Dear 3ABN Family,

The low steady buzz was unmistakable—there was a bee swarm nearby. Within moments, I saw the large ball of bees, suspended 15 feet up in a cedar tree. The scout bees flew back and forth, trying to find the best place for their colony to call home.

In the middle of the living mass was the queen bee. She is the focus. Wherever she goes, they follow. Carefully climbing a step ladder, I shook the majority of the swarm into a cardboard box and then dumped the mass of bees into an empty beehive. At first, it looked like total chaos with bees flying and crawling around the hive. But then, they started to calm, and what happened next was remarkable: the bees began to march. They turned and marched into the beehive, following the scent of the queen.

As I thought about the swarm of bees marching after the queen's scent, I couldn't help but think of the spiritual lesson. We follow Jesus wherever He goes because we know Him. In Matthew 16:24, Jesus said, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."

When we know His voice, we follow Him. How do we know His voice? By spending time with Jesus in His Word and in prayer! As we spend this important time with Him, our trust deepens and our faith grows stronger.

Following Jesus is not always easy, but we know He will be with us no matter what we face.

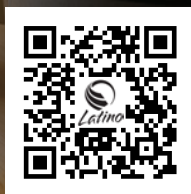

You and I are privileged to be part of the ministry of 3ABN. As the beautiful message of Jesus is shared, viewers and listeners are getting to know who He is and learning how to follow Him. Thank you for helping to make this possible and for being part of the 3ABN family.

And your 3ABN family!

3ABN Latino Spanish Camp Meeting will feature outstanding messages, fellowship, and inspirational music for those who attend in person—and for those who watch our live broadcasts on 3ABN Latino Network.

When we think of evangelism, we often imagine traveling to distant places, organizing outreach programs, or inviting others to church events. Yet in the midst of all this meaningful work, we may overlook the spiritual needs of our own families.

Within our homes, among those who know us best, lies one of the most important mission fields God has entrusted to us.

The First Mission Field

Although we encourage others to attend church, participate in activities, and feel connected to the community of believers, we notice that spiritual growth is not always as strong as we hoped for. One possible reason is that we don't always provide spaces where families can grow together spiritually.

We must also consider the unique needs of singles, young people, parents, and the elderly, too. And how many of us also carry a burden for loved ones who do not yet know the Lord, or who aren't connected to a church community? We ask others to pray for them and hope our efforts will somehow lead them to Christ. But are those efforts truly helping them draw closer to God? Are we ministering within our own homes in a way that allows the Holy Spirit to work in their hearts? Or are we creating barriers instead of bridges?

Families for Heaven

As we reflect honestly on these things, how can we reach our loved ones' hearts? How can we repair mistakes we've made in our attempts to witness to them? And how can we prepare our families—and ourselves—for Heaven?

Preparation for eternity requires surrender, healing, patience, and a willingness to allow God to work in our own hearts first, and that's why our camp meeting theme is Familias para el Cielo: ¡Fuertes en el Señor! (Families for Heaven: Strong in the Lord!)

We live in urgent times, and we must evaluate our spiritual walk and deepen our relationship with the Lord! It's easy to trust someone who shows us kindness and goodwill daily. But trusting God requires faith, especially when His timing is different than our own. That's why Scripture continually reminds us to trust His heart.

Families urgently need a deep relationship of love and trust in Christ. When He becomes the center of our home, healing begins. And that's why our 3ABN Latino Camp Meeting focuses on practical and spiritual principles to strengthen families.

Outstanding presenters include Dr. Samuel Peguero, Director of Family Ministries for the Greater New York Conference; Christian clinical counselor, Dr. Felipe

GROUP PHOTOS: SVETLANA CHRISTIAN

Andino; family life speaker, Dr. Jorge Mayer; and Pastor Luis Orozco, Youth Director and counselor for the Northern Mexican Union. We will also have Esmeralda Guzman, Associate Director of Hispanic Ministries and Director of Women's Ministries for the Southeastern Conference; Jill Morikone, 3ABN Vice President/COO; John Dinzey, General Manager of 3ABN Latino Network, and a video message from Dr. Erton Köhler, President of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. They will address important topics like "God's Original Plan for the Family;" "Marriages Strengthened in the Lord;" and "The Forgiveness that Restores the Family."

Our musical guests include Daniel and Nohemi López, Ben and Abby Castells along with their children and extended family group, Harmony of Truth.

As we reflect on the home as our first mission field, please take a thoughtful look at the spiritual needs of your family and join us in praying for them earnestly and consistently. We are all part of one big family, and God hears every sincere prayer for them. He's given us His only begotten Son so that every member can be saved.

"For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named." Ephesians 3:14–15.

Yes, the call to reach the world for Christ begins much closer than we often realize. It begins at home. ☺

Those of us who work at 3ABN Trinidad & Tobago (3ABNTT) see firsthand that when Christ is lifted up, hearts are touched, lives are transformed, and souls are drawn back to Him. And one of the clearest reminders came the very first night we placed 3ABNTT signage on our ministry pickup truck. While parked at a mall, a man approached us saying, “I’m a backslidden Seventh-day Adventist, but I’d love to be rebaptized.” Within days, he recommitted his life to Christ, and his two children were baptized a few weeks later.

& Tobago’s diverse faith communities. We are uniquely blessed with a culture of love and unity where Muslims, Christians, and Hindus celebrate one another’s festivals. Through these interactions, God’s love becomes tangible, and barriers are softened for the gospel to speak.

This year, during Ramadan, we joined our Muslim brothers and sisters in fasting and parked our ministry pickup in highly visible locations during Iftar, distributing over 100 care packages and sharing 3ABN.tv resources. Over time, our pickup truck and ministry presence have become familiar within that community, opening doors for dialogue, mutual respect, and quiet witness. This is not compromise—it is Christlike engagement, creating space for truth to be received.

Media Leads to Baptisms

3ABN’s reach extends far beyond screens. It enters homes, phones—and hearts. Last December, a viewer named Farouk Hosein requested baptism after watching Pastor John Carter on 3ABN; and a lady named Mary responded to our programming and now worships faithfully at Chase Village Seventh-day Adventist Church!

These testimonies show that media evangelism remains one of the most effective tools for reaching souls in today’s digital age.

Yes, the Holy Spirit works powerfully in everyday spaces, and this is the heartbeat of 3ABNTT—meeting people where they are and pointing them back to Jesus!

Cross-Cultural Evangelism

For over seven years, 3ABNTT has intentionally built bridges across Trinidad

We have distributed over 510,000 tracts of When Light and Darkness Collide: The Great Controversy in just nine months. These resources help people encounter God’s truth in their own homes, on their schedules, and at their points of need.

Ministry in the Marketplace

Last November, God opened a strategic door for 3ABNTT to participate in the American Chamber of Commerce of Trinidad & Tobago Conference and Exhibition. For two days, business leaders, professionals, and entrepreneurs were introduced to 3ABN and its practical value for health, wellness, spiritual encouragement, prayer, and family life. We know that evangelism does not only happen in churches and evangelistic meetings—it happens in boardrooms, lunch areas, and workplaces, where people quietly search for peace, purpose, and hope. By demonstrating Christ’s love in professional spaces, 3ABNTT shows that faith is relevant in every sphere of life.

For over two years, we have also partnered with Dr. Maria Francis and her team at the Health Facility of the Trinidad &

Tobago Police Service (TTPS). Last December, we joined their Christmas Caravan outreach, alongside multi-agency initiatives including Fire Services, Prison Services, Municipal Police, and the Licensing Division. We traveled for six hours, connecting with families, distributing gift packets, and introducing entire communities to 3ABN, as a ministry that genuinely cares about them and their well-being.

Growing the Mission

In January, we joined the ASI Tobago Chapter for the first-ever Advent Expo Convention. We visited schools and distributed 3ABN Kids Network books, including Jesus My Light, and partnered with TTPS in Tobago on road safety and health initiatives in Scarborough. Then, in April, we received our first 40-ft container with 300,000 copies of Can the Christian Church Affirm the LGBTQ+? booklets, which we are now distributing, allowing the gospel to reach thousands of homes in time for Pride Month in June.

Whether through media, outreach, or simple encounters, God reminds us that every soul matters, and that every moment of faithful service has eternal value.

We remain committed to lifting up Jesus—one soul, one family, one community at a time. Please follow us on TikTok, Instagram, and Facebook for updates and connections. 📞

A CALLING AND A PURPOSE

Boris Barrios' family were cable operators in Guatemala City, and although he did not know it, God was planning something big that would change lives for generations to come.

"We'd heard of 3ABN Latino, but adding it to our program lineup was not a priority," he says. "My father just wasn't convinced it was important until a friend persuaded him—a decision that changed the course of our lives.

"I began watching 3ABN Latino and listening to Unión Radio, a local Adventist radio station, and there was something special about them. Through those programs, I began to understand God's love for me. It wasn't merely information. It challenged my whole way of thinking."

Then a missionary named Cecilio Rivera came to his city, and when they met, he invited Boris to study the Bible with him. "I turned him down several times," he says, "but I kept watching and learning from 3ABN's programs. I remember hearing something that profoundly shaped my journey. It was the Reformation teaching of sola scriptura—Latin for 'The Bible Alone.' It means that the Bible is the final and highest authority for the Christian faith; that all teachings, traditions, and doctrines must be tested against Scripture; and that no church authority or tradition is equal to or above it."

BETWEEN DOUBT AND CONVICTION

Boris often found himself debating Cecilio. "I had uncles who were pastors in other denominations, and my best friend was our priest," he recalls. "So our conversations were intense and laden with questions.

"Over time, my doubts about what he said began to dissipate, but when Cecilio and the local Adventist pastor extended the call for me to be baptized, my response was immediate. I said no because I didn't want to give up the things of my youth. I wasn't ready to take that step. However, the Holy Spirit was working in my heart, and 3ABN Latino was a constant instrument in God's hands."

WHEN EVERYTHING CHANGED

One week later, something happened that changed Boris's life forever. During a family trip, the vehicle ahead of them was ambushed, and Boris and his family were caught in the crossfire! "A bullet struck my mother's leg, but didn't puncture her skin. Another bullet grazed my father and lodged in the dashboard. Bullets could have easily struck my sister's legs or my mother's head, and a gunman aimed directly at me—but his bullet missed, too.

"Emerging from that shootout, I had no doubt. My life could have ended in seconds ... and I hadn't answered God's call!

"A few weeks later, I was baptized—not merely as a personal decision, but as an answer to God's call. My friend Manuel Ortiz and I began persuading other cable operators to include 3ABN Latino in their programming so thousands more might hear the message that had transformed our lives. Over time, our efforts grew, and with the support of 3ABN Latino's General Manager John Dinzey, we traveled to Mexico and Colombia, helping to spread the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 throughout Latin America! What began as a personal experience evolved into a movement with regional impact."

Over the years, God has allowed Boris to serve in media, ministry, non-governmental organizations, international cooperatives, and public service. "One of those paths led me to the Hogar Adventista Los Pinos (Los Pinos Adventist Home), where I met my wife," he says. "Now she works in public service, caring for children who have been victims of human trafficking; and amidst complex circumstances, we also began serving the Jewish community during a legal crisis.

"As time went on, I finally grasped something fundamental: When God thinks of you, He doesn't merely see you. He sees your generations. His love is not confined to the present, but also extends to those who will come into existence as a result of those decisions.

"There was a time when we were unable to have children, and it was difficult for us. But God, in His grace, gifted us with a next generation, and we came to understand that this was not solely about us, but about a spiritual legacy—a continuity of service.

"Today, I see it clearly," Boris concludes. "What began with a sign was no coincidence—it was purpose. For with God, no calling is momentary—it is always generational."

We praise God for Boris and his dedication and service to the Lord! Our God is faithful to every generation of His people, and He promises that His Spirit and Word will remain with them. "As for Me," says the Lord, "this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants' descendants," says the Lord, "from this time and forevermore" (Isaiah 59:21). ☺

GOD Sees OUR NEED

“It shall come to pass that before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear.”
Isaiah 65:24

Sometimes, we're presented with a problem we cannot ignore—and this was one of those times. Moses Primo, our 3ABN Director of Broadcasting and Engineering, had just come to our president's office with an important issue.

“Greg, one of our cameras just failed,” Moses began, “and this time, we're not going to be able to fix it. This camera has been used continuously for the last 13 or 14 years, it's long past its service life, and unfortunately, we cannot find parts for it anymore.

“But the problem is even more serious” he continued, “because all the other cameras in our studios have been in service just as long, and even the manufacturer says they can't be fixed because of their age.”

As 3ABN's President, Greg Morikone knew this problem could not be ignored. But the first thing God reminded him of was that He had this ministry in His hands.

“As reality sank in, it was crystal clear that we needed new cameras,” he says. “We have the best programming—new children's programs, our 3ABN Sabbath School Panel, Worship Hour, and brand-new 3ABN Today Extra. But without video it all stops. Cameras are not extras; they're essential. But we didn't have the funds to replace them. The need was obvious, and we had to start looking for an answer. But before we could even begin to figure out what to do, God already had a solution!”

GOD'S TIMING

Just a week later, a remarkable thing happened. “We'd begun to pray earnestly about this when I got a text message from a viewer,” Greg recalls. “He asked what our current projects were, and I immediately thought of our need for new cameras. By the time I finished telling him about it, he and his family were all in, and he felt impressed to give 3ABN $100,000 in matching funds—specifically for new cameras and control room equipment!

“For a moment I was stunned,” Greg admits, “as I thought back to my previous conversation with Moses. God's timing was perfect!”

This donor, his wife, and two daughters are a mission-minded family who love the Lord with all their hearts. He's a successful engineer and businessman, but more importantly, he felt directly impressed by God to support the vision and mission of 3ABN.

BLESSED AND MULTIPLIED

Here's what makes this opportunity special: Matching funds mean that every gift—no matter what size—is automatically doubled. Whether the gift is $10 or $1,000, it's matched. Multiplied. Expanded beyond what each donor could have done. And matching funds don't just bring in large gifts. They bring many hearts together. Each gift that's given in faith becomes something far greater.

“God knew our challenge,” Greg says, “and He'd already prepared a solution before we even fully understood our need. That's how He works. It reminds me of the miracle story recorded in John 6 of the five barley loaves and two small fish. Jesus didn't wait until there was enough. He blessed what was there first—and then it multiplied. And that's what we're seeing now.

“Through the years, I've seen God provide for this ministry, and I'm always humbled,” Greg continues. “Each time, my faith is strengthened and renewed, and I'm deeply encouraged as I watch how God provides for His work. In the end, it's not us. He uses people—people like you—to accomplish His work. He takes what's given and multiplies it in ways we never could.

“We continue to pray earnestly about the direction God wants us to go. Our message—the three angels' messages of Revelation 14—will never change. But how we share it matters. We want to stay in God's will every step of the way. God, help me be in tune with You is my prayer every day. And once again, He's shown us that He is faithful!”
