PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

As a child, we had a one-hour drive to church in the quiet town of Williamson, West Virginia each Sabbath. As we drove through the winding mountain roads, past steep hillsides, rushing creeks, and breathtaking views, my parents played children's Bible programs on the cassette player, filling the car with songs and stories that prepared our hearts for worship.

My younger sister and I were blessed with wonderful Sabbath School teachers who brought Bible stories to life and helped lay a spiritual foundation that has stayed with me ever since. And when we returned home, my parents continued to make the Sabbath a delight with Bible games, nature walks, inspiring storybooks, and family worship that made us eagerly anticipate God's holy day.

What makes the Sabbath so special? At Creation, Jesus blessed the seventh day, sanctified it, and set it apart as a perpetual reminder that He is our Creator and Redeemer. Along with marriage, the Sabbath is one of two institutions established in Eden before sin entered the world. It is no surprise, then, that Satan has worked tirelessly to undermine both.

As we approach Earth's final events, worship will once again become the central issue, just as Revelation 13 and 14 foretold. Every person will ultimately answer the question: Whom will I worship? And that's why we will be focusing on the Sabbath during 3ABN's Homecoming Camp Meeting, from September 24–26. Charlie Kirk's final book has renewed interest in this important subject, but God's Word has always pointed us to the beauty and blessing of His holy Sabbath. So join us—either in person or on 3ABN—as we celebrate the beauty of God's Sabbath and discover why it remains such a vital part of His plan for His people today. We look forward to welcoming you to 3ABN!

Greg Morikone

It was late afternoon during the heart of summer in southern Illinois, where both teachers and students were assembled around the church baptistry. The Sabbath hours were closing and it was the perfect conclusion to another session of the 3ABN School of Discipleship (SOD).

The smiling pastor, along with an on-fire brother for whom we had been earnestly praying, stood prominently together in the clear and lightly undulating waters, their baptismal robes billowing beneath the glassy surface. When the pastor raised his hand heavenward, many among the assembly likewise raised their hands in solemn gestures of solidarity. There was a declaration, a pause, and then, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the pastor immersed the teary-eyed brother under the water and brought him forth newly born! Another precious life was changed, praise God!

As you read that little account, does your heart return to the moment when the Lord changed your life? Mine certainly does. Are you moved in spirit? I certainly am. There is something powerful about witnessing a baptism, isn't there? It reminds us that the gospel is not merely a message to be discussed, but "the power of God unto salvation" (Romans 1:16). It reminds us of how Heaven rejoices when one sinner repents, and that every prayer, Bible study, sermon, testimony, and faithful act of service may be used by God to lead someone to Christ. Testimonies of revival and baptism are confirmation of the Holy Spirit's effectiveness upon the human heart. When we witness one, we are encouraged and galvanized, and the light of truth seems to shine upon us anew!

OUR PASSION AND OUR MISSION

But the world is still in the dark. People are desperate for revival. They still need to know that there is victory in Jesus, which is why in Matthew 28:19–20, Jesus instructed His disciples to teach them! And so we must. This is the passion of Three Angels Broadcasting Network; indeed, this is what 3ABN is all about.

From its beginning, 3ABN has recognized its calling to proclaim the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. In a world crowded with confusion and counterfeit teachings, sharing the truth of God's Word still brings conviction, healing, freedom, and hope. So, at Christ's command, 3ABN's clear directive is to proclaim God's undiluted truth to this world.

But the mission has never been confined to what happens in a studio, on a platform, or behind a pulpit: for while we deeply value the work of pastors, evangelists, teachers, Bible workers, and ministry leaders, we also believe the commission to share the gospel belongs to the entire body of Christ. God calls church members, Sabbath School teachers, small-group leaders, young people, families, and faithful believers in every walk of life to carry His truth into homes, workplaces, neighborhoods, churches, and communities.

3ABN helps to make that possible by providing access to Bible-teaching, sermons, testimonies, music, and other evangelism-centered materials. These resources have strengthened believers and supported evangelistic work around the world. They have entered homes, churches, prisons, hospitals, classrooms, and places we may never personally see.

MORE EVANGELISTIC TOOLS

Now, with prayer and careful planning, we are seeking to expand that part of the ministry even further. We want to place more practical evangelistic tools into the hands of those who are willing to work. That may include teaching resources, Bible-study materials, Sabbath School aids, digital tools, ministry kits, and other resources designed to help believers to clearly and faithfully share the truth. Our desire is to support the Work by helping willing laborers to become more effective wherever the Lord has planted them.

Of course, this movement requires prayer, commitment, and resources, which is why we are deeply grateful for every person who supports this ministry. But in this moment, we simply want to praise God for His mercy, for people are hearing the truth, lives are being changed, and brothers and sisters are being baptized!

"OUR DESIRE IS TO SUPPORT THE WORK ..."

Each time someone enters the waters of baptism, or makes a commitment to Christ, it strengthens our resolve to be ready, to help others get ready, and to use every means God places in our hands to proclaim His final message of mercy. We are confident you feel the same, so let's continue to work together in the Lord's vineyard.

This is the mission. This is evangelism. And through His strength, for His glory, and in His name, this is what we do. ☺

TWO STORIES. One Mission.

Diego and Hannah Antonio came from different worlds, but God was weaving their stories together long before they met. Through different cultures, languages, and life experiences, He prepared them for a shared mission—and for each other.

Diego's Journey

Diego grew up in Minas Gerais, Brazil. His parents were non-practicing Catholics, but his grandmother took him to mass and taught him the rosary. “As a kid, I wanted to be a priest,” he recalls. “But by the time I reached my teens, I’d lost all interest in religion, and wanted nothing to do with God.

“Then two major events happened. First, my parents were in a terrible car accident and I thought I would lose my mom,” he says. “I remember promising God that if He would spare her life, I’d change mine. That same year, I lost my grandmother, and those painful experiences, along with disappointing friendships, left me depressed and questioning my purpose in living.

“Then, I remembered the faith of my childhood, and decided to give God another chance. I went back to the Catholic Church, but came away empty, so I tried other churches, but I just couldn’t find the peace I was looking for. Some churches preached the ‘prosperity gospel,’ while others were all about casting out demons. Since I couldn’t find answers in Christianity, I eventually thought about attending the local spiritist center to see if I could communicate with the dead, but God stepped in before I got into that!”

At the time, Diego’s brother-in-law was studying the Seventh-day Adventist beliefs and shared an Ellen White book with him. “It was called Final Events,” he says, “and the cover artwork was amazing! It had an illustration of Jesus surrounded by soldiers, laser-shooting robots, satellites, and even flying saucers! I really thought it was a science-fiction book, so I read it in one day.”

As he read, his eyes were opened to the signs of the times, biblical prophecy, and the Second Coming of Jesus. He was discovering truths he’d never known before. “The Bible was full of warnings and prophecies!” he exclaims, “and I couldn’t argue with any of it because it came right out of the Bible!”

After his baptism, Diego attended the Latin American Adventist Seminary and prepared for missionary service. He learned English in Guyana and then traveled to the Amazing Facts College of Evangelism (AFCOE Europe) in Portugal. And that’s where he met Hannah!

Hannah's Journey

Hannah’s life was shaped by her parent’s mission service. “They had served in Belize, Peru, and China, where I was conceived, but Mom came back to Canada for my birth,” she says. “Then, when I was about two, they answered a call to Guyana, and after that, we moved here to 3ABN.

“My dad was really good with languages,” Hannah continues. “So we mixed them all up at home. My younger brother and I were homeschooled, and that’s when I discovered I had a gift for languages.

“My first language was French, inspired by my love of Jacques Cousteau films and books, but I also was fascinated with the Finnish, Norwegian, Lithuanian, and Icelandic languages. At age 13, I was diagnosed with a severe form of arthritis, and the pain and challenges of that illness led to difficult emotional seasons. But language learning was a source of relief, as I connected with people around the world.”

When she was 18, Hannah spent a year working with Mieux Vivre (Better Living) TV in Quebec, Canada. And later, at her mother’s urging, she enrolled in AFCOE Europe—where she met Diego.

After AFCOE, she returned to the United States, but he remained in Portugal, working in a missionary restaurant project. Then when COVID-19 came along, God opened another door for him to direct an English immersion school in the Amazon. “Our country has a huge workforce of young people, but many of them can’t speak English, which is helpful for serving in the world mission field,” Diego explains.

“Our program needed a native English speaker, and Hannah was the one who agreed to come.”

Their Journey Together

Over the next ten months, their friendship grew into something deeper. “I loved teaching,” Hannah recalls, “and I had great students. Later, after attending the Generation. Youth. Christ. (GYC) convention in Brazil together, we began to realize that our relationship was changing, and that’s when I realized I had feelings for him, too.”

After two years of a long-distance relationship, Diego finally received a visa to come to the United States, and they were married in May of 2024.

Today, Diego serves as 3ABN Guest Relations Coordinator, scheduling the studios, inviting guests, arranging for guest housing and production needs. Hannah continues her ministry work with 3ABN Français Network while enjoying her music and her painting.

Together, Diego and Hannah have a passion for reaching Portuguese-speaking audiences. They give Bible studies, help translate 3ABN programs, and oversee Portuguese outreach through YouTube.

“We both have a tremendous burden to reach young people,” Diego says. “And perhaps God will open a door for ministry in Brazil someday. But although we’d love to return to Brazil someday, we’re happy to serve together wherever God leads.”

Once again we see that God is always working behind the scenes—preparing hearts, developing gifts, and bringing people together for His purpose. ☺

“We’re happy to serve together wherever God leads.”

What Is YOUR Story?

We are so blessed when you write and tell us how God touched your life through 3ABN's ministry. Over the years, we've heard many stories of how God reached through the fear and despair to bring hope and salvation to His children. And from time to time, we receive special stories—like this one from Lois.

We Matter to God

Lois had been searching for answers for many years. As she moved from church to church, she knew she wasn't hearing the truth she so desperately needed. "The devil had me so twisted up in lies," she recalls, "and to make matters worse, I was really scared because I had just escaped a bad relationship but didn't know anyone where I was staying."

"As I sat out in the yard, the tears flowed as I cried, 'God, what do I do? I don't know anyone!' And suddenly, I heard a Voice saying, You have camping gear!"

Lois quickly put her few belongings in storage, then went to a local campground and stayed there until they closed for the winter. "I lived in a tent for six months with my three dogs," she recalls, "and then moved into a friend's place for a while. Then I found an RV for $500, and drove it over the mountains to a trailer court."

When she arrived, she went through the cabinets and found a small purple clock radio. It seemed to work, so she tried tuning in a radio station.

"As God would have it, the only radio station that came in was 3ABN," she says, "and the very minute I heard Pastor John Lomacang speak, the Holy Spirit jumped inside me like John the Baptist did in his mother's womb! I knew I was finally hearing the truth!"

Lois says that from that moment on, she was on a mission. "My prayers were answered when I found my local Seventh-day Adventist Church, and I've been there ever since," she says. "3ABN Radio started me on my journey home!"

Lois prays constantly for the spreading of the gospel. "And I am pursuing those who think they don't matter, because we all do!" she exclaims.

Yes, God will use anything—even a purple clock radio—to reach His children with hope and salvation. ☺

The Blessings of Connecting

At 3ABN, our viewers and listeners are much more than an audience—they're our family! Through television, radio, streaming, and other digital platforms, we share the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ with millions of people around the world. Yet as wonderful as those connections are, nothing compares to seeing you in person—shaking hands, worshipping together, and hearing what the Lord is doing in your life.

That's why many of our 3ABN presenters are delighted to travel to churches, camp meetings, and special events across the country. It warms our heart to share the inspiring stories of how God is using 3ABN to reach people, provide updates on how the ministry is expanding, and encourage you to share Jesus with those around you. It's a chance to connect in person and thank you for your faithful prayers and support of this ministry.

Just as importantly, it gives us a chance to speak to those who are new to your congregation, or who have just started attending your outreach events, showing them how they can watch or listen to our Christ-centered programming and get daily inspiration as they take their first steps to developing a lifelong relationship with Jesus.

We Are Blessed, Too

Of course, these trips are always a blessing to those of us in ministry, too. We love hearing your testimonies and learning how God has worked in your life. We look forward to praying with you and enjoying the sweet fellowship that comes with serving the same Master. While technology helps us reach the world, relationships are what make ministry personal.

If your church would like to host a 3ABN speaker, we'll be honored to visit. Whether it's for a Sabbath service, a revival, camp meeting, evangelistic series, or any another special event, we'd love the opportunity to connect with you and your church. Just email Bobbi.Lingle@3ABN.org or call us at (618) 627-4651. We hope to see you soon! ☺

FAITH COMES by Hearing

We marvel at how God has made it possible for the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 to reach the hundreds of millions of Russian-speaking people through our 3ABN Russia Network. In addition to satellite and internet coverage, 3ABN Russia's programming is now widely available in thousands of cities and towns across that vast country on increasing numbers of broadcast stations and cable TV systems. Our digital ministry continues to grow, as well, and every one of our social media channels continues to gain new subscribers.

God's Promise—and Blessing

The Bible says, "So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Romans 10:17), and we cling passionately to that promise! By God's grace, 3ABN Russia has now produced over 16,000 TV programs in 165 series, and their radio ministry now has more than 13,000 programs in 131 series. From the very first broadcast, the response has been tremendous; and to date, our 3ABN Russia Call Center has received nearly 127,000 letters, emails, and phone calls from those who seek spiritual guidance. As a result, more than 61,000 Bibles, over 16,000 copies of Steps to Christ, thousands of Bible study guides for adults and children, magazines, and other Christian literature have been mailed out—more than a quarter-million pieces in all!

Remarkably, this has all been done by a small staff of just over thirty dedicated workers who have chosen to dedicate themselves to help others find salvation and peace through Jesus Christ.

Our world is searching for hope, and God continues to open doors for the gospel to reach the Russian-speaking world. We are grateful for the opportunities He places before us. But we never forget that every broadcast, Bible, study guide, and message of hope is made possible only through your prayers and faithful financial support. Thank you for being part of this ministry, and for helping us share God's love with those who may never hear it any other way. ☺
