PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

In our early days of broadcasting, a man in our local area became deeply upset—with God and Christianity. Knowing that 3ABN was proclaiming the gospel by satellite from a nearby uplink, he decided to do something about it.

Aiming his pickup truck directly at our 30-foot satellite dish, he intended to smash into the base and knock us off the air. Mashing his accelerator, he headed straight for the dish, but suddenly, his truck came to an abrupt stop just a few feet from its target. Startled, he backed up and tried again. But just before reaching the dish, the truck abruptly stopped again. Just as before, God's unseen hand had intervened.

But God wasn't finished! That experience shook the man so deeply that he decided he'd better visit our local church—and before long, he'd given his heart to Jesus!

Think about that. 3ABN was making an impact in his life even as he was trying to knock us off the air. It was a setup—a setup by God!

I know you'll especially enjoy this issue of 3ABN World. It's filled with stories of lives changed because of 3ABN's reach around the world. But remember, we cannot stay on the air without the Lord—or without you! We are not subsidized by any outside source. Instead, God has chosen to accomplish His work through people like you.

Jesus said, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few" (Matthew 9:37). You can be a laborer for Him by supporting 3ABN and helping us take the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ to the world.

Whether you've supported 3ABN for many years or have just begun giving, thank you! Because of your support, the gospel continues to reach hearts around the world, and lives are being changed for eternity every day.

Greg Morikone
3ABN President

DIVINE "COINCIDENCE"

PHOTO SUPPLIED

Three Angels Broadcasting Network has a mission to mend broken people. Working with the Holy Spirit, we bring hope to the hopeless, freedom to the captives, and the promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ. Here are some of the marvelous stories of how divine "coincidence" has brought about mental restoration and a life of abundant joy!

SPARED LIVES

As 3ABN Founder Danny Shelton and Pastor Mark Finley waited to come onto the platform of a conference in the Caribbean, a young man approached them.

"I just want you to know that 3ABN saved my life!" he said—and a few minutes later, he was sharing his story with the audience.

"One night, eight months ago, I decided to take my life," he said. "But as I got up in the dark to overdose on pills, I knocked my remote control off the chair. It hit the floor and somehow turned on my TV to 3ABN!

"I was watching Danny and Pastor Mark on a 3ABN Today Live program, when suddenly, he looked straight at me and said, 'Friend, if you're contemplating suicide, don't do it. Jesus loves you!'

"Well, I had no doubt that he was speaking to me. I was ready to kill myself, but God used your program to show me that my life mattered. That night, I surrendered to Jesus. Thank you for saving my life!"

That man had never watched 3ABN. He was not raised in this faith. But today, he is a Seventh-day Adventist pastor!

Another amazing story comes from Colombia, where a man we'll call Carlos felt devastated by the news that his leg would have to be amputated in order to save his life. After surgery, he struggled to recover, but fell into a deep depression. Tension grew at home, and then there was more bad news: if his health didn't improve, he would lose his other leg, too!

Things got so bad that his wife left him, and Carlos decided he'd be better off dead. He tried to rent a gun from a friend but was told it wouldn't be available for a week. I can't even rent a gun to kill myself! Carlos thought.

As you can imagine, he couldn't sleep that night, and found himself watching

3ABN Latino. He watched all night—and by morning, he'd given his life to the Lord!

Carlos began attending a Seventh-day Adventist church and was soon baptized. Then 3ABN Latino helped him change his diet, and soon his doctor said, "I don't know what you're doing, but you've improved to the point that we don't have to take your leg after all!"

The story gets even better, though, because someone from his new church gave him a cart to start a small business—and his wife came back to him, too!

A NEW PURPOSE

And then there's Pauletta's story. She worked hard and raised two wonderful sons on her own. But just after her oldest son graduated from high school, he was brutally shot by gang members while riding home on his bicycle.

"His death was devastating," she recalls, "and the only relief I felt was when I was singing in my church choir. Praising God was the only thing I could do to lessen my grief so I could get back to work and raise my youngest son."

Later, that son joined the Navy during Desert Storm, got married, and had three children. But after serving two more tours in Iraq with the National Guard, he returned home with PTSD.

One day, Pauletta noticed she had two voicemails. "The first was from my son, saying: 'Mom, I tried to be a good father and a good son. May the Lord rest my soul.' I immediately called him back, but got no reply, so I listened to the second message from the policeman who found my son's body next to his brother's grave.

"I was so angry with myself for not knowing more about PTSD. All I could do was pray and feel guilty, so eventually, I decided to move away."

During her drive, Pauletta asked the Holy Spirit to stay with her, and suddenly, she noticed a bird flying beside her car for the longest time. "It was like a sign, and it comforted me," she says.

Arriving in her new city, she began searching for a church home; and one day, she noticed a Seventh-day Adventist Church. She also began watching a local TV station broadcasting 3ABN!

"I remember thinking, I wish I could find a church that believes like this. And just then, the address for that very church popped up on my screen!"

Pauletta called that number and the pastor was very kind and introduced her to a family who had also lost a child to suicide. They became friends, invited her to study the Bible with them, and soon she was rebaptized and joined their church.

"My son's suicide really shook my faith, but it didn't turn me away from God," she says. "I felt like I'd lost my mind—but now the Lord gave me a new one, and I watch for opportunities to help others who have had to deal with suicide."

Thank you for helping us in bringing hope and salvation to millions every day. What a privilege it is to work with God in the miracle of restoration!

SPIRITUAL RESTORATION

Prophecy Comes Alive

PHOTO SUPPLIED

Sometimes, in the darkest moments of life, God will use an unexpected message to awaken a heart that has grown distant from Him. For Michael and José, that message came through Bible prophecy on 3ABN, as God patiently led them toward something they desperately needed.

Recognizing Truth

As Michael grew up, his parents taught him good morals and took him to church every week. But the Bible never came alive for him, and by the time he was in college, his confidence had turned into pride. He began to smoke, drink, use drugs, and live an immoral life.

"Oh, I still prayed," he says, "but mostly it was for good grades and for a girl to like me. Honestly, my prayers were all about me," he admits.

"Then my father bought one of those huge satellite dishes that took up most of the back yard, and among the channels he discovered 3ABN. He liked Pastor Doug Batchelor so much that he ordered his videotapes, never realizing how dramatically that channel and those tapes would change his son's life.

"Then came one of the coldest winters ever," he says, "and it had nothing to do with the snow. Everything I'd trusted in seemed to collapse, but pride kept me from reaching out to anyone. One afternoon, I played one of my father's tapes where Pastor Doug explained how Bible prophecy had predicted the timing of Christ's baptism and crucifixion centuries in advance. The Bible is real! I thought. And that means I'm in trouble!"

But thankfully, the message ended with God's grace and love, and Michael fell to his knees and accepted Jesus into his heart. His addictions did not disappear overnight, but his journey had begun.

After college, Michael became a rock-radio DJ, but says he kept watching those tapes over and over. Eventually, he visited a Seventh-day Adventist Church, where the pastor and the congregation welcomed him warmly. As Michael studied Scripture, he accepted its teachings, and when the Sabbath conflicted with his job, he asked for Saturdays off—and agreed to work Sundays.

God soon took away his desire for cigarettes and drugs, but alcohol was harder. After another rough night of drinking, he thought, You did this to yourself, Michael. But you're having fun, aren't you? He recognized the irony in the question and knew it was time to surrender.

Soon he was baptized, his radio station was sold, and he sensed God's call to ministry. And today, he ministers with the grace that changed his life. "I don't want to go to Heaven alone," he says. "If God can do this for a guy like me, then imagine what He can do for you!"

(Left): José, his wife Yolanda, and their three children became very involved with their church—and in the Pathfinder and Adventurer Clubs.

Searching for More

José was raised in central Mexico, in a city famous for its statue of the Virgin Mary. "We didn't attend church very often," he says, "and my mother basically had to drag me there. She always hoped I would become a priest, but since I knew they never married, I wanted no part of that!"

After coming to the United States to finish his schooling, José felt a need for God and attended Mass for several months. But one day, he looked in the mirror and thought, You are such a hypocrite! You can't wait to get out of Mass! so he stopped going to church for several years.

After his father died, he began wondering about life beyond the grave. Life is just a rat race—work, sleep, eat, and work. So when I die, is that it? he wondered. While searching for answers, he would stop and listen whenever he saw someone talking about Jesus on television. And he was especially fascinated when they talked about Bible prophecy.

One night, he discovered 3ABN, and the first words he heard got his attention. "Pastor Lyle Albrecht was talking about the Sabbath, and I remembered that Jesus would teach in the synagogues on the Sabbath. I had always wondered why Jesus went there on the Sabbath. And if He did, then why didn't we?"

José began watching 3ABN regularly, sometimes staying up until 3:00 or 4:00 in the morning despite having to work the next day. "What they said about Bible prophecy was so different than what I'd heard that I became confused and eventually stopped watching," he admits. "But the Holy Spirit kept urging me to go back and watch 3ABN, so I finally did. And this time, everything seemed to make sense—especially since I looked up every Bible text they mentioned to make sure it was absolutely true!"

About a year later, José heard someone mention the Seventh-day Adventist Church. What? There's a church that teaches all this? he wondered.

He soon found a church in his town and called them one Sabbath, only to learn that the service had already begun. For several weeks, he drove slowly past the church but lacked the courage to go inside.

"When I finally did, I was greeted by the most wonderful people," he recalls. "They made me feel so welcome, and right away, I felt like I was home. Every fiber of my being longed for this fellowship, and I knew that God had led me there. I felt like I'd been a part of their group ever since I began watching 3ABN, because everything they talked about, I'd already heard!"

"Today I have purpose in my life. I come to Jesus, and then I go for Jesus. I want to bring as many people as I can to Him!"

We rejoice with the hosts of Heaven over every testimony we hear from those who have found answers through our Bible prophecy programs and experience the transforming power of God's Word.

ADDICTION RECOVERY

NO LONGER BOUND

Doug was at the end of himself. Recently laid off and denied unemployment, he sat alone in his home with a bottle of Scotch and a joint, surfing through television channels while nothing held his attention.

Suddenly, he stopped to watch a pastor talking about the Holy Spirit—and then came the challenge: "You're doing things your way," the preacher said. "But I challenge you to ask the Holy Spirit to show you what to do instead!"

Doug pointed at the television. "All right, Holy Spirit, You're on!" he shouted. "I challenge You to show me what to do!"

Unemployed, and with only $100 to his name, he felt that the Holy Spirit was impressing him to start a taxi business. And with no taxi insurance, drivers, or office, he began by offering rides through a car-pooling service.

Then one day, he picked up a hitchhiker who took some of his business cards and spread them throughout the city. Soon his phone was ringing off the hook, and within a month, he had taxi insurance.

Doug had discovered a local 3ABN TV station, and God continued working on his heart by bringing him face-to-face with his hatred toward his father. For years, he'd blamed him for much of what had gone wrong in his life. But then he heard a simple message: "You don't have to forgive him. Just allow the Holy Spirit to forgive him through you." And as he prayed for God to give him forgiveness, Doug experienced a peace he could not explain.

He had struggled with addictions since his youth. He knew he needed to change, but felt powerless. But after years of battling addictions, Doug discovered the promise of Exodus 20:2: "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage."

"I suddenly realized I was a slave," he says, "and that God had brought me out of the house of bondage. That changed everything—and I was finally free!"

Soon Doug was baptized, believing that God would finish what He had started in his life. "My company grossed over a million dollars last year," he says, "but that's a minor thing in my life. The major thing was way beyond my dreams, and that was the freedom I discovered in Jesus Christ!"

LOST AND FOUND

Hermya walked into church and burst into tears.

"They were deep sobs," she recalls. "So deep that I was unable to talk. But when the words finally came out, all I could say was, 'I'm lost! I'm lost!'"

When Hermya (L) came through the church doors sobbing, she was met and comforted by several ladies, including Carolyn (R), who showed her great love and compassion.

For years, she'd searched for truth while wrestling with questions about God and the Bible. Raised Catholic but primarily attending a United Methodist church, her life had taken a painful turn. What had originally begun with smoking marijuana had led her to a crack cocaine addiction. And for the next 30 years, she maintained a seemingly "normal" life while secretly battling a terrible addiction that consumed much of her income and strained her relationships with family and friends.

Then one day, while smoking crack and channel surfing, Hermya stopped on 3ABN. Pastor Stephen Bohr was presenting Cracking the Genesis Code, and suddenly, he was answering questions that had troubled her for years. She began watching 3ABN regularly. And when she watched 3ABN's Ten Commandments Weekend programs live from Washington, D.C., she remembers shouting, "He's real! His Commandments are real! And the Sabbath is real!"

She searched out an Adventist church, but when she finally walked through its doors the weight of her past overwhelmed her. "I've been on the road to condemnation, even though I thought I knew God. But now I realize I am really lost!" she cried.

Several ladies comforted and hugged her as she cried in the lobby. Then they prayed with her, and invited her to return.

Hermya not only came back, but also surrendered her addictions to God; and from that night forward, her desire for crack, cigarettes, and marijuana completely disappeared!

Three months later, Hermya was baptized, and eventually, she began serving as a deaconess and a prayer meeting leader. Those who might once have judged her by her past now saw a woman transformed by grace. When she surrendered her life to Christ, she found what she had been searching for all along—truth, forgiveness, and freedom.

SET FREE

And finally, here's a story of a man we'll call Jason, who stumbled across 3ABN during a difficult period of his life. As he struggled with his drug addiction, it seemed that no matter what, he always ended up watching 3ABN.

"Sometimes I was high, and sometimes I would watch while I was getting high," he says, "but I never went to bed without 3ABN on my TV; and throughout the night, I would wake up to God's Word."

Although he was incarcerated when he wrote us, Jesus had already set Jason free from his addiction before his arrest—and a beautiful Christian couple who had been to 3ABN was coming to visit him every week!

"I used to hear sermons about God's grace," he writes, "and I didn't fully feel or understand it. But now I know God surely loves me, because he has placed these chains of circumstances before me—and they're all linked to 3ABN!"

Yes, God is reaching out through 3ABN, breaking the bonds of addiction, and saving souls for His kingdom.

God Restores the Broken

God goes to any length to reach His children, and sometimes He uses unusual ways to accomplish this.

The Smallest Evangelist

On a Friday afternoon, Pastor Victor and a group of students had gone into the city of Popayán, Colombia, to do some shopping. One of the students was Laercio, a young man from Brazil, and as they rode back, the pastor asked him how to pronounce "Seventh-day Adventist Church" in Portuguese.

"Igreja Adventista do Sétimo Dia," Laercio said slowly. But although he tried to pronounce it, the pastor couldn't quite get it. So he asked Laercio to repeat the phrase again—and again.

Suddenly, the taxi driver slammed on the brakes! Startled, everyone looked up as their driver, Dagoberto, turned toward them, his eyes wide with astonishment.

"Are you guys Seventh-day Adventists?" he asked. "And if you are, then what is the name of the Seventh-day Adventist TV channel in town?"

When they told him that 3ABN Latino could be seen in Popayán, Dagoberto's face immediately lit up. "My entire family has been transformed by the saving power of Jesus Christ as we've watched 3ABN Latino!" he exclaimed.

Soon, the rest of his story came tumbling out. "Six months ago I was a drug addict, but one night, when I got home, I realized what miserable conditions my family lived in because of my addiction.

"I cried out to the Lord and fell to my knees, begging Him to help me, and in the wee hours of the morning, I woke up suddenly and turned on our little TV. And that's when I found 3ABN Latino!" he said.

"The message I saw at that moment was just for me, and I felt Jesus Christ knocking at the door of my heart. That next morning, I cried again as I told my wife and six daughters what had happened. I told them to watch that station and search for the Lord's presence through those programs."

For the next six months, Dagoberto, his wife Cristina, and their six daughters watched 3ABN Latino every day. And in that time, their home had been transformed. The man who had been trapped by addiction discovered a Savior who could not only change his life, but also his entire family.

The following Sabbath, Pastor Victor was in church when Dagoberto's family walked in. "Their youngest girl was only a month old," he recalls, "and with tears in their eyes, they gave their testimony and asked to be baptized. Then they presented the church with a special box that contained their tithe—a few coins they had faithfully put aside!

Their tithe represented six months of faithfulness—and the gratitude of a family that had discovered the love of Jesus.

Later, when Pastor Victor visited them at their small hut beside the river, he saw something he says he will never forget.

"Right there, in their home, I met the smallest evangelist I'd ever met in my life—a 10-inch TV set! It amazed me that this tiny TV had been the instrument God used to reach an entire family. Praise God for His amazing grace!"

Dagoberto, his wife Ana Cristina, and their six daughters have joined their local Seventh-day Adventist Church as the result of 3ABN Latino Network's broadcast in Colombia.

From Heartbreak to Hope

As he was growing up, Willie had often found himself in trouble; but because his grandmother faithfully took him to church each week, the day came when he gave his heart to Jesus.

However, his faith didn't immediately take root, so after serving time for breaking into a bootlegger's barn, Willie joined the Army, and later met and married Shirley.

Trying to control his drinking became a real struggle—until the day he'd had enough and said, "No more!" But by then, several strokes had taken away his independence.

Right about then, Shirley began attending a Baptist church, and Willie saw the change in her—especially when she was baptized. But shortly afterward, she was diagnosed with advanced stomach cancer.

For the next month, Willie tenderly cared for his wife, but when Shirley passed away, he was lost. "In my loneliness, God began to draw me back to Him," he says, "and one day, I saw a program on TV where a man was going through the Bible and explaining things. I could feel the Holy Spirit moving me to give my heart to Jesus again, and this time, I asked Him to stay with me—and He has!"

Willie had discovered 3ABN, and although he'd never heard of the seventh-day Sabbath, when he did, he asked his daughter to look for a Seventh-day Adventist Church. When she called the pastor, she told him her father was determined to be baptized again. And when he explained there were other ways of joining, Willie was adamant!

His pastor told us he'd never seen anyone so eager to study the Bible and join the church, and what a beautiful baptism it was! "It was my time to get serious," Willie says. "I'd been saved before, but I didn't stick with it. I felt the Holy Spirit move through my heart way back then, and God made His home in me all those years ago, so I guess He was just waiting on me.

"When you recieve Christ, you have the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in you. They'll take care of those things—if you let Them!"

PHYSICAL RESTORATION

A Path to Healing

Rita received an invitation to an evangelistic series in a Seventh-day Adventist church the very day she had decided to join a different denomination. "I knew that was a sign from God," she says, "and I didn't miss a single meeting!"

Rita was born, raised, and educated in the Roman Catholic faith. "And when I say that I was raised Catholic, I don't just mean that I went to a Catholic School—I mean that I was fully indoctrinated in the Catholic traditions," she says.

Her family carefully observed every Catholic holiday, abstained from meat on Fridays, and attended Mass every day. Her mother worked very hard to keep her in private school—a sacrifice she appreciates more now—and when she became a mother, Rita did the same for her own children whenever she could afford it.

Jesus and the Holy Bible

But although Catholicism shaped every part of her life, Rita says Jesus was not at the center of her faith.

"I was taught to fear God Almighty, then the pope, followed by the Blessed Virgin, my priest, and my parents. But Jesus Christ was not emphasized. I really never knew very much about Him, except that He bled and died for me, and that I should pray to the Virgin Mary to intercede with her Son for my salvation.

"The only Bible I ever owned was the white Catholic Bible that I took from the top of my mother's coffin," she says. "It sat on my coffee table, and I displayed it anywhere I moved to. But I never opened it. Not once."

Something was missing from Rita's life, and years of stress took a serious toll on her health.

"High blood pressure, a rare blood disease, thyroid problems, asthma—I had a lot of illnesses that today I know were stress-related in nature. I was very, very ill for almost seven years, and I was in the hospital a lot as doctors tried to find medicines and solutions to my health problems," she recalls. "I wasn't a free human being. I lived my life as other people wanted me to. Looking back now, I realize that there was so much control over me, and that I never felt comfortable."

Rita continued working and raising her children, even through the death of her husband; and later, she returned to school and earned her associate's, bachelor's, and master's degrees. But the biggest change of her life came when she discovered a new television station.

Messages of Hope and Healing

"I remember the first time I watched Three Angels Broadcasting Network," she says. "I saw these three angels flying through the sky with their trumpets, and I was fascinated, so I continued to watch.

"I was sick and bedridden at the time," she explains. "In fact, I had been sick for somewhere between 18 and 20 months. But as I watched 3ABN, something began to change.

"Here were these wonderful people, speaking in soft voices and sharing the love of Jesus, and I know that it all had a profound effect on me.

"I watched Curtis and Paula Eakins' Abundant Living cooking programs and began learning how to prepare food differently. I followed the exercises on Body and Spirit and my health began to improve. The 3ABN health professionals had so much good information that I was glued to my TV morning and night. But the greatest healing was spiritual, because for the first time, I was discovering Jesus!"

One day, Rita heard something about keeping a journal, so she began recording the date and time her prayers were answered. She also recorded the miracles and healings she and others were experiencing. "The Lord kept giving me the desires of my heart, and my journals show how He was and is active in my life every minute of every day!"

Unforgettable Experience

One night, Rita sat up in bed thinking a storm had awakened her. But when she realized there was no storm, she began to cry.

"I just knew it was the Lord," she says, "so I rolled off the bed onto my knees, reached for my Bible, and asked the Lord to reveal Himself. The first Scripture I opened to was Proverbs 3:5: 'Trust in the Lord with all your heart; and lean not unto your own understanding,' and I just knew that He had answered me," she says.

As she watched 3ABN, Rita discovered biblical truths she'd never been taught—including the Ten Commandments, the seventh-day Sabbath, tithing, clean and unclean foods, and about Jesus' Second Coming. And when she began keeping the Sabbath at home she experienced a peace she had never known.

Because she couldn't find a nearby Seventh-day Adventist church, she planned to worship at another Protestant church that offered a Saturday evening service. But the very day she decided to join that church, she opened her mailbox and found an invitation to an It Is Written evangelistic series at another Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"I knew that was a sign from God," she says. "And even though I was not well at the time, I didn't miss a single meeting!"

Rita joined her new church and soon was active in their prayer warrior and women's ministries.

"3ABN taught me how to read the Holy Bible," she concludes. "But most importantly, 3ABN gave me my relationship with Jesus Christ!

"It all started with three angels on my TV screen; but from there God led me to find physical healing—and a loving Savior whom I had never truly known!"

THE SABBATH FOUND THEM

Brenda didn't know what she was searching for—she only knew that something was missing. Then, one day, while aimlessly channel surfing, a voice from the television offered the comfort and assurance her heart had longed for.

In two weeks, she had learned about God's love and discovered the seventh-day Sabbath. In fact, she says her TV was tuned to that station day and night! And then, just as suddenly as it had appeared, 3ABN was gone. No matter how she searched, Brenda couldn't find that station again, but it was there long enough to change her life.

The Sabbath truth had especially captured her heart. "I was always intrigued by the fact that all of the other commandments started with a 'Thou shalt not,' but the fourth commandment started with the word 'Remember,'" she says. "I even looked it up and found out that it means 'to keep in one's mind, or in one's heart.' Suddenly, it all made sense: God didn't have to rest on the seventh day, He made the Sabbath so we could!"

She quickly found a Seventh-day Adventist church and someone gave her a series to watch by Pastor Doug Batchelor. And although family turmoil eventually pulled her away from church, it never pulled her away from God.

Years later, her 21-year-old daughter Brittany hit rock bottom in her addiction to alcohol and meth. When she called for help, Brenda tried her best, and in desperation, she gave her the same series to watch. Soon her daughter was asking questions, and contacted the pastor of a nearby Seventh-day Adventist church. As she studied the Bible with him, Brittany grew stronger in Christ, was set free from her addictions, and before long, they were both baptized.

Brenda never managed to pick up that station again. But it didn't matter anymore. The signal lasted only two weeks—but the message God sent reached Brenda, rescued her daughter, reunited her family, and gave them a new life in Jesus.

THE RING OF TRUTH

Vickie was looking for Southern Gospel Music when she found 3ABN, but God was looking for her heart.

"I grew up in a Bible-believing church, and attended services all my life," she says. "But my real love is singing Southern Gospel Music, so I got a satellite dish specifically for the 24-hour Gospel Music channel. Then one day, my husband and I saw a program called Israel In Prophecy, and since we were planning a trip to Israel, we watched it with interest."

Brenda (R) and her daughter Brittany (L) found their way to God and the Seventh-day Adventist faith through 3ABN.

As they watched, Vickie noticed the Seventh-day Adventist Church mentioned in the credits. "I knew nothing about Adventists, but I remember holding up my hands in front of me and saying, 'Whoa!' Why I did that, I don't know. I just knew it was different than what I'd practiced all my life. However, curiosity led me to start watching 3ABN—not to find truth, but to find something I could refute. But that never happened, of course, because they backed up all their teachings with plenty of Scripture."

The Sabbath challenged what she had always believed. So did what she discovered about death and Christ's Second Coming. But the more she searched the Bible, the more her understanding changed. For months, Vickie wrestled with what obedience to God meant. "My entire world was turned upside down," she says, "but it all rang true in my heart. So I prayed and I cried. A lot!"

Eventually, she could no longer ignore the truths she found in her Bible, and following God, she stepped away from what was familiar and began attending a Seventh-day Adventist church on Sabbath. Her decision was painful, though, because her friends honestly thought that she'd left God and joined a cult.

Then God placed Sheri in her path. On the Sabbath when they met, Sheri immediately sensed it was no coincidence.

"I was sitting on the back pew because I had a cold," she says. "Then Vickie sat down next to me, and before long I knew the Lord had arranged this divine appointment."

The two women quickly became friends, and before the day was over, Sheri had given Vickie a whole set of Bible studies and a copy of the book, The Great Controversy.

"I figured she would read them, and I was right," she said. "And that was the beginning of a beautiful friendship."

On the day Vickie was baptized and joined the church, her parents were there to witness that special moment.

Vickie had turned on her TV looking for Southern Gospel Music, but God used 3ABN to lead her to something far more precious—a deeper understanding of His Word and a closer relationship with her Savior.

What a beautiful reminder that God will always use every possible way to reach a searching heart.

THIS IS EVANGELISM. THIS... IS WHAT WE DO.

Mark, Chris, and their two sons were baptized after they discovered 3ABN using an old "rabbit ears" antenna.

TRUTH FINDS a Home

PHOTO SUPPLIED

Mark felt as though his life was coming apart. A break-in had wiped out $30,000 worth of uninsured tools from his shop. Then a confrontation with his boss cost him his newest job, and because he had no unemployment benefits, he had no income to fall back on. With his family depending on him, and seemingly with nowhere to turn, Mark had reached the lowest point of his life.

At the same time, something was stirring in his wife Chris. After years away from church, she felt the Holy Spirit urging her to return to the Lord. Raised in a Pentecostal church, she began attending again, and Mark soon joined her. As he studied the Bible and Christian literature, he became convinced that when he truly became a Christian, he would keep the seventh-day Sabbath.

Since their family was struggling financially, their cable was disconnected for nonpayment. So Mark dug out an old antenna to watch a little over-the-air television. Little did he know that God was about to use that simple antenna to bring a life-changing message into his home!

Soon he'd discovered 3ABN's downlink TV station, and was so fascinated with what he was hearing that he watched it almost constantly. For three days, Chris would wake during the night to find her husband sitting in front of the TV, sometimes crying, as he listened to God's Word. "The Lord was emptying him out," she recalls, adding that Mark would plead with her to sit down and watch with him.

But what Mark was learning on 3ABN challenged everything Chris had been taught. And as she began questioning her beliefs about the Sabbath, the state of the dead, and other doctrines, she realized this was the hardest battle she'd ever faced.

Desperately, she prayed, "Lord, if You want me to keep the Sabbath, You have to let me know—and not through Mark!"

That Friday, she asked him to take her to a Seventh-day Adventist church, yet no one was there. However, just as they were leaving, the pastor's wife arrived, and after talking to her for a while, Chris arranged for Bible studies with the pastor.

As she studied, her questions finally began to receive clear answers. "The Bible says…" became the pastor's gentle response, and Scripture began opening her eyes to truth.

Meanwhile, 3ABN continued reinforcing what she was learning and showing her how biblical principles applied to every area of life.

God was also transforming Mark. He experienced freedom from alcohol and a 24-year, two-and-a-half-pack-a-day smoking habit. What a beautiful day it was when Mark, Chris, and their two sons were baptized as all of Heaven rejoiced.

As you may have guessed, soon afterward, they could no longer receive 3ABN. The channel had simply disappeared. But by then, the messages had reached their destination. God had used 3ABN to bring His Word into a hurting home—and through the power of the Holy Spirit, He led an entire family from despair into truth, freedom, and a new life in Christ!

THE HOLY SPIRIT'S INVITATION

María Teresa was simply looking for something to watch when she discovered a "different" Christian channel on her TV—3ABN Latino. Because she helped take care of her grandchildren, she began by watching only a few hours at a time, making sure the kids watched the children's programs, as well. But before long, her daughters began noticing something unusual. When they came to pick up their children, María Teresa would be sitting by her TV, Bible in hand, completely absorbed in the program.

"Dad, there's something wrong with her!" her daughter would say. "How can we get her to stop watching that channel?" But nothing they said could pry her mother away.

"I was hearing and learning things I'd never known," she says, "and it was all in the Bible! The Sabbath especially fascinated me. I never knew it was part of the Ten Commandments," she admits. "I honestly didn't know! As I watched their Bible Answers program, I had so many questions," she recalls. "And someone would ask the very thing I was wondering about. It honestly felt like that program was custom-made just for me!"

Months passed, and María Teresa kept watching. "Mom is sick! There's something wrong with her!" the family would joke. But eventually, her daughters realized the problem wasn't their mother. Her sweet spirit helped them to finally realize there was something wrong with them, instead.

When María finally visited a Seventh-day Adventist church, she hesitated at the door.

"May I come in?" she asked.

"Of course," the greeter replied. "Did someone invite you to come?"

María sheepishly admitted that she didn't know anyone from that church, but just then, a nearby lady stepped over and said, "Well, then, it was the Holy Spirit who invited you!" and welcomed her with open arms.

María was delighted, and soon began to take Bible studies to prepare for baptism. But every time the church couple came to her home to study with her, Maria's family would run and hide!

As God would have it, they all eventually joined her Bible studies, and then came the glorious day when Maria Teresa and most of her family were baptized! Through 3ABN Latino, God brought truth into María Teresa's home— then used her to share it with those she loved the most.

THE IMPOSSIBLE IS POSSIBLE

GOD FINDS A WAY

PHOTO SUPPLIED

God delights in making the seemingly impossible happen—and for Mike, Susie, and their son Sam, it was to bring a 3ABN TV signal by breaking the laws of physics!

As she answered the phone, a cheery voice greeted her. "Hello, this is Mike, and I'm wondering what I can do to get 3ABN added to my cable company?"

Our Marketing Manager was delighted to share some effective methods of getting his church involved in that project, but as the conversation wound down, Mike had another question. "Do you mind if I tell you how I found 3ABN?"

"Please do," she said, and what came next was a rather familiar story.

"One day, I wondered if I could get some new TV channels by moving my antenna, and when I did, I found 3ABN!" he began. "That night, as we watched, my wife Susie asked, 'What else is on, Mike? You know I don't like all that Christian stuff!' But after she fell asleep, I turned it back to 3ABN. I was fascinated by the things I heard and grabbed my Bible to follow along. I'd been a Baptist for 15 years, and I'd never heard these things before!"

Mike watched 3ABN for the next two years, and then began wondering, What would Susie say if I told her I'd like to visit an Adventist Church?

One day, he received an invitation in the mail to a prophecy series being held at a nearby Seventh-day Adventist church. He thought about going, but decided to throw the invitation away without telling Susie about it. Then, a few days later, she came through the door waving something. "Look at this! I think we should go!" she exclaimed as she handed him the same invitation he'd thrown out days before.

"Tomorrow, my son, my wife, and I are all going to be baptized and join the Seventh-day Adventist Church!" Mike said.

"What a thrilling story!" our Marketing Manager exclaimed. "God used 3ABN to help your family learn more about Jesus, and I'm sure He was the One who impressed you to move your antenna!"

THE MOUNTAIN

Many months later, as they talked again about his cable campaign, she had a question for him.

"I'm pretty sure I already know the answer, but are you still getting 3ABN?"

"No, we haven't been able to pick it up for a few months now," he replied.

"Well, I found out that not only do you live too far away from that TV station, but there's also a mountain in the way! So technically, it's impossible for you to get 3ABN."

Mike thought for a moment, then answered, "Well, I guess sometimes God makes see-through mountains!"

STEALING TRUTH

Someone we'll call Mark and his roommate were not walking with the Lord. In fact, they were as far away from Him as they could get. One night they were bored with what regular TV offered, and since they couldn't afford a subscription to premium channels, they decided to splice into their neighbors' cable!

At first, they were delighted. But they'd gotten a lot more than they bargained for! As they drank and smoked, Mark flipped through his new stolen cable channels and came across one he hadn't seen before.

At first, they made fun of what they saw and heard on 3ABN. But later, Mark started watching more often—and gradually, the Holy Spirit got through to his heart. The truths he learned convicted and converted him; bringing him to be baptized in a Seventh-day Adventist church!

Then one day, he came by our booth at a GYC Conference to tell us that now he has a ministry of his own!

Yes, you can steal the truth—but it might just set you free!

WHO TOUCHED THAT REMOTE?

Rhonda was not happy. As she watched a Christian TV program, all she could hear was how they were pushing the 'prosperity gospel,' and she was disgusted.

"Slamming my remote down, I said, 'God, there has to be more! I'm sick of this nonsense!' And as I did, my remote control changed channels to 3ABN! I thought, What is this? I didn't know I could even get this channel! I had the basic TV package for senior citizens, but now here was someone talking about the Sabbath! When Pastor James Rafferty spoke, I sat up straighter and listened more closely. I'd attended church as a kid, but I'd never heard anything like this!" she exclaims.

"It wasn't long before I realized that I'd been following wrong doctrine all my life! It disturbed me to realize that most Christians adopted Sunday as their day of worship—and that the Bible predicted that would happen all the way back in Daniel's day (Daniel 7:25)! I guess I never did understand that part of the Bible, even though I read it. I'd missed the message because I was stuck to tradition, but now it made perfect sense to me.

"I was so impressed by the presenters on 3ABN, their lovely spirits, and how they knew both the Old and the New Testaments," she says. "I was in my 70s, but my eyes had been opened. I now worship the Lord on His holy Sabbath. I've talked about what I'm learning on 3ABN with all my friends, and now they're watching, too!

"God leading me to 3ABN is the greatest blessing He ever gave me. And I know He's the One who changed my TV channel. No way could that remote just land on that channel when I threw it down!"

Yes, we serve the God who delights in making the impossible possible.

WHEN GOD REACHES IN

A man we'll call John had been in prison for a long time. For over two decades, his prison cell had been his world. Raised in the Baptist faith, he had attended services in many denominations; but during his third year of incarceration, he'd made a decision to honestly seek God. Joining the Episcopalian faith, he studied the Bible and even enrolled in college classes to prepare for ministry. But what little faith he had was soon greatly challenged by what he was learning.

Confused by teachings that contradicted Scripture, John eventually left school and organized religion, opting to study the Bible for himself. For the next three years, he compared three Bible translations verse by verse, consulting the chapel's huge Exhaustive Concordance for the meanings of Hebrew and Greek words when necessary.

"By the time I cycled through all three Bibles three times, I'd realized that almost everything I thought I knew about God's Word—and most everything I'd been taught—was wrong!" he exclaimed.

A NEW CHANNEL

Although he longed to share what he'd discovered, John feared that others would think he was crazy. But God had an answer, and while channel surfing, he happened upon a television station he'd never seen before. The local Seventh-day Adventist Conference prison ministry had helped provide the satellite dish, and now 3ABN's Christ-centered programming was available throughout that facility.

"All of a sudden I wasn't alone anymore!" he wrote. "I'd never seen any of you before, but I immediately recognized my brothers and sisters in Christ by the message you proclaimed! 3ABN became my second home, and my place of worship. If I was a castaway, 3ABN would have been my life raft—my secure place in a sea of confused Christians."

Through a fellow inmate, he soon learned of a small group that worshipped on Saturdays. After attending for two months, he asked to be baptized; and just two weeks later, he became part of the prison congregation.

3ABN continued to strengthen him, and his faith grew into ministry. When he began teaching Sabbath School and faced resistance, our 3ABN pastoral team offered him encouragement, prayers, and materials. Their support helped him persevere and eventually preach his first sermon; and the little congregation quickly grew from eight to 26!

John remained confident in the God he'd discovered through Scripture—and the ministry that helped him realize he was not walking this journey alone.

"No one could be more thankful that you followed the vision God gave you than I am," he wrote. "And that's why I can continue saying yes to God, even when I can't see how, or when, or with what means it will be supplied."

RADIO REACHED HIM

While incarcerated, Mark discovered our 3ABN Radio station right here in southern Illinois and began corresponding with our Pastoral Department. "You had a most precious message," he wrote. "A message of overcoming all sin, and that Christ is able to keep us from falling!"

Mark longed to worship Jesus on the Sabbath and serve others, but knew he couldn't do it alone. Our Pastoral Ministry volunteer not only answered with compassion, but also sent him Bible-study materials and encouraged him to trust in God.

Then came an unexpected opportunity. Although the prison chaplain would not allow an outside volunteer to lead Sabbath services, Mark could, if he wished!

He was frightened, and wrote, "I don't know how to lead a worship service, and I'm afraid I'm unworthy for such a task! I'm not a preacher, and this is an important matter, because souls are at stake."

But Mark was willing to follow wherever Christ led him, and for months and years, our staff continued to encourage him by sending DVDs of certain programs, and helping him find answers to difficult Bible questions.

Eventually, Mark asked if someone from 3ABN could come and visit his Sabbath group, so we connected him with a pastor on our staff who had begun a prison ministry. And soon a team of 3ABN volunteers began traveling to that penitentiary each Sabbath to worship with the growing group of believers.

Then came that special day when the prison chaplain and our team watched two pastors baptize Mark and five of his fellow prisoners. One by one, six men buried their old lives and emerged to a new life in Christ in the only baptistery available—a large blue plastic laundry cart!

"It was one of the most moving baptisms I've ever witnessed," one team member recalls. "We all had tears in our eyes as we saw what Christ had done to them—and through them."

Mark had found more than a radio station. He'd found truth, a Christian family, encouragement, and the courage to serve. The man who once pleaded that he could not do this alone had become the one leading his fellow inmates to worship Jesus.

Isaiah foretold that Jesus would come "to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound" (Isaiah 61:1). Behind prison walls, where physical freedom may be years away, 3ABN is helping people discover a type of freedom that no prison can take away.

AMERICA AT 250 And Beyond

by James Rafferty

Perfect for sharing!

Long before today's headlines, the Bible spoke about the rise, the role, and the future of nations. Could those ancient prophecies still have meaning today?

This short, easy-to-read booklet explores insights from Daniel and Revelation, uncovering a perspective on America's future that is both eye-opening and hopeful. Discover how prophecy points not only to coming challenges, but to a message of hope, freedom, and a decision that affects us all.

3ABN EVANGELISM

EVERY DAY. EVERY SOUL. EVERY NATION.

OUR MISSION CONTINUES

3ABN EVANGELISM 365

Turn the pages of this magazine and you'll encounter something more powerful than programs, broadcasts, or statistics. You'll find lives changed by Jesus.

A prisoner finds a new beginning. A troubled heart discovers peace. Someone struggling physically, mentally, or spiritually finds hope and restoration. A searching soul encounters the truth of God's Word.

These are the stories that remind us why 3ABN exists.

The mission God gave Danny Shelton in 1984 remains our mission today: To "proclaim the undiluted three angels' messages" of Revelation 14 to the world and to "counteract the counterfeit." And by God's grace—and your faithful support—that mission continues after more than four decades! But our mission isn't complete.

A FAMILY MISSION

We can never adequately express our love and gratitude to you for choosing to join us as part of our worldwide 3ABN Family.

Evangelism is in our DNA, and our vision is summed up in three simple phrases: "Every Day. Every Soul. Every Nation." And through 3ABN Evangelism 365, we invite you to take another step—to become a Family Partner in this ministry.

When you give to Evangelism 365 one-hundred percent of those funds go directly to evangelism. Your gift helps keep the gospel on the air every day, reaching untold millions of souls around the world with truth and hope through Christ-centered programming across all 15 of our TV and radio networks and the internet.

Your support helps make the stories and testimonies you read in this magazine and hear about on our programs possible—stories of people who experience mental, physical, and spiritual restoration; prisoners who discover a new freedom in Christ; and searching hearts who find the truth and transformation that only Jesus can provide.

Consistent support makes consistent evangelism possible. It helps keep the message moving forward day after day, reaching people who may never look for truth by walking through the doors of a church or meeting a pastor face-to-face.

And if 3ABN has been a blessing in your life, you now have a wonderful opportunity to pass that blessing along.

FOR EVERY BELIEVER

3ABN President Greg Morikone is passionate about this. "Evangelism isn't just for pastors, evangelists, or missionaries—it's for every believer!" he says. "It's about everyday people partnering with God to do eternal work. When you consistently support Evangelism 365, you help to bring truth to distant places we cannot go. And that's the heartbeat of Evangelism 365!"

"Each program we broadcast is much more than just content—it's a lifeline of hope!" says Jill Morikone, 3ABN Vice-President/COO. "Our programs remain online after they are broadcast, so your gift keeps multiplying long after they originally air. When you support 3ABN Evangelism 365, you're not simply a supporter—you're part of the family!"

UNTIL THE WHOLE WORLD KNOWS

We don't know the name of every person who will discover 3ABN today. We don't know which broadcast will reach them at the exact moment they're ready to listen. We don't know whose life will be changed by a program, a testimony, a Bible study, or a message of hope.

But we do know this: The gospel of Jesus Christ must keep being proclaimed!

Your consistent support helps someone find peace for their troubled mind, hope for their broken heart, and salvation for their searching soul.

The doors to evangelism will soon be closed, and even now, media restrictions are tightening. But praise God, the gospel still flows freely through 3ABN's broadcasts and digital platforms!

So let's keep going. Let's keep proclaiming the everlasting gospel. Let's keep lifting up Jesus in places we cannot physically go. Every day. Every soul. Every nation—until the whole world knows!

Your Gifts Reach Souls

by Addie Weesner

We are truly grateful for the generosity and faithful support our 3ABN Donation Center receives from faithful partners like you. We treat each item you donate with special care and appreciation because we understand that your gifts may carry cherished memories, sentimental value, or special meaning to you and your family.

When your donated items are placed in our 3 Angels Gift Shop on eBay, you can be assured that the proceeds are used to help proclaim the undiluted three angels' messages of Revelation 14 to the world. These urgent messages are God's loving appeals to prepare mankind physically, mentally, and, above all, spiritually for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. The proceeds also help us reach people who are hungry for truth and long to know Jesus.

Treasures with Purpose

Our 3ABN Donation Center accepts gifts in kind, including gold and silver coins, fine jewelry, gently used musical instruments, running vehicles, campers and motorhomes in good working condition, antiques, collections, and new collectibles of many kinds. Every cherished gift can make a difference in helping the ministry share the good news about Jesus through the airwaves and beyond.

What a tremendous difference your donation makes, since your gift helps us reach another person with the gospel. And every soul won to Christ is an investment with eternal value!

Jesus said, "'Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth ... but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven ...'" (Matthew 6:19–20), and the greatest treasures are the souls He has redeemed. As we focus on eternity, let's invest the resources God has entrusted to us in finishing His work. Together, we can hasten the coming of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Addie Weesner is our 3ABN Donation Department Manager.

If you have something you would like to donate, please call us at (618) 627-4651 extension 3079 before sending your items. An assessment report for tax purposes is available upon request.

PLANNED GIVING & TRUST

When Our Journey Began

by Jeff Doerr

Sometimes, God uses the simplest moments to change the direction of our lives, and for Charletta and me, that moment came one evening when she discovered 3ABN.

The messages we heard touched our hearts and raised questions we'd never considered. We began studying our Bibles and checking what we were learning; and as our understanding grew, so did our desire to follow God's Word. Then came our decision to give ourselves completely to Christ, and were baptized.

Looking back, we see God's providence in leading Charletta to tune in to 3ABN that evening. What seemed like an ordinary moment was the beginning of a life-changing journey. But our story is only one of countless stories. Through the years, 3ABN has been used by God to reach people in homes around the world—people who were searching for truth, longing for hope, struggling with life's challenges, or simply looking for a better relationship with Jesus.

Today, I have the privilege of serving as 3ABN's Director of Planned Giving and Trust Services. It is humbling to think that the ministry I first encountered as a viewer would one day become the ministry in which I serve.

Every day, I am reminded that 3ABN is about much more than television or radio. It's about changed lives. It's about people discovering biblical truth, finding hope in Jesus, and preparing for His soon return.

Our prayer is that 3ABN will continue to be a tool in God's hands, reaching hearts and changing lives—just as He used it to change ours. Tonight, someone will turn on their TV—and discover 3ABN.
