Dear 3ABN Family,

Our Summer Camp Meeting is coming soon, and whether it's preparing the complimentary RV and tent campgrounds, speaker and music lineups, or children's meetings, our crews are working hard for you. Our production team is busy with graphic packages and equipment, and our cooks are working on the menus for delicious meals. We are so excited to have you come, and look forward to our fellowship time together. But with all this physical preparation, our main focus is on the spiritual blessings that come with diving deep into God's Word.

I'm excited about our theme, "Courage in the Conflict." Family, we are nearing home—our heavenly home! Now is not the time to lose hope. Now is not the time to cower in a corner. Now is not the time to be preoccupied with the world. Now is not the time to be lukewarm!

Instead, now is the time to hope in Jesus, boldly proclaim the everlasting gospel, and study His Word. Now is the time to stand firmly and courageously in the Final Conflict. Why? Because Jesus is on our side. Praise the Lord!

We can have the courage of Jesus by wholly leaning on Him. But to stand in the midst of immense conflict, we must know why we're standing by studying the Bible and drinking freely of the Living Water of life. We must know Whom we believe, and form a relationship with Jesus, our Friend. So please pray for our Camp Meeting speakers, musicians, all those who plan to attend, and those who will watch it live on 3ABN. Join us in asking for the Holy Spirit to be poured out like never before, and that our hearts will receive strength and courage in the conflict. See you at Camp Meeting June 3-6, 2026!

Seeds for Eternity

by Aunt Francine

Have you ever wondered about your family history from 300 years ago? Did those who came before you ever pause to consider what legacy they were leaving for generations to come? As we grow older, many of us find ourselves reflecting on the “seeds” we have planted—small acts of faith, kindness, and love that may one day blossom in ways we may never see.

At 3ABN Kids Network we encourage children to plant their seeds in the name of Jesus, and our humble prayer is to inspire spiritual growth so their young hearts can sprout for His glory.

Seeds of Inspiration

Last month, our youngest viewers were delighted to record Tiny Tots for Jesus with Miss Cinda and Auntie Linda, discovering simple, yet powerful ways to plant seeds of love, kindness, and joy around the world. We often see how kids are inspiring each other to sharpen and share their talents.

Kids Praise offers another meaningful opportunity for our youth to develop their musical gifts. Many share how they recognize their melodies are not just songs, but blessings—gifts that can uplift and influence their communities. We often witness how one child’s joy in praising God inspires another to do the same, creating a beautiful ripple effect of faith and encouragement.

Music has a unique ability to reach hearts in ways that words alone sometimes cannot. Through song, the Holy Spirit can gently move in places and circumstances where traditional expressions of faith may not always be welcomed. In these moments, seeds are planted quietly and respectfully, opening doors for families, friends, and even strangers to experience God’s love in unexpected, yet very meaningful ways.

Planting Bibles

Spring is a wonderful time to consider which seeds we can plant to last many seasons to come. When we pour our time and energy into planting seeds in good faith, our efforts can have a lasting influence for eternity. One of the greatest needs I see today is placing Bibles into the hands of every child who longs to have one of their own. The need is great, and the stories are deeply moving.

Some children are just learning to read, yet they eagerly ask for a “real” Bible they can call their own and begin to mark and explore. Others share how much they enjoy our Detectives of Truth Bible studies and want to invite their friends to join them, only to discover that those friends do not yet have Bibles of their own.

Receiving your first Bible is a timeless gift that many of us still cherish. It often becomes the seed that sprouts into a lifelong journey of faith, growth, and personal connection with God’s Word. While the need may feel vast and overwhelming, and we may never fully meet every request, we are reminded that every effort does matter.

Like the familiar story of the boy returning starfish to the sea, each small act of compassion makes a difference. One Bible at a time, one child at a time, we can help guide a future rooted in hope and truth.

The more seeds we plant today, the more saplings we will see blossom into something beautiful in the days to come. Will you sow blessings along with us in God’s eternal garden? ☺

Serving God Together

by Bobby Davis

Among the beautiful stories of how God brings people together here at 3ABN, a few stand out. And how God introduced Jonathan and Elizabeth Babb to each other on our campus is one of them!

“I grew up in Oregon, where my dad was a radio engineer,” Jonathan begins. “However, he felt God calling him to 3ABN, and when he discovered they had a church school here, he applied and was hired as 3ABN Radio’s engineer.”

“The Thompsonville Christian School was just starting up back then, so I was part of the first graduating class. But little did I realize how significant that school would be in my future.”

God’s Plan and Guidance

Like many of our workers’ children, Jonathan was hired part-time at 3ABN when he was just a teenager. “I worked in Master Control, and then in our Production Department running a camera,” he says. “While attending Union Adventist University in Nebraska, I did a summer internship in Information Technology at 3ABN. Then after graduation, I returned to work in our Call Center with 3ABN’s online store and print shop. Eventually, I became the Call Center Manager, and in 2018, I accepted the Office Systems Manager position.”

“I’m so grateful for all the different opportunities I’ve had to broaden my skill set and learn how 3ABN operates,” he continues. “And today, I enjoy working with our employees, installing equipment and software, and solving any IT issues they have. As I look back, I can see God’s guidance all along—including me taking all those classes in ethics, general business, and public speaking. They all tie in together.”

Elizabeth tells us she was born and raised in Michigan, near the campus of Andrews University. “I was blessed to have received a Christian education,” she says.

“And although I don’t remember when I first thought about it, I knew I wanted to be a teacher.”

“Just before I graduated from Andrews University, I heard the Thompsonville Christian School was looking for a teacher; so I interviewed with them online and briefly met Jonathan, since he was on the school board. Things went so well that I was offered a job less than 24 hours later!”

When Elizabeth came to visit in person, she got to see the school in session. And that’s when she realized she would have a class made up entirely of girls if she took the job! “I had to smile, because I was one of five sisters in my family, so I was used to it!” she says. “Of course, all the students knew each other, since their parents all worked together at 3ABN, and I thought that was a little different, too.”

Jonathan had admired Elizabeth for a while, but didn’t ask her on a date until February 2024. “I actually asked her over the phone,” he admits, “but things went very well. And I’m happy to say that we were married on June 1, 2025.”

When asked if they’d always known what career they wanted, Jonathan was the first to answer.

“I liked technology, so it wasn’t difficult to choose computer science courses,” he says. “But I didn’t originally want to work at 3ABN right out of college. Instead, I was planning to work at a secular job and then come back to work in ministry at 3ABN. However, God had other plans for my life, and I can say that I’m very happy to be here for as long as He needs me.”

Elizabeth says that although she’d figured out her calling early on, she now prays for God to help her be enough for (Top): Elizabeth’s love for Jesus is evident in her classroom as she helps students build relationships with Him.

her students. “These children are only with me a few hours every day, and there are a lot of spiritual lessons they’ll only learn if I teach them,” she explains. “We don’t always learn those spiritual things at home, so my goal is to help build their walk with God by constantly thinking of ways to teach them what I’ve learned.”

It is obvious that God has chosen this talented couple to join us in working for Him—and we are very blessed to have them as part of our 3ABN family! ☺

Blessings Shared

Since 3ABN's beginning, God has impressed Christians of all faiths to support our mission to reach every nation, tongue, and people with the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ. As a result, Three Angels Broadcasting Network now covers the entire world with television and radio programming; and because of you, countless viewers and listeners find hope, salvation, and encouragement on 3ABN every day.

Responding to the Holy Spirit's call, many of you have given sacrificially—and already partner with 3ABN in evangelism. But many others have enjoyed the blessings of our programs but never felt the joy that comes from working with the Holy Spirit to save souls for God's kingdom.

For those of you who have never given, or for those of you who already give but would like to join this initiative, we invite you to partner with us in 3ABN Evangelism 365. For just $1 a day, you can help keep the gospel on the air around the clock through 3ABN's Christ-centered programs on all of its 15 television and radio networks!

"When you give to Evangelism 365, you help spread the gospel to every corner of the world," says 3ABN Vice President/COO Jill Morikone. "It may reach someone at home who's flipping through channels while earnestly seeking for hope. It may touch someone who's behind bars looking for forgiveness, or maybe someone in the unreached people groups of the 10/40 window who has never even heard about Jesus. 3ABN is entering places we cannot go, bringing the beauty of the gospel and the truth in God's Word to millions. So thank you for being a part of our 3ABN Family!"

Thank you for all you do for the Lord! ☺
