proclaim the saving power of Jesus Christ to the world.

“So I’m praying for revival and reformation in the Adventist Church. I believe in all our doctrines, and that it has all the identifying marks of God’s Remnant Church. Still, we have a long way to go to join together and become one in faith, hope, and love as a people. But God is faithful, and He will bring about that unity when we fully submit and commit our lives to Him.”

WE ALL HAVE A PART

Danny notes that many have come and gone through the years, but Greg and Jill Morikone have been with 3ABN for a long time. “For the past year, they’ve led 3ABN’s ministry,” he says, “and I’m so thankful for their leadership. Their love for the messages we hold dear is solid, and I believe God called them just as surely as any of the rest of us. They have young minds that understand and embrace new technology, and I praise God for their dedication and integrity. I also thank Him for allowing me to work with them daily. It is a real privilege.

“We covet your prayers more than ever,” he concludes, “and we thank you for your faithful financial support of this ministry. Our expenses are tremendous, and we depend on our viewers and supporters to keep us on the air, adding souls to God’s Kingdom every day.”

Greg agrees wholeheartedly, and adds, “Every day I see God’s hand at work through you, our faithful viewers and supporters, as the funds come in just in time to help us spread the truths found in the Bible to the world. Thank you for all you do for this ministry, and we look forward to what God has in store!” ☺

God Opens a Door in Cuba!

THE NEWS IS FANTASTIC. GOD HAS JUST OPENED A DOOR FOR 3ABN PROGRAMMING TO BE DISTRIBUTED IN CUBA!

We sat down with 3ABN Latino Network General Manager, John Dinzey, to get the details; and it's fair to say that he's very excited!

A Challenge

"When you look at 3ABN Latino's coverage map, one of the obvious places we haven't reached is Cuba," John begins. "For many years, we wondered, 'How will we get in there? How will the Lord make a way?'"

"Of course, there are limitations for broadcasting in that country, since all the television stations are run by the state. But I remember back in 2001 when we were invited to come to Cuba to cover the very first evangelistic series held outside of a church since the 1970s. It was held by La Voz de La Esperanza (The Voice of Hope) with international evangelist, Pastor Alejandro Bullón. What an amazing thing it was to be the first foreign television network to be allowed into the country to record that historic event! Although requests have been made many times over the years, the government has not allowed any new churches to be built. But finally, it began allowing people to gather in their homes for Sabbath worship."

John says that sometime around 2015, he heard from a Cuban citizen who wrote to him how inspired he was by our programming. "That man's letter stayed on my mind," John says, "and a few weeks later, I met someone from ASI Europe who told me they'd recently sent donations to Cuba so every church could have a DVD player. We looked into bringing them programs and having them make DVD copies there, but after setting things up, for some reason, things didn't work out. Perhaps it wasn't God's time, yet."

Since 3ABN Latino was allowed to record in Cuba in 2001, we've dreamed of bringing them programming!

A Connection

Then, two years ago, 3ABN Latino invited Hernell Hernandez, a Cuban-born pastor living in Tennessee, to record some programs. As they talked, John told him about his hopes of bringing programming to Cuba and discovered that Pastor Hernandez had many connections, including some who could appeal to the government's highest levels. He also was well known and respected by the Cuban Council of Churches.

"With his help, I traveled to Cuba again and spoke with the Seventh-day Adventist Church's leadership. We also made some contact with key representatives from the government's Education and Communication departments that could help us with the next step. We left our programming with them and kept praying earnestly that the Lord would open a way."

A New Opportunity

John pauses and smiles. Then he says, "What we saw next was the Lord working behind the scenes because Pastor Hernandez soon began talking about 'The Package' that is available in every city across the country. 'Would you be interested?' he asked.

"'The Package' is a list of international downloadable television programs available every week, featuring several episodes of everything from soap operas to sports, and all sorts of other programs. Since satellite and Internet programs are not available, this is the only way to bring international programs to every city throughout the country for a very low cost.

"Because of Pastor Hernandez's contacts, he eventually spoke with members of the influential Council of Churches and shared a sample of 3ABN Latino programming with them. They were very happy to see that we promote solid biblical moral standards, and with their help, he was able to make contact with those who run 'The Package.' Then, with the Council's blessing, they eventually offered us a chance to get 3ABN Latino programming to the Cuban people every week!

"We are so excited about this opportunity. People arrive at the locations with their USB thumb drives and hard drives and can literally get anywhere from 16GB to 1TB of files a week to play on their TVs or computers—for less than a dollar!"

"3ABN Latino is the very first Christian TV channel to be allowed on 'The Package.' The time is perfect for sharing the love of Jesus with a nation that is spiritually hungry for the gospel. It will cost 3ABN approximately $3,000 a month to provide these programs, but I am sure that you will agree that this is a bargain!

"Please pray for this project and for those on the Council of Churches who will be closely watching our programs for the next two years. The Lord has opened this marvelous door of opportunity, and we are walking through it bringing hope and salvation to millions of viewers we've never been able to reach before. Praise the Lord!" ☺

"3ABN Latino is the very first Christian TV channel to be allowed on 'The Package'.... Please pray for this project."

May I Pray With You?

by Bobby Davis

We have been blessed for many years by the wonderful volunteers who answer and pray with the 3ABN viewers and listeners who call our Pastoral Department's Prayer Line. Indeed, there can be no higher calling than to join and even intercede in prayer for our brothers and sisters.

Since most of our volunteers are retired, we have guarded their safety during this pandemic by arranging for them to receive transferred calls at home, as is the case with retired pastor, Claude Turner, who still answers phones at age 100!

Pastor Turner's hearing is assisted by the use of a captioned telephone, which allows him to see a text of what is being said.

An Unusual Call

Recently, his caregiver, Ann Daluz, told us that he received a very unusual call. When his phone rang, a man's voice on the other end stated that he wanted to speak with a pastor.

"My name is Tom," he said, "and my wife's name is Patsy, and she is passing away right now. Would you pray for her and give her some comfort? She won't be able to talk or nothin' like that."

After a few words of comfort to Tom, Pastor Turner began a conversation with Tom's wife.

"Patsy? My name is Pastor Turner, and I am a retired minister here at 3ABN. Tom tells me that you are passing and requests that I pray with you at this time, and I am more than willing to do so.

"I am 100 years old and will probably be leaving this old world myself before long, but I would like to repeat some promises Jesus left us for a time like this."

Then, he proceeded to repeat the familiar words of Jesus found in John 14:1-3. "Patsy, our Lord Jesus said, 'Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself;

In memory of Patsy

that where I am, there you may be also.'"

A moment later, Pastor Turner said, "Tom and I, and your other loved ones, will miss you after you are gone. But we, too, are looking forward to that great reunion when Jesus calls us from the dusty ground and welcomes us into those mansions that He's preparing for us. What a blessed reunion!"

At that moment, Pastor Turner heard a monotone sound that clearly sounded female in the background. "I believe she was attempting to respond," Ann says, "and then Pastor Turner continued: 'We will not be telling you goodbye, Patsy; but instead, we will say so long for now until we meet again in that great reunion that we hope will soon come.'"

Once again, the monotone sound from a female voice—and then silence.

Tom took the phone and thanked 3ABN and Pastor Turner. And then he was gone.

"I am sure the impact of that request for prayer will be long remembered," Ann says. "Family, friends, and others will hear the last request from a loving husband for his beloved wife offered through the 3ABN prayer line. Truly each one of us here is chosen to be in His service."

Mending Broken People

Each day, our Pastoral Department seeks to share God's love and grace with callers who are desperately seeking someone to talk to. From suicide calls to shattering domestic problems, from perplexing biblical questions to asking what they must do to be saved, the phone calls never cease. With grace, love, and compassion, our team offers them hope, assuring them that God is a loving Father who forgives and empowers us to live a new life in Jesus Christ.

Our pastoral team includes those who work with thousands of Prayer Warriors—men and women who have agreed to lift up the hundreds of prayer requests we receive. There is power in intercessory prayer!

And then there are those who work with our prison ministry outreach, answering inmate correspondence, and sending out Study Bibles and large quantities of Christian literature to a segment of the population the world would rather forget.

Truly, they are joining forces each day with the angels, touching hearts, opening minds, and encouraging those who are struggling. And all of their efforts are bathed in prayer.

Thank you for joining us as we seek to "mend broken people." God is blessing our actions, and with your help, we can reach an ever-increasing number of desperate souls who are longing to find peace for their hearts. ☺

Sweet Potato Waffles

by The Holmes Sisters

WITH MAPLE CRANBERRY TOPPING

INGREDIENTS

Waffles

- 15 oz. cooked, pureed sweet potatoes
- ½ tsp sea salt
- 1 tsp ground ginger
- ½ tsp ground coriander
- ½ tsp ground cardamom
- ¼ tsp ground cloves
- ¼ cup coconut oil
- ¼ cup cane sugar
- 2 tsp vanilla extract
- 2½ tsp baking powder
- 1½ cups whole wheat pastry flour
- 1 cup spelt flour*
- 2¼ - 2 ½ cups almond milk
- ½ cup pecan halves, toasted

Topping

- 1 cup dried cranberries
- 2 cups pure maple syrup

DIRECTIONS

1. In a medium mixing bowl, combine sweet potatoes, salt, ginger, coriander, cardamom, cloves, coconut oil, cane sugar, vanilla, and baking powder. Mix or blend well.
2. Mix in flour and enough almond milk to make a thick batter. Add toasted pecans.
3. Fill hot waffle iron with batter and cook for about 10 minutes.
4. Heat dried cranberries and maple syrup over low heat until flavors combine. Serve over waffles. Add a little non-dairy whipped topping if you like.

*You can substitute spelt flour with other types of whole grain or gluten-free flour, or try combining oat and coconut flour.
