PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

Joshua 1:9 is a powerful and encouraging passage, especially when we feel alone, overwhelmed, or not sure about which direction to take. It says, “Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.”

Have you ever faced opposition to a direction you felt compelled to take? I’m sure we all have. But what if opposition comes from spiritual conviction?

We often hear from 3ABN viewers and listeners who are deeply convicted by the truths they learn from the Bible. Take the Fourth Commandment, for example: “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God....” (Exodus 20:8–10). In response, many take a step of faith—telling their employer they cannot work on the Sabbath, or explaining to their family that obedience to God must come before family tradition. But too often, their convictions result in ridicule or even estrangement from those they love or work with.

In Joshua 1, God speaks directly to him as he prepares to assume leadership of the children of Israel. And I love how God tells him several times to be strong and courageous. How could Joshua move forward with confidence? The answer comes at the end of verse 9: “... for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.” What a promise—for Joshua then, and for each of us today!

No matter what 2026 holds or what decisions faithfulness to the Lord may require, we can go forward and be strong and courageous in Him. We can rest assured that He goes with us wherever we go. And because of your gifts and support, others are being given the opportunity to stand strong, too!

MEMORIES & MIRACLES

by Jay Christian

It's hard to believe, but 3ABN Radio Network has been serving the Lord for 26 years now, and along the way, there are many wonderful memories. Take a trip with me down memory lane.

IN THE BEGINNING

My family and I arrived at 3ABN in August 1999, ready to work for the Lord! My work would be with the new radio network that was being added to the TV networks already in existence.

First, the radio studios would need to be built; so we donned our work clothes, grabbed hammers, pliers, screw drivers, and assorted other tools, and went to work helping with the construction. It was tight, but we met our goal of full-time broadcasting by February 28, 2000.

What would be our format? Following 3ABN TV, we chose a variety of Christian preaching, music, health, evangelistic, family, and children's programming.

We were on satellite, but only the large dishes could receive us. We were broadcasting 24/7, but with just this one outlet, very few people were actually listening. However, God blessed our efforts and we were able to get our signal onto the smaller satellite dishes. Now people could listen to 3ABN Radio and watch 3ABN television.

But less than a week later, something totally unexpected happened when the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) announced they would allow new community radio stations to be built. We were totally blindsided! We had no idea this was coming. We just knew God wanted us to start a radio station that would reach the world with the undiluted three angels' messages. He knew this was coming, even when we didn't!

Eventually, many low power FM radio stations were built by local churches across America—and the Lord made the same opportunities available in Australia and New Zealand. Many churches and other ministries signed up with us, and in time, our broadcasts were also heard through numerous other radio stations around the world. Currently, we have grown to approximately 350 radio affiliates worldwide.

MORE OPPORTUNITIES

At the same time, we were reminded there was this new technology that was growing called the internet! It was becoming much more than an information and knowledge tool. Radio, TV, videos, and more were growing very quickly, and we saw our opportunities—well, really God's opportunities—increase. Soon we were sending our 3ABN Radio programming around the world, along with the recent addition, the 3ABN Radio Music Channel.

Speaking of the Music Channel, it has its own story. One day, God told me to start a new station that played Christian music full-time and I was startled!

Music? Full time? But, God, we focus on preaching, teaching, and the spoken Word. We haven't focused on music! was my response.

There was silence for a moment or two. Then, I want you to start a new station playing music full-time, and call it The Music Channel.

Now I don't claim to be excessively smart, but at this point, I realized I was arguing with God about something He wanted us to do—and I was saying no!

So, I asked our Radio staff for their opinion, and "Go for it!" was the response from everyone.

We took the idea to 3ABN's administration, and they thought it was a good idea, too. So with God's guidance, and a lot of work on the staff's part, the 3ABN Radio Music Channel debuted on April 1, 2016!

Almost ten years have passed since that happened, and people from around the world have expressed how much they've been blessed to listen to great Christian music that's available 24 hours a day. It looks like God knew what He was doing all along!

Thank you for walking with me down memory lane. For 26 years, it has been my pleasure to work with 3ABN's Radio networks. It's been the joy of my life! ☺

"WE HAD NO IDEA THIS WAS COMING. WE JUST KNEW GOD WANTED US TO START A RADIO STATION"

A Harvest in Havana

by John Dinze

Can you recognize a historic opportunity? Something marvelous and exciting is in the works in the island of Cuba!

Pastor Bernardo Sanchez, president of the West Cuban Conference of Seventh-day Adventists said to me, "We are dreaming about something that's never been done in Havana. We baptized 900 people one year, but we're hoping to baptize 1,000 souls during the evangelistic campaigns with 3ABN next April."

But wait, I'm getting ahead of myself. Let me back up and give you some context.

The Weekly Package

The fact is that there's no cable TV in Cuba, internet service is very expensive, and none of the usual TV streaming services are available to the general public. Folks are very selective with the limited amount of internet service they can afford, so the most affordable way to access international programming is through something called El Paquete Semanal (The Weekly TV Package). It's available in every city throughout Cuba, and there are thousands of little home businesses where The Package is sold at very affordable prices. Some will even deliver it to people's homes. To watch, customers must provide a hard drive or thumb drive to buy the programming they desire.

Miraculously, the Lord has made it possible for us to place some of our 3ABN Latino programming in the Christian section since June 2021! In fact, we are the only Christian television network that is consistently on The Package week after week. And now, it's time to reap a harvest from all those seeds that have been planted and grown in those who have been watching our programs.

God Expands the Vision

A year and a half ago, as I presented a plan to the leadership of the Cuban Union of Seventh-day Adventists under the leadership of Pastor Aldo Joel, he told me that the best time for evangelistic campaigns in Cuba is during the month of April. So in a meeting with Conference President, Pastor Bernardo Sanchez, we chose the dates of April 4–11, 2026. Our plan was to have four simultaneous evangelistic campaigns in the largest churches of Havana, with the nearest churches also participating, for a total of ten churches. The plan included hiring ten Bible workers using our Spanish 3ABN Bible Study Guides to help prepare people for baptism.

This past November, I met with the Conference leadership, and also with ten Bible workers, providing them packets of our 3ABN Bible Study Guides. I appealed to them to surrender themselves to the Lord and to ask the Holy Spirit to use them in leading people to Jesus. The contagious enthusiasm in this spiritual atmosphere was exciting and inspiring!

A Harvest in Havana

But later that day, another challenge came when Pastor Sanchez, along with his Director of Evangelism, Pastor Eliezer Santos, told me of their dream to see 1,000 people baptized in April 2026.

"In order to do this, we are asking for 3ABN to consider hiring another 30 Bible workers, so 40 churches in Havana can participate," they said.

I was surprised—and encouraged! "From what I understand, every good thought comes from God," I replied, "and you are showing faith in what He has put into your hearts. I believe God will bless us with the funds we need to hire those 40 Bible workers. However, I must take this challenge to 3ABN's administration for them to evaluate and pray about before I can give you an answer."

The next day, I spoke to our 3ABN President and Vice President, Greg and Jill Morikone. They were excited about what God was doing, and Greg said, "We see the Lord's hand in this project, so let's go forward. Tell them you have a green light!"

Our challenges now are to continue putting our life-changing programs on The Weekly Package, print at least 1,000 sets of our Spanish 3ABN Bible Study Guides, and support 40 Bible workers for at least nine months—as well as the related expenses for these simultaneous evangelistic campaigns. But God is good, and He will supply all our needs!

Will you please pray for us? Your earnest prayers and faithful financial support will bring hope and the good news of salvation to countless people during these evangelistic meetings—and beyond.

I believe this historic opportunity will bring a wave of blessings, inspiration, and hope that will cover the island nation of Cuba from coast to coast. Maranatha! ☺

I believe God will bless us with the funds we need to hire those 40 Bible workers.

3ABN Led Her Home

Lenie grew up in the Philippines in a family where her father was a Seventh-day Adventist and her mother was Roman Catholic. She attended an Adventist church, was baptized when she was nine, and was also an honor student. But she always felt like something was missing.

Then, when she was 14, her life was shattered when her aunt showed up at school and said that her mother was in the hospital after an attempted suicide.

"My heart was hurting and I thought they would drop me off at the hospital," she says. "But they brought me home instead and left me there alone to clean up. I can still see it all so vividly. I didn't know who to turn to."

Her mother survived, and when she returned from the hospital, she repeatedly asked for forgiveness. But Lenie could barely look at her. As time went on, the trauma, shame, and confusion isolated her from others. Her grades suffered, and her family stopped going to church. Feeling abandoned and angry, Lenie wondered, Where is God when I need Him?

Worldly Accomplishments

Desperately, Lenie focused on her schoolwork to cope. She graduated secondary school at the top of her class and made the dean's list in college, earning a degree in Chemical Engineering.

With a promising career ahead of her, she worked for several multinational companies and began living a worldly life. "I went to parties with my friends, drank, and thought I was just fine," she says. "But that void in my heart was still there, I didn't have a prayer life, and I didn't spend time with God. It was as if I didn't know Him at all."

A Turning Point

Finally, after many years' absence, Lenie visited her grandfather—but just three days later, he passed away. "The loss was devastating," she says, "since he was the only man I had ever loved."

"Three years later, at a family reunion, my heart was breaking again because my grandpa wasn't with us anymore. He'd longed to see us all together, so we had a Sabbath service in his memory. But all I could think of was how much I longed to see him on Resurrection Morning."

That experience led her to begin reading her Bible once more, and slowly, Lenie began spending time with God. One day, she found a new TV channel and began watching. And although she'd never watched 3ABN before, it all sounded familiar. She knew the songs they sang, and as she listened to the sermons and Bible studies, she suddenly realized they were Seventh-day Adventist doctrines!

In tears, Lenie got down on her knees, asking God for forgiveness and another chance. Then she felt the joy of finally coming home where she belonged. The awful void was filled. She was not alone!

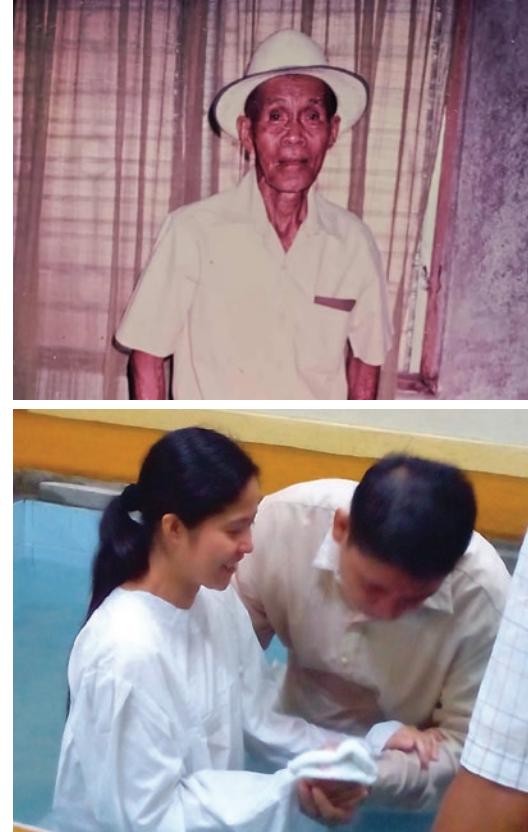

A Life of Witness

Two years later, Lenie longed to spend her Sabbaths with the Lord, so she quit her job and moved to Central Philippines. But living far from her home was hard, and often she felt like all she had was Jesus.

"I lived with a Roman Catholic lady who happened to be the niece of the owner of the company I worked for," she says. "Then one of my co-workers told me her sister had cancer, so I prayed for her, and we became so close that she was like my second mom."

That lady began a weekly Bible study at her home with her pastor, and invited Lenie to join them. Then she invited the family Lenie was staying with, too. Often, after a Bible study, Lenie's friend would tell her she didn't understand what the pastor was saying. So when they got home, she would explain things based on what the Bible says. "We covered everything from the state of the dead to worshiping graven images; from the Second Coming to the seventh-day Sabbath. And finally, she said, 'Lenie, can we have our own Bible study here at home, instead?'"

By now, Lenie felt compelled to find a local Seventh-day Adventist church, and she found one full of kind, warm, and welcoming people. After church, she'd share the Sabbath School Lesson and sermon with her friends. One day, she said, "Lenie, even though we aren't related by blood, you have loved us more than family!"

Top: Lenie's longing to see her grandfather, Perfecto Castillo, on Resurrection Morning led her to read her Bible again. Bottom: Lenie beams as she is re-baptized.

Lenie said, "We both cried, and the following Sabbath, a church elder volunteered to have a Bible study at our home. Soon my friends were coming to church with me, too."

Nine months later, Lenie decided to be re-baptized. "I told my friend about it and she said she wanted to be baptized with me! So in September 2016, we were all baptized together at the Olongapo Seventh-day Adventist Church. By finding 3ABN, I truly found my way back home!"

Your prayers and support make it possible for thousands to find hope and salvation through 3ABN. Who do you know who needs to hear about Jesus? ☺

CUBA'S CALL FOR HOPE

John Dinzey was preaching in Cuba when he noticed the elderly man clutching his Bible, its yellowed pages nearly falling out. Then he noticed that the man's Bible was held together with staples! Yet, the old man held it as if it were the greatest treasure in the world. When John asked the congregation, "Who needs a Bible?" nearly a fourth of the hands went up.

This is Cuba today—a nation where everyday life is hard, and people are searching desperately for hope. And that search is leading them straight to God's Word.

Bibles are almost impossible to find. There are no religious bookstores, churches have very limited supplies, and many families simply cannot afford one. Yet their spiritual hunger is unmistakable. Pastors tell us that when they offer Christian literature for free, people line up on the street to get it!

In 2021, God performed a miracle, and the Cuban government approved a request to put 3ABN Latino programming into El Paquete Semanal—the weekly digital TV package that reaches virtually every home in the nation. Suddenly, more than 11 million Cubans gained access to our life-changing, Christ-centered messages; and today, many who have never stepped inside a church listen to the gospel each week. They write and tell us, "I want to know more," "I want a Bible," or "Where can I find a church?"

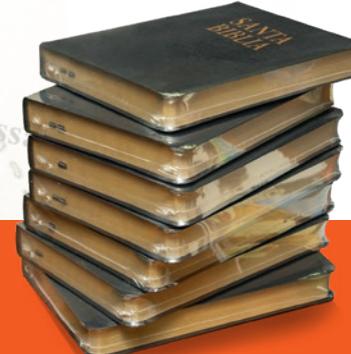

A MOMENT WE CANNOT MISS

In April, 3ABN Latino will be working with Cuban church leaders and 40 area churches to hold a massive evangelistic campaign in the capital city of Havana—and stream it live on 3ABN and 3ABN Latino! To prepare, we are sponsoring 40 Bible workers and equipping them with thousands of new Spanish Bibles, Bible Study Guide sets, and thumb drives containing a wide variety of our Christ-centered programs. Their work will bring people to smaller churches where volunteer speakers will be lifting up our Savior, Jesus Christ. Then, on the final day, this mighty effort will culminate in a mighty "harvest" held in a much larger venue.

Cuba is reaching for hope and our brothers and sisters there are so excited! Won't you join us in praying for the Holy Spirit to be poured out in a mighty way? Your prayers and gifts will shine the light of Jesus into a nation that is longing for Him. ☺

Carob Sweet Potato Mousse

by Megan Wilkens

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large or 2 small sweet potatoes, baked
- 2 Tbsp carob or cocoa powder
- 1 Tbsp coconut oil, melted
- pinch of salt
- pinch of cayenne or cinnamon
- maple syrup or honey to taste
- ¾ cup aquafaba (juice from 1 can chickpeas)
- ½ tsp cream of tartar

DIRECTIONS

1. Allow baked sweet potatoes to cool, then peel and mash them in a bowl with all other ingredients, except aquafaba and cream of tartar.
2. Whip aquafaba and cream of tartar until soft peaks form (like whipped cream). Sweeten if desired. Reserve some for topping.
3. Gently fold whipped aquafaba into the sweet potato mixture.
4. Chill until ready to serve.
5. Top with reserved aquafaba whip and fresh fruit. Serve chilled or enjoy right away.
