PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

My dad and I like to garden together, and ever since my parents retired and moved near 3ABN, we've been able to work together in the soil each growing season. This past spring, we used the tractor to disk up a large portion of the field that previously had a clover cover crop. The tractor and disk made quick work of breaking open the soil, but as he approached the end of the field, Dad noticed one of the turning disks was starting to wobble badly.

Stopping to investigate, we realized that a special square-shaped nut and several spacers had come lose and fallen off in the field! We looked at each other as we realized that finding the pieces would be almost impossible. Looking in the fresh brown dirt, we quickly found two of the four missing pieces. We prayed as we walked back and forth over the field, carefully looking for the missing parts, but found nothing. Later, Dad used a small metal detector and found the missing pieces—close together, yet hidden in plain sight, camouflaged by the soil.

The whole process of searching and finding is not just for temporal things on this earth, it is also true of our spiritual journey! Each of us are sinful, broken vessels in need of a Savior.

I love Jeremiah 29:13 that says, "And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart." I want this to be my daily prayer.

The reason I'm so passionate about the work that 3ABN does is because this ministry's vision and commission is to proclaim the beautiful gospel message of our Lord Jesus Christ. As the world searches for answers, 3ABN is there to point each of them to the truth in the Bible. Thank you for making this possible.

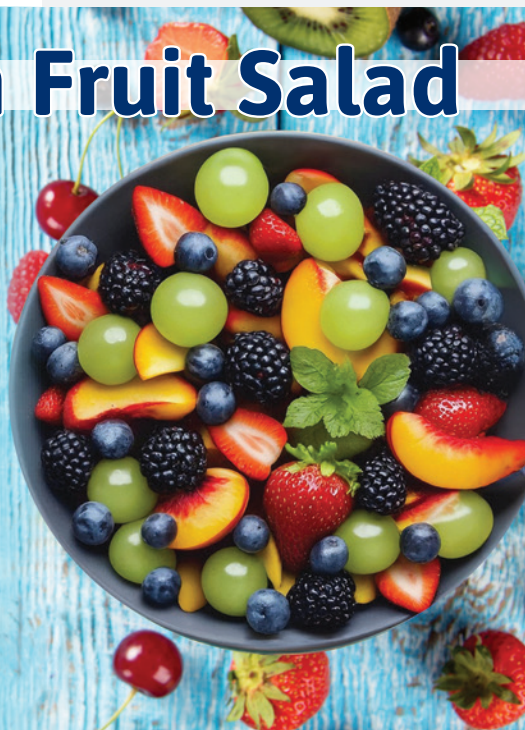

Greg Morikone
3ABN President

Minty Fresh Fruit Salad

ASI 2024 INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Once again, 3ABN is happy to carry live coverage of the Adventist-laymen's Services and Industries (ASI) International Convention held this year from July 31 through August 3 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida.

Investing in Eternity

This year's convention theme is "Investing in Eternity: Called, Consecrated, Committed," and we are eager to hear how the Lord is using laypeople to help accomplish the Great Commission Jesus gave us to reach the world with the everlasting gospel.

ASI President, Dr. Andi Hunsaker, says, "As we prayed over this theme, our hearts were drawn out to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who 'did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation' (Philippians 2:6-7). He was rich, yet for our sakes, became poor that we might become rich. That is the epitome of our theme! Jesus invested all for eternity, forever to be one with us; forever, the Son of man. Our invitation to all who attend the ASI International Convention this year is to recommit to being called, consecrated, and committed to Jesus Christ. As we turn our eyes upon Him and look full in His wonderful face, 'the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace.' We look forward to seeing you!"

3ABN President, Greg Morikone, says, "The work that ASI does around the world is tremendous as they focus on evangelism in the workplace. From the very beginning, 3ABN's mission has been 'Go ye into all the world.' So the heartbeat of both our ministries is the same—evangelism!"

3ABN has been an ASI Member for many years. In fact, 3ABN's founder, Danny Shelton, attended his first ASI convention in 1985, in Big Sky, Montana. "With that in mind, what a tremendous privilege it has been for 3ABN to partner with ASI through the years!" says 3ABN Vice President/COO Jill Morikone. "The mission reports and stories of what God is doing 'in the marketplace' are inspiring. We believe in the evangelistic focus of ASI, and are blessed to work together to help reach the world with this gospel message."

3ABN President, Greg Morikone, and Vice President/COO, Jill Morikone, share about 3ABN's ministry on a live broadcast from the ASI International Convention.

Highlights

On opening night, we'll hear an inspiring sermon by Elder Ted Wilson, the President of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Then, on Thursday night, we'll hear exciting reports from ASI Members in Action who received grants from ASI Missions, Inc. From medical missionary work to Christian services for the blind, and from youth evangelism to building church roofs in Africa, these grateful recipients report on how they've been blessed to accomplish what they could not do by themselves.

On Friday night, you won't want to miss Dr. David Trim as he shares stories of early Adventist missionaries who literally gave their lives in the mission field. On Sabbath morning, our Divine Worship sermon will be given by Shawn Boonstra, speaker/director for the Voice of Prophecy radio and television ministry. And finally, on Saturday night, we'll hear the inspiring story of Dr. Scott Nelson, an orthopedic surgeon who left an esteemed career to follow God's high calling on his life to be a full-time missionary in Haiti.

God has poured out abundant blessings on these faithful Christians as they seek to share Jesus Christ and His love for humanity with everyone they meet, and 3ABN is privileged to be a member and provide live worldwide coverage of this event each year.

All the inspiring messages, beautiful sacred music, and the chance to learn about new lay ministries makes an ASI International Convention an unforgettable experience you will not want to miss. So watch our special live coverage and be blessed. ☺

God's Mercy Endures Forever

"Through all my pain, He'd whisper to me, My mercy endures forever."

Pauletta Mosley grew up in Denver, Colorado, where her father worked at the Air Force Defense Finance and Accounting Service and her mother cared for their six children. "We had a normal childhood," she says, "and attended church occasionally," she says. "But when I was eight, I was baptized in the Baptist church.

"I was 17 years old when I had my first son Cameron, and six years later, I had my second son Christopher. I was a hairstylist and wanted to raise my boys to love the Lord, so as they got older, I took them with me to the Zion Baptist Church, where they were both baptized."

Tragedy Strikes

Things seemed to go well, but when Cameron was 18, tragedy struck. "It was 1988, and he had just graduated from high school and was preparing to go to college," Pauletta says. "He was not involved in gangs in any way, but as he was riding home on his bicycle, some gang members drove by shooting in the air and a bullet hit him. He fell off his bike a block from home, and then they came around and shot him again nine more times! His death tore me apart, but I knew the Lord was there with me. Curiously, I dreamed that Mary was telling me how she'd lost her Son, Jesus, but later found Him in the temple. Then I woke up and looked desperately through a Bible for that story.

"During that time, I heard a pastor I really liked on the radio and eventually joined his church. I knew nothing about the denomination, but I liked the name Disciples of Christ," she recalls. "I also found relief by singing in the church choir. Praising Him healed my mind and lessened my grief, so I could get back to work and raise my youngest son.

"Christopher grew up, attended college in Florida, then left college to join the Navy. They sent him overseas during Operation Desert Storm and I wasn't happy about that," she admits. "I'd lost my oldest son to gang violence, but I was even more afraid of war!

"Eventually, he got out, got married, bought a home, and had three children. He also joined the National Guard, served in Iraq, and came home with post-traumatic stress disorder. I didn't know anything about PTSD, except that he was going to counseling and took some medicine; but I never saw any symptoms. He took his kids to school, was a great family man, and was taking heating and air conditioning classes. Things seemed to be going well, but one day in 2015, I left my phone in the car while I went to the gym, and when I got back I saw I had two voicemails. The first one was my son, saying, 'Mom, I tried to be a good father and a good son. May the Lord rest my soul.'

"I called back immediately and got no answer, so I played the other message. It was from a policeman, saying they'd found my son in a cemetery. He was laying next to his brother Cameron's grave.

"I couldn't believe it. I was so hurt. I couldn't understand why he'd taken his own life. How I wished he had told me, but maybe he couldn't. I finally realized that was all part of his PTSD.

"I visited my cousin in Texas, then decided to move there, myself. My drive was so peaceful, when suddenly, I saw a bird flying along beside me! I remembered that I'd asked the Holy Spirit to accompany me, and as soon as I reached my destination, he flew away!"

A TV Channel

Arriving in Burleson, Texas, Pauletta began looking for a new church home. "There were so many churches that it was hard to choose," she recalls, "So I started attending one of them. Then I watched a program one night about the Prodigal Son. I watched that channel again the next day and really liked the way they were teaching the Bible. I remember thinking, I wish I could find a church that believes like this ... and suddenly, I saw an address for the Crowley Seventh-day Adventist Church on the screen. That must be the one! I thought, so I called and told Pastor Adam Keating that I'd seen his church address on 3ABN. I also told him a bit of my story and asked, 'Has anyone in your church lost a child to suicide?' He said yes, and later told me that the family would like to meet me. We became friends, and they asked me if I'd like to study the Bible with them, so I said, 'Of course!' The Sabbath didn't make sense to me. I thought it didn't matter what day we worshipped on. But I learned different as I studied with them, and it wasn't long before I felt a strong urge to be rebaptized. I've been there ever since!

"My son's suicide really shook my faith, but it didn't turn me away from God. Through all my pain, the Lord would whisper to me, My mercy endures forever. I felt like I'd lost my mind—but the Lord gave me a new one! Today, I know He loves me, and I want to be in His presence.

"I want to talk to those who have gone through suicide. We isolate a lot, because it's hard to live around people who criticize our loved ones while trying to console us. I don't feel qualified to help others, yet, but I keep talking to the Lord about it, and He will show me what I can do for Him and for others. I've been through so much, and the Lord has blessed me. So now, I'm trying to learn more about him." ☺

These special 3ABN Bible Studies are especially designed to reach through prison walls—with no staples, and free offers that can be sent through the mail.

Your generous support makes it possible for us to send prisoners an entire set of 14 Bible Study Guides and a beautiful study Bible for free!

Your tax-deductible gifts make it possible for us to send these special edition study guides, as well as their prized free Study Bibles!

Each soul is precious to the Lord. Jesus said, "... I was in prison and you came to Me. ... Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me." Matthew 25:36, 40.

As you care for God's children, we know that He will richly reward you!

#436 Prison Ministries

From Prison and Beyond

Our 3ABN Pastoral Department coordinates our prison ministry, where dedicated workers answer thousands of letters written by men and women behind bars. These are some of the most broken and forgotten people in the world—and yet they are precious to Jesus, who cried and died for them. In fact, He said that He considers the way we treat them to be the way we treat Him!

The Bible says, “Let brotherly love continue. Remember the prisoners as if chained with them ...” (Hebrews 13:1, 3). So, with your help, we send free study Bibles, study guides, and other literature to those who are all but forgotten by society. God is blessing our efforts. Just look at some of the letters we receive!

Words of Gratitude

Dustin writes from his jail cell, saying, “I would like to offer my sincerest gratitude for the wonderful literature you sent me. I am so very grateful to have received the Andrews Study Bible, along with the Acts of the Apostles and the Daniel and Revelation books. They have kept my spirits lifted in such dark times that I face. Thank you so very much for the services you provide, and may God bless the work you do.”

Craig writes from the Hutchens State Jail in Dallas, Texas. He says, “I love Patriarchs and Prophets every bit as much as The Great Controversy. These books have transformed my life, heart, and soul. Could you please send me an Andrews Study Bible? I have read the entire Bible eleven times in eight months, and I am ready for a true study Bible! You are saving souls out there. I mean it!”

Another inmate named Rickey writes, “Wow! Last night at mail call, I received the best and nicest Bible I have ever seen in my life, and it was sent from you! I had always hoped to someday have a nice Bible like this, and I just want to express my deep appreciation for you sending it to me. I had never read a New King James Bible, but I see it is a lot easier to understand than the King James Version. I particularly like that it has commentary from Ellen White’s books that tie into the Scriptures in this Andrews Study Bible. I can’t stop touching it, and I’ve already started reading it. Currently I am in Luke, and this Bible will take me far because I will use it daily during this life sentence I am serving in this Texas prison. Thank you very much for this! I pray you all remain well and blessed daily.”

An inmate at Westville Correctional Prison in Indiana writes, “I found a pamphlet that says I can request free spiritual books from you. I just got done reading The Desire of Ages—it is my favorite book and brings tears to my eyes when I read about what Jesus did for me. I’m reading The Great Controversy now, but I am writing to request the Acts of the Apostles and Patriarchs and Prophets books from you, as well. Thank you.”

And finally, we received a letter from Stephanie, who writes, “I just wanted to share that I encourage others to reach out and write you a personal letter to ask for your prayers. I tell them that you take the time to personally respond to my letters, and that it always puts me at ease. It is incredible that a person I never met just makes my day better by their kindness. I keep each letter so I can share them with family when I return home. I know of three people who have reached out to you, and there would probably be more if they could afford to buy envelopes. I am very thankful God shared you with me. I have been trying to keep a journal of everything—the good, the bad, and the ugly—since I’ve been here. I see the journal you offer, and I think about getting it to write down just the good things that happen. I appreciate you more than you will ever know. You are truly a gift from God.”

Part of the Family

We love hearing from our 3ABN Family, whether they live close nearby—or overseas! Harvey writes, “I’ve been so blessed by the ministry of 3ABN over the years. Back in 2001, when I was a new Christian, I picked up 3ABN’s signal with a TV antenna here in the Philippines. I watched programs like 3ABN On the Road with David Asscherick, who helped me deepen my knowledge of the Bible and strengthen my relationship with Jesus Christ. Thank you for your ministry!”

Aleisha writes from Memphis, Tennessee, and says, “I am a 29-and-a-half-year-old autistic woman who has never worked before. But for the past several years, God has transformed my life through your programs and I have been moved to send this small gift as my way of giving thanks to Him, and thanks to you for letting Him use you. Isaiah 55:11 says, ‘So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.’ May He continue to bless you all!”

We also loved hearing from Martha, in Yucca, Arizona, who writes, “It’s a privilege to be a part of this ministry that is reaching out to the world more and more. I appreciate the work all of you do. May God bless you and continue to give you plans to expand! I love you all.”

Thank you for being part of our 3ABN Family. God has great plans for us all as we strive to reach the world with words of hope and salvation! ☺

Wear Your Witness!

We are excited to announce that we have a brand new way for you to “wear your witness!” In fact, it’s the perfect evangelistic tool to share the three angels’ messages with everyone who sees you!

If you’ve experienced the peace that comes with following God’s fourth commandment to rest on His holy Sabbath, then you’ve undoubtedly wanted to share that good news with others. And now, you can really increase your witnessing power by wearing one of our brand new witnessing T-shirts! Each one has the word “Rest” on the front, and the message that “God gave you permission” printed on the back, with a reference to the Ten Commandments in Exodus 20.

3ABN President, Greg Morikone, is enthusiastic. “What a great way to witness!” he says. “We know that wearing one of these evangelism T-shirts is sure to generate an opportunity to share about Jesus.”

Each shirt ordered also comes with business-sized cards to hand out with a QR code that links to biblical content and videos about the Sabbath on our 3ABNBibleAnswers.com website!

“This innovative way to witness travels with you wherever you go,” adds 3ABN Vice President/COO, Jill Morikone. “They provide a beautiful opportunity for conversations about God’s gift of Sabbath rest.”

God will certainly bless every effort we make to spread the truth about His holy Sabbath!

Strawberry SMOOTHIE

by Kylee Melo

INGREDIENTS

- 2 cups frozen strawberries
- 3–4 dates
- 2 Tbsp ground flaxseed
- 1 cup dairy-free yogurt (optional)
- 2–3 cups dairy-free milk

According to healthline.com, strawberries are a good source of vitamin C, manganese, folate (vitamin B9), and potassium. They also contain small amounts of several other vitamins and minerals.

DIRECTIONS

1. Place all ingredients in blender and blend until smooth.
2. Add more dairy-free milk for a thinner texture.
