PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

We never tire of hearing, “I was flipping through the TV channels, and suddenly, I found a station I’d never seen before.”

Ann* is one of those amazing stories. She had major surgery, and because of that, she had to go on short-term disability. In order to cut expenses, she decided to cancel her cable television subscription. Using just her TV antenna, she was able to pick up two local stations—“ION and this station I’d never seen or had no idea who or what they were.” It was 3ABN!

What happened next is incredible. After just one week, ION phased out, and as she said, “I’m stuck with this one station.”

“This station kept talking about Revelation,” Ann continues, “which I would not even open [and read in the Bible].”

However, over the course of several years, the Lord especially used Pastor Kenneth Cox’s sermons on 3ABN to change her life. The Holy Spirit really convicted her that she was learning truth as it is found in the Bible, so when she learned about the seventh-day Sabbath, and that God had not changed it to Sunday, Ann decided she had to take a stand and get baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church!

Miracle stories such as this one are so encouraging. There is no question in my mind that these are divine appointments set up by God. What a privilege to be part of 3ABN’s ministry as it makes an impact on people for eternity!

Thank you so much for your faithful support, but also for the special year-end gift you give to the ministry to keep us going and growing in 2024! Thank you for being part of the family.

“Our vision is to inspire young people to

“GYC was born out of an idea that young people are capable of handling the deep things of God; and that when truth is presented with clarity and conviction, it can fully transform lives. This idea led to a conference that started in 2002—not with a side program for young people, but one organized by young people, specifically for their peers, with the purpose of digging deep into the Word of God. As the conference has grown year by year, it has expanded to include service, classroom-style training and education, a platform to connect with other mission-oriented ministries, and united prayer. Today, GYC impacts thousands of lives worldwide for God’s kingdom and His end-time mission. Our vision is to inspire young people to personally study, fall in love with, and follow the Bible. If youth are led to do this, they will know and embrace Jesus; and they will understand the special message God has given the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Their lives will be spent wholly for God, wherever He calls them.”

“But If Not”

Andrew says that this year’s conference theme is But If Not. “It’s taken from Daniel 3:17–18 (emphasis supplied) that says, “If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king. But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we worship the gold image which you have set up.”

“Daniel’s three young friends had a choice to make of whether or not they would succumb to the pressure of their environment,” he says. “And they decided that regardless of consequences, they would place God and His Word above every other consideration.

“Young people today are faced with varying degrees of decision points about whether to remain faithful to God. Some risk their physical lives, others risk their jobs, and an increasing number of us risk our social standing among peers, both inside and outside of the church, as well.

“Whether it be a public school student among non-Adventist peers, the Adventist school student in the society of their compromising or unconverted friends, or the young person standing up to the influence of social media that imperceptibly warps our priceless identity as end-time co-laborers with God in this Great Controversy, we almost continually face incredible valleys of decision. So our theme will highlight our privilege and joy to place Jesus, our relationship with Him, and our divinely appointed mission in life as the highest and greatest treasure we can have as we approach the end of time. We have a calling to pursue this—no matter what it costs.

“My intense desire is that GYC, among other influences, may serve the young people of our generation to that end.”

Yes, God is moving through this wonderful organization, and we hope you will join us for live coverage beginning Wednesday, December 27, at 8:00 p.m. Central on 3ABN. ☺

A Commitment to Faithfulness

by Bobby Davis

As the end of the year approaches, we look forward to the excitement of the GYC Conference coming up this month in Portland, Oregon. This dedicated group of youth are taking an active role in finishing the work of God in this generation!

We caught up with GYC President, Pastor Andrew Park, as he shared what was on his heart. “Growing up in metro Detroit, Michigan, I attended public schools as a Seventh-day Adventist,” he begins. “But when I say I was a Seventh-day Adventist, I refer to my presence in a church building each week because my parents brought me there. Church was fun for social reasons, faith was a weekly occurrence during the worship service, and the Bible was the book I read within that setting alone.

“It’s easy to see a young person in a place like that and try to think of ways to reach them. We might think, If I just get them to come to church long enough, they’ll eventually come on their own. Or we might try to attract them with things they like— friends, food, and games.

“There is nothing inherently wrong with these thoughts, and they may work for a time. But if these are the sole avenues to reach the soul and our effort goes no further, they may not end in true success—and that was the case with me. It wasn’t until I was thrown into the challenging environment of service, was inspired by spiritual peers to read the writings of Ellen White (starting with her Steps to Christ book), and began reading the Bible on my own that I had a full conversion experience at age 21. So my own experience segues well into the work of GYC—which, by the way, stands for “Generation. Youth. Christ.”—a unique organization that serves a special purpose.

Andrew Park,
GYC President

GETTING TO KNOW GOD

The last book of the Bible is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, and nothing can be more important than getting to know Him. Jesus said "... seek, and you will find ..." (Matthew 7:7) and the Apostle Paul said, "Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15). With this in mind, the Lord has blessed us this year with a marvelous set of Bible Study Guides, and our viewers and listeners have ordered them enthusiastically!

"We are excited to have this new resource to help you point others to Jesus and the truths in His Word."

Packaged in an attractive, easy-to-follow format, the 3ABN Bible Study Guides are perfect for personal study, as well as group discussions. They can easily be used in church study groups, with neighbors, or anyone eager to learn more about Jesus.

Our introductory set is called "Looking Higher," and presents Bible truths in the order they appear in the three angels' messages of Revelation 14. They cover important topics like The Great Controversy between Christ and Satan, Creation, and the power of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Christian. They also cover the seventh-day Sabbath, the truth about Hell, the Second Coming of Jesus, and more.

Each study guide has a special QR code that takes readers to related material on our 3ABNBibleAnswers.com website, a special five-minute video on the topic, or other related programs on the 3ABN+ App. In addition, it links them to free offers of magazines and books that provide in-depth coverage of each subject.

Pointing to Jesus

"3ABN has been all about evangelism from its very beginning," says 3ABN President Greg Morikone, "and we are excited to have this new resource to help you point others to Jesus and the truths in His Word."

"And the best part is that they can be shared with anyone!" adds Jill Morikone, 3ABN Vice President/COO. "In fact, we have just partnered with Lemuel Vega and the Christmas Behind Bars ministry to provide thousands of study guide sets that will be included in their gift packages to inmates next year!"

These packages will contain Bibles, personal toiletry items, devotional materials, a full set of 3ABN Bible Study Guides, and delightful snacks, all hand-delivered by volunteers. As they pass them out, they also speak words of encouragement to each person individually, letting them know that they are not forgotten, and that God still loves them and has a plan to prosper all who allow Him into their heart.

"The truths in God's Word are timeless and life-changing," Jill adds, "and we're so grateful to be bringing this message of hope to those incarcerated."

A Call to Look Higher

The first set of Bible Study Guides will be followed by a second set encompassing many of the truths in the Word of God. We believe that this God-given tool will help untold thousands of souls to a beautiful walk with Jesus as they study the Holy Scriptures. Please join us in praying for those who, "as newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word" (1 Peter 2:2). We want to do everything we can to add precious souls to God's Kingdom every day, so thank you for helping us reach them with this powerful evangelistic tool for His glory! ☺

We Love Your Letters

Everyone loves the feeling they get when they receive a card or letter from a loved one, and we love reading your cards and letters, too! No matter whether you write to share a problem, ask a question, or even ask for our prayers, it brings us that much closer with bonds of love. Here's a small sample of the letters, comments, and emails we've received recently from you and our 3ABN Family members around the world.

An Answer to Prayer

Terry wrote to us after reading about our new 3ABN Ambassador program, saying, "I am that person you speak of, the one that was divinely directed to 3ABN in the middle of a sleepless night! The words C. A. Murray was speaking in a men's prison also spoke to me. I had been praying for the truth, for a church community to attend and serve, and I found myself tuning into 3ABN more and more, listening and watching on my iPad when I was working out of town. I downloaded the study guide for 3ABN's Sabbath School Panel and studied along with people I didn't know, but who are now like family to me. I watched the Hope Awakens series with Pastor John Bradshaw in 2020, completed the quizzes, and requested more information. Afterward, I was contacted by Pastor Keith Noll, who invited me to a continuing regional Zoom study every Thursday evening. I was attending my Baptist Church until they decided to stream their worship service [during the pandemic]. I was also tithing to my Baptist church, but started splitting my tithe between that church and a local Seventh-day Adventist church online. Pastor Noll put me in touch with Pastor Mike Foraker, and I met him for the first time in September of 2020. We talked for hours, and I attended the Dickson Seventh-day Adventist Church for my first Sabbath Worship Service that year. They received me with open and loving arms, and I haven't looked back. I was intentional about becoming a part of this family, and I joined the church by profession of faith in December 2022. I appreciate you and everyone who is a part of 3ABN."

Joy writes, "I once thought I was a fairly knowledgeable Christian, but I never wondered why other churches had so few Bible lessons on the book of Revelation. I can't remember how I learned that Saturday was the true Sabbath, but when I found 3ABN on DISH Network, I felt like I was home! I couldn't get enough of all the Bible lessons. I found it all at just the right time to answer all my questions. 'I once was blind, but now I see!' I'm so grateful and happy to be a Seventh-day Adventist."

And then there's Barbara, who writes, "I was raised Southern Baptist and lived with many unanswered questions for too many years. I visited different churches—the Methodists, Pentecostals, Catholics, and others—but one day in 2012, I was channel surfing and found 3ABN! I'd never heard of anybody going to church on Saturday, so I had to prove this wrong with my open Bible. Instead, I was the one proven wrong, and God and His truth were revealed to me. Now I know and walk in the love and truth of my Lord and Savior. I feel His peace, and watch 3ABN daily. I praise God for blessing the world with His truth through 3ABN. Thank you! I am a born-again believer, and a baptized Seventh-day Adventist."

A New Freedom

We love reading letters from inmates who receive the Study Bibles and other books we send them. Chris writes, "Hello my friends. I am so thrilled to have just received the Remnant Study Bible you sent me. What a great Bible; this one is a keeper! My thanks to you and the donors who paid for it. You are touching so many lives, and I hope they know that. Don't ever think we don't appreciate them, because we do. Being in jail for a long time and facing prison time destroys the mind and body, but I have found so much strength in Jesus Christ. Even though I've lost my freedom, I've gained life everlasting. Thank you so much for caring for us lost souls!"

"Now I know and walk in the love and truth of my Lord and Savior."

Hearing the Holy Spirit

Ronald recently sent us an online comment that said, "Hi, I just wanted to say that 3ABN has become a lifeline for me. There are so many amazing messages that you all have put up that really hit home. I feel the Holy Spirit speaking to me through them and I don't feel like He's given up on me, the way I used to! Thank you for all the prayers for my children—I saw God's hand helping them in so many ways."

And finally, one of our viewers sent us a message, saying, "I started baptismal classes three weeks ago. I struggled to sleep and was late to church that first week. Then last week, I had to miss church. Then last night I was ill and struggled to sleep! I believe Satan is trying to keep me from being baptized, but he will not win, because I have already submitted myself to Jesus! I can feel the Holy Spirit helping me through these little trials, but please pray for me."

We do pray for each of you! You are family, and we love to hear from you. So please feel free to call or write to us. We love to hear from our 3ABN Family! ☺

Heartfelt Giving

During this season of giving, many will exchange meaningful expressions of affection through carefully chosen gifts. So why not choose gifts that carry a reminder of God's love that can bring about a change of heart and make a difference for eternity? Each one comes wrapped in the love of Jesus—and helps to support the preaching of the gospel.
