PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

What a Holy Spirit-filled time we experienced at our 3ABN Summer Camp meeting! The sermon topics were timely as they centered on the theme, “Courage in the Conflict.” What inspiring Bible study, meaningful prayer, uplifting music, and precious fellowship. Thank you for coming to camp meeting—especially those who came for the first time! Our RV park was full, plus over 60 tents dotted the grounds. Activity could be seen everywhere, including a record number of young people in our children’s meetings. To be together as 3ABN family—and ultimately part of God’s family—is so encouraging.

I want to personally invite you to join us for 3ABN’s Fall Homecoming Camp Meeting, September 24–26. This year’s theme focuses on the Seventh-day Sabbath, a subject that Bible prophecy indicates will be central to the closing events of Earth’s history. Charlie Kirk’s death and his book on the Sabbath have once again made it a topic of public conversation.

Friends, time on this earth is wrapping up. Jesus is about to come again. Are we ready? I encourage you to study God’s Word, draw closer to Him each day, and make plans now to join us for this special Homecoming Camp Meeting. Let’s prepare for His coming together!

OUT OF THE SHADOWS

3ABN Women's Conference

by Bobby Davis

We are excited to announce that our very first 3ABN Women's Conference will be held from November 6–8 in Edinburg, Texas!

"As women, we were never created to live in the shadows," says Jill Morikone, 3ABN Vice President/COO. "And if you've been carrying burdens in silence, feeling spiritually dry, wrestling with disappointment, or pouring into everyone else while neglecting your own soul, then I hope you'll join us for this amazing weekend.

"Our theme is 'Out of the Shadows,' and we'll be looking at the stories of biblical women who refused to let their past define their future. No matter what your trauma has been, you will be able to step out of fear, discouragement, exhaustion, and hidden pain into the healing, freedom, and light found only in Jesus Christ."

Powerful Speakers

This will be a weekend of powerful insights and personal testimonies. You'll be blessed and inspired by well-known speakers and presenters like Jill Morikone, Shelley Quinn, Risë Rafferty, Yvonne Shelton, Sandralee Perryman-Mars, Tamara Conway, Melody Mason, and Blessings Winn. Each of them brings their powerful spiritual insights and experience to their topic, creating a comprehensive message that will empower you and sustain you long after the conference ends!

Register Today

Online registration is required and seats are limited, so be sure to visit our website, 3ABNWomensConference.com today. There you will find information on airports, hotels, and meals, including how to find a roommate through our private attendee group chat.

Remember, this is more than a conference. This is an invitation to come out of the shadows and into God's marvelous light. ☺

What a wonderful time it is when our 3ABN Family gets together for Homecoming Camp Meeting. And this year, we hope you can with us in person from September 24–26 as we focus on our theme, “Sabbath: Rest, Relationship, Redemption.”

“The Sabbath is more than a day on the calendar—it is God’s weekly invitation to step out of the rush of life and into His presence,” says 3ABN Program Development Manager/Producer Shelley Quinn.

“In the Sabbath we find rest for our bodies, relationship with our Creator, and redemption through Christ, who restores what sin has stolen. Our theme calls us back to the beauty of God’s original design—a sacred time set apart for love, worship, and renewal.

“We hope you’ll join us as we explore the Sabbath from Eden to eternity as God’s holy gift of sacred time calling us to rest in His grace, deepen our relationship with Christ, and stand as His redeemed covenant people.”

Jill Morikone, 3ABN Vice President/COO agrees. “The Sabbath is truly a gift in the life of the believer, a time to experience His salvation rest, straight from our Creator God,” she says. “We are looking forward to this time in the Word, to strengthen and fortify our minds in these last days. Come experience the fellowship and renewal that God alone can give!”

A Family Event

Many have described our Homecoming Camp Meeting as a joyful family reunion!

In addition to the inspiring messages and music, we provide delicious free meals, engaging programs for kids of all ages, and free camping and RV sites.

We also have tours of our studios and plenty of time to fellowship with old friends—or make some new ones! For more information, including a list of local hotels in the area, just visit 3ABNCamp-Meeting.org. And if you’re planning to camp or stay in your RV, please call us at 618-627-4651 to reserve your free spot.

We can’t wait to see you, but maybe you can’t be here in person this time. If that’s the case, then you can still be with us in spirit by watching us live on 3ABNPlus.tv or the 3ABN+ app. What a wonderful family homecoming this will be! ☺

Blessed by Your Words

What joy we feel when we receive letters and comments from our 3ABN Family—and I’m sure you can see why!

Martha writes, “I appreciate your ministry outreach, because even though I can’t go to these places, you can—and as a donor, I become a part of that outreach. I love your programs, your study groups, and all your live broadcasts. I wish I could come to your camp meetings, but I can’t drive that far anymore. I’m so glad to be a part of the 3ABN Family, though. Love you all!”

After watching Mending Broken People: The 3ABN Miracle Story, Jane writes: “Amen! To God be all the glory! This ministry has been a mighty blessing to me since I got baptized in 2021. Last year, we got 3ABN literature to share with over 1,200 people in just two days! I’m looking forward to doing even more this year by God’s grace!”

Peter writes the following to our 3ABN Australia office: “I just finished reading The Great Controversy book you sent to me. I want to re-read it so I can get even more from it. I was given a copy of it years ago, but I didn’t understand it, especially the part about the Reformation. But this time I understood it.”

Susi, who also lives in Australia, writes: “Here is some money for your ministry. Everything is happening in earnest now. The final events will be rapid, so stand for Jesus always. I’m praying for you all every day—and for 3ABN America, too!”

And finally, Jake says, “My mother was delighted to meet Greg and Jill face-to-face recently. She still talks about it, so a big thank you for the visit! I’ve told my mother, as well as family and friends, that 3ABN is not like other organizations. Every time I’ve visited, I’ve been impressed with how earnest everyone who works there is. The folks are committed to preaching the pure gospel and are living examples of how Christians should treat each other. My visits to 3ABN have always been very positive, and ... like the song Danny often sings, ‘Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place.’ Thank you for your hard work and commitment to finishing God’s work; may He bless you above and beyond your hopes and desires.” ☺

We’ve heard many amazing stories of how God reaches people in unusual ways. But this one is particularly interesting because it’s a story about how God interrupted someone’s life in a very unique way.

A man we’ll call Mark and his roommate were not walking with God, and one night, as they sat drinking and getting high, they started looking for something to watch on TV. Bored with their limited options, they decided it would be a great idea to steal their neighbor’s cable to get free movie channels; so they snuck into his yard and spliced into his cable TV wire!

At first, they were delighted with all the channels. But they had actually gotten a lot more than they bargained for, because among the new channels was one called 3ABN. At first they laughed at what they saw, but something he heard that night stuck with Mark, and soon he was watching that channel more and more.

Yes, God was speaking to his heart, and even under the influence of drugs and alcohol, Mark kept watching 3ABN for hours at a time! First, he learned about the Sabbath and the Seventh-day Adventist faith. Then he learned about the importance of living a life that honors God—and slowly, his life began to change.

The Holy Spirit got through to his heart, and as he soaked in the Christ-centered programming, he came to believe that God could transform his life and give him victory over his addictions.

Those truths convicted and converted him; so he found a Seventh-day Adventist church, and was baptized.

IT GETS BETTER!

But this story gets even better! Imagine how surprised we were when Mark came by our 3ABN booth at a GYC Conference and told us his amazing story.

“I want to tell you what God has done in my life—and how He used 3ABN to do it!” he exclaimed. “What began as a midnight cable hack turned into a divine intervention that changed my life forever. And now I have a ministry of my own!”

Mark’s story reminds us of the often-quoted Bible text that says, “For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope” (Jeremiah 29:11). There’s no place too low for God to reach us. Apparently, you can steal truth—but you’ll run the risk of God’s love setting you free! ☺

God's Word Brings Freedom

Those who find themselves behind bars often have lost their freedom through a painful combination of poor choices, criminal activity, and addiction. Yet incarceration does not have to be the end of hope or even transformation. In the midst of confinement, God's Word speaks peace, purpose, and a new beginning to many who would never consider reading the Bible any other way.

That is why 3ABN is committed to placing Remnant Study Bibles into the hands of inmates who request them—offering them the invitation to discover lasting freedom in Christ, even within their prison walls.

The sad reality is that most prisoners are eventually abandoned by their families, and at their lowest point, many of them cry out to God in despair. What a privilege it is to bring them the hope of salvation!

Our 3ABN Prison Ministries team receives thousands of letters and requests for Study Bibles and study guides. They answer their Bible questions and offer Christ-like compassion, encouragement, and hope. At times, while reading those letters, our team members stop in awe and wonder as they see how God uses these precious materials to bring the love of Jesus into such dark places.

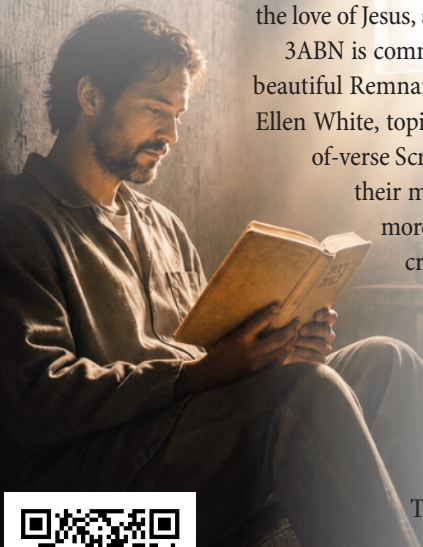

J. D. Quinn, 3ABN's Pastoral Ministries Manager, says, "I'm often reminded of John 17:3 that says, 'And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.' We help by gifting many with their first Study Bible, by providing excellent 3ABN Bible Study Guides for their learning, and other Christian literature to help develop their spiritual maturity. Our team has a heart to help those behind bars to know the love of Jesus, and what a blessing it is to work with them!"

3ABN is committed to providing inmates who request one with a beautiful Remnant Study Bible, complete with in-text comments by Ellen White, topical chain references, and thousands of helpful end-of-verse Scripture notes. It also has a guide to Bible symbols and their meanings, a year-long Bible reading guide, and many more features. We often hear from inmates who tell us they cried with joy when they received their beautiful Bible!

Jesus puts infinite value on each precious soul, and He blesses every effort we make to reach those who are so desperately looking for Him. Your generous support of 3ABN Prison Ministries enables us to continue sending the precious Word of God to them, bringing them true freedom in Christ.

Thank you for all you do for these forgotten ones. ☺

#136 - Prison Ministry

Natural Law

by Risë Rafferty, M.S., RDN

Jesus wants to fulfill the Great Commission through His believers, promising that "they will lay hands on the sick and they will recover" (Mark 16:18). But He also warned that in the Last Days, there would be great signs and wonders the enemy would use to deceive (Matthew 24:24). Great wonders—and yes, even miracles—will be performed to deceive them that dwell on the earth (Revelation 13:13–14). "It was by the display of supernatural power, in making the serpent his medium, that Satan caused the fall of Adam and Eve in Eden. Before the close of time he will work still greater wonders. So far as his power extends, he will perform actual miracles. Says the Scripture: 'He ... deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do,' not merely those which he pretends to do. Something more than mere impostures is brought to view in this scripture. But there is a limit beyond which Satan cannot go, and here he calls deception to his aid and counterfeits the work which he has not power actually to perform."¹

We have been warned. The deceiver will work miracles of healing to counterfeit our Savior's ministry. One of the ways we will be able to discern between the true and the deceptive, and experience true healing power, will be in its connection to natural law. The laws of nature are at operation in nature, including our own being, but do not exist apart from their Author. "... He is continually working through them, using them as His instruments."² They express God's continual governance and provide insight into His design. The laws of nature include the laws of health, and they are real and reliable. God works through natural law in the healing process, and aligning our lives with them is one of the means He uses to heal.

Living in harmony with natural law is not a performative, legalistic checklist in the Christian experience. It's the path to experiencing God's miracle-working power in our lives. ☺

"God works through natural law in the healing process, and aligning our lives with them is one of the means He uses to heal."
