Dear 3ABN Family,

I remember the day very well. I was a young teenager and I was weeding the family garden. The weeds pulled easily in the soft brown soil, and suddenly I noticed a small, dirt-covered flat disc about the size of a coat button. Thinking it was probably an old rusty metal washer, I scraped away the clay.

My curiosity grew as I rubbed my thumb over it and the item came into full view. It was a penny. Oh, nothing special, just a little coin worth one cent. But when I took a closer look, I thought, Wait a minute, this is an old penny! Hmm.

Very carefully, I kept cleaning it and suddenly my eyes widened. There, stamped on that penny, was the year 1863. I felt like I'd found treasure!

More exciting than finding an old penny in the dirt are the stories we hear from viewers and listeners whose lives have been changed by this ministry. They wander around in the dirt of life trying to find direction, and when they discover 3ABN they exclaim, "Here's what I've been searching for all my life—Bible truth! What a treasure!"

I talked to a lady today who had a subscription to DISH Network for years but had never seen 3ABN. Then, at an incredibly devastating time in her life, she suddenly found 3ABN on her channel lineup and the Bible came alive and made sense to her. There is no doubt in my mind that God led her to find 3ABN, and several years later she was baptized. Praise the Lord!

What a privilege we each have of helping others find the treasure of God's Word—and the truths found in it. Thank you for your faithful prayers and financial support of 3ABN.

Our Savior was like a magnet, drawing both little children and adults who longed for His truth, love, and light. You can share His love and light by reaching out to a single mom in your community. You can reach out to help children, joining with the many schools and churches that have found their jobs increasingly difficult since the pandemic. How are you willing to be a blessing?

Children write us about how our programs help them make good choices. Others send their birthday or hard-earned money so more children can hear about the love of Jesus. Programs like Tiny Tots Worship, Bible Buzz, and our recent Creation Is! Science are all having an impact on many children—and even some adults.

Upcoming programs like Jesus, My Light will inspire kids to shine for Jesus, while Kids X-press features children on the set and via Skype sharing how they serve Christ and deal with life's tough situations.

And this is where you can help! Is there something the kids in your local school or church are doing to reach your community? We'd love to hear about it. Just email your story and a photo, if possible, to kids@3abn.org so more children around the world can be inspired. Your help in recognizing their efforts will reinforce how Jesus is the Light of the World.

Getting Involved

As we continue to produce more Christ-centered programming, we look for partners who are willing to invest in our most valuable possession—our children. Would you prayerfully consider how you can help our kids to get involved in outreach?

Let the children in your community know about our programs and resources that can be found on 3ABNKids.tv. Don't forget to download the 3ABN App on your smart phone and tablet, or look for the 3ABN app on Roku, Apple TV, and Amazon Fire TV devices.

Your financial support is essential, since there are many more children who long for peace in their homes and hearts. Thank you for what you do to help God's children fuel their flourishing lights! ☺

Little LIGHTS by Aunt Francine

Jesus was, is, and will always be the Light of the World, and so many kids (and adults) are drawn to His Light!

Recently, we recorded a new series called Jesus, My Light with kids from all over the country, and as we were recording, one of them began sensing the love of Jesus and was deeply moved.

Levi started crying while we practiced the song, “I Have Decided to Follow Jesus,” and, of course, we quickly surrounded him with love. Then we discovered that his tears were out of concern for his father, whom Levi feared might not be saved, since his father showed signs of a life apart from God.

Imagine how much more Jesus longed for His children to turn to Him as He wept over Jerusalem in Luke 19:41–42. His love is even deeper than the love of a parent or grandparent who wants to spare their children from grief and pain.

Levi and his mother want to share his testimony to encourage others.

Witnesses for Jesus

Jesus desires each of us to lead others to trust Him by demonstrating our own trust in His love. He inspired Moses to write, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.” Deuteronomy 6:5–7.

Whether or not we are parents, God commissions us all to be missionaries to every child of His we come in contact with. Are we investing time in our children? Do we use every opportunity to reflect Jesus? Do we love Him with all our heart?

Each 3ABN worker has a story—and when I first met Brian, I was eager to hear how the Lord had brought him here to work for Him. I was inspired by his story, and I believe you will be, too.

“I grew up in southern Indiana and attended several churches in town as a boy. I had a love for God and would bow my head during prayers. But sometimes, I’d look up at the rafters to see if I could get a peek at Jesus. Of course, all I had to do was open the Bible to see Him, but I didn’t know that back then.

“In my early teens, I was confirmed and baptized in the Lutheran church, but by the time I was 16, I’d stopped going and began doing things I shouldn’t have. Decades later, after a second failed marriage, I became weary of sin and started looking for a Savior and asking God to help me find my way to the person I was as a kid.

“My lifestyle was pretty bad; I drank, smoked, and was morbidly obese. So I asked God to help me quit smoking, and He impressed me to quit drinking, first. Then I watched a documentary that struck a chord with me called Fat, Sick & Nearly Dead that inspired me to load up on fruits and vegetables and begin a juice fast. A few days went by, and I realized my vision and hearing were better. Then, soon after that, the whole world seemed to lift off my shoulders. I felt clean, and thought, So this is what it’s like to feel healthy! I became a vegan, and while I know it has nothing to do with my salvation, I now thrive on those foods. God really knows what makes us feel our best!

I also longed for spiritual food, so after working all night as a floor supervisor at a casino, I began going to church again on Sunday morning. The pastor was very kind, but I’d hear a Bible verse or two, take communion, and then leave. So nothing really changed—until I met Celestine!”

Celestine

The youngest child of eight, Celestine began singing with her family at evangelistic gatherings at an early age. “My dad had to Celestine and Brian have dedicated themselves to the Lord’s service, but also engage in personal ministry. Besides working at 3ABN, Celestine continues to sing for the Lord and Brian has a YouTube Channel ministry.

practically drag me on stage with them, because I was so shy!” she says. “But I’ll never forget him saying, ‘If you don’t use your voice for the Lord, you will lose it.’ I haven’t stopped singing since.”

Later, as a young adult, Celestine listed her name in a magazine for pen pals and met the man who became her first husband. “His name was Michael, and he lived in Chicago,” she says. “He was also a musician, and after corresponding for two years, I met him in person. He asked me to marry him, but I wouldn’t unless he became a Seventh-day Adventist, which he did. We lived in Chicago, and in 2009, I got an invitation to sing at the Thompsonville Church Thanksgiving service.

“We loved the country setting so much that we moved down here, and although Michael had been sick, he got better in our new surroundings. But in 2014, he became ill again and passed away in 2015. I’m so grateful that God turned his life around 180 degrees, and I saw his faithfulness when he dedicated his life to Jesus.”

Celestine continued working as the Thompsonville Church secretary while she mourned the loss of her husband. Then, two years later, she met Brian online through their common interests in food and nutrition.

“We talked a lot and she told me she was an Adventist, but I’d only heard of them through the Adventist Health Studies.” Brian says. “Finally, I met her at the church and made her a vegan lunch; then I took a tour of 3ABN, and as I left I thought, Could she be the one?”

“I couldn’t get 3ABN out of my mind, even as our feelings for each other grew; and after meeting most of the 3ABN leaders and presenters at a July 4 celebration, I asked her to marry me! I knew she wouldn’t marry someone of a different faith, so I took Bible studies—and my eyes were opened. Why did I never see this before? I wondered. I got through the studies quickly, quit my job at the casino, and on December 2, 2017, we were baptized, together. I love her for bringing me into the faith!”

Brian and Celestine were married a month later and have been happily united in ministry ever since. Today Brian serves as 3ABN’s Program Manager, and Celestine works for our 3ABN Call Center. She continues ministering through music, and Brian has a YouTube Channel called Now I See Ministry. He says, “I remember where I was when I prayed, Lord, if you show me the truth, I will praise you for the rest of my life. He certainly did, and I’ve held true to my promise, too.” ☺

YOUNG AND YOUNG AT HEART

Our 3ABN Kids Network programs reach a vast audience of children whose hearts are tender and whose love for Jesus is pure and trusting. How we love to hear from them—and from the young at heart, too!

From the Young

We received this encouraging note from Gaby and Isabela, saying, “Hello, my name is Gaby and I am 11 years old and in the sixth grade. My sister is named Isabela, and she is 9 years old and in the third grade. Every day, we watch 3ABN Kids Network. We enjoy everything and we are so happy with what you guys are doing. We started watching when we were little kids, and just continued our spiritual journey with Christ. We are praying that God will bless you and give you increasingly more. We love and enjoy all of you guys so very much! We hope we can visit you all one time in Illinois. Too bad we live in Maryland! May God bless you all, and we appreciate you all.”

Isaac, from Colorado, sent us an email that really touched our hearts. He wrote, “Hi I’m Isaac. I’m 31 years old and also in Adventist missions. The rest of this note will be from my 8-year-old, Nolan.”

Then we read a note from Nolan: “I saw on 3ABN Kids the story of the boy who was willing to give his life by donating his blood to his sister—before he found out he would live through it. I also want to give my life away to save someone else.”

What amazing selflessness and love! Surely Jesus lives in Nolan’s heart!

Natoli has a burden to help raise funds for families and churches overseas, and emailed us looking for fundraising ideas.

“I want to ask you if I could gain any knowledge from you as an eleven-year-old primary schooler. I have started fundraising for churches and families overseas in Ethiopia, but I live in Melbourne, Australia. I have raised about $5,000 so far. ... and my school has decided to incorporate an activity with my fundraiser to raise money for the churches and families overseas.... I’m trying my best in whatever I do.”

Natoli’s giving spirit is inspiring, and we can see the love of Jesus shining through. Indeed, working to help others is the very spirit of Heaven, manifesting itself in a young life!

Maria, in Puerto Rico says, “I especially enjoy watching all the kids playing their instruments and singing praises to God. It’s important to praise God in this way because this is a way to testify,” she adds.

And finally, consider the beautiful spirit of giving that shines through in Arlyn’s letter. It said, “Dear Aunt Francine, I am in fourth grade. I’m being homeschooled and I love to read. For my tenth birthday I received birthday money! I have decided to give $50 to 3ABN Kids Network. I love to watch Kitchen Fun, Amazing Adventures, The Big 3, Cook:30 for Kids, and my favorite—Grandma’s House! Thank you for all you do.”

Young at Heart

We also hear from many who are young at heart! Helen emailed us to say, “I am 85 years old and just wanted to let you know that every day I watch your kids programs. I enjoy those children so much; they’re my favorite programs of the day.”

We know that many of our viewers enjoy the happy faces singing praises to Jesus—and He uses them to bring precious souls to Him. One of those is Gail, who told us, “I was drawn to 3ABN Kid’s Network because of the children. They had such happy smiling faces, and I was hooked. On the bottom of the screen was a number for 3ABN, and for several months, God kept telling me, Gail, call that number. In my heart I wanted to find a Seventh-day Adventist church, but I’d just moved to Tulsa and didn’t know where to look. Finally, I called, and was directed to the Bethel Seventh-day Adventist Church....and the first time I walked in, I heard God say, Gail, you are home!”

Thank you for all you do to help keep programs like these on the air! ☺

“I also want to give my life away to save someone else.”

It's Our Turn to Help!

Satan has undermined what the Bible says about God's character to the point where many are afraid of the One who loved us so much that He gave His only Son to die in our place. But now there's a new series of booklets called Focus on Truth that expose the devil's lies and show God's true character of love! Written by 3ABN's founder, Danny Shelton, these new booklets entitled The Truth About the Ten Commandments, The Truth About Hellfire, and The Truth About Salvation show what the Bible says about these often misunderstood topics in an engaging and easy-to-understand way.

What Can We Do?

Every month we share ideas in this magazine of how you can support 3ABN's ministry, and we appreciate all you do to help. But this time, we asked ourselves, What can we do to help you? Well, we'd like to send you a packet of all three booklets, absolutely free. Our hope is that you will be blessed as you read them—and that you'll pass along your copy to someone else. To receive your Focus on Truth packet, just call us or send us an email, and we'll be delighted to send it to you as a token of our thanks!

These booklets can be easily shared through zip code mailings, where we send all three titles in an eye-catching, full-color envelope to homes in the zip code of your choice in the United States. And the cost? Just 50 cents per packet—that's less than a first-class stamp!

Individual titles are also available by the case to pass out in your community, and because of the generous donations that covered the cost of printing, we can ship each case of 250 booklets for only $16.50 in the U.S. That's less than 7 cents per booklet! (International rates higher).

Thank you for all you do for the Lord. Together, we can reach the world, and God will surely bless all that we do for Him!

Garbanzo SPREAD

by Leslie Caza

INGREDIENTS

- 1 ½ cups cooked garbanzo beans
 - ¼ cup chopped onion or green onion, or ½ tsp onion powder
 - 1 tsp cumin
 - 1 Tbsp McKay's Chicken Style Seasoning or chicken style seasoning powder (see note below)
 - 1–3 tsp Bragg Liquid Aminos (start with 1 tsp and add more to taste)
 - 2 Tbsp nutritional yeast flakes
 - 2 Tbsp vegan mayonnaise, adding more to taste (for recipe see note below)
- Optional:
- 2–4 Tbsp chopped celery
 - 2–4 Tbsp chopped bell pepper

DIRECTIONS

1. Mash garbanzo beans by hand or roughly chop them in food processor.
2. Mix in all other remaining ingredients. Chill before serving.
